43 And all the people departed, every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him: 11 He promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel;

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover, I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired, that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God; and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make a thine-own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house; therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant;

27 Now, therefore, let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites: 3 He smitteth Hadarezer and the Syrians.

9 Tou sendeth Hadoram with presents to bless David. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took a Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab: and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

Before CHRIST cir. 1040.
3 And David smote ^aHadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river ^dEuphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand ^echariots, and ^fseven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but ^greserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David ^hslew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in ⁱSyria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the Lord ^kpreserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the ^lshields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to ^mJerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ⁿSolomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah, 10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, [†]to inquire of his welfare, and [†]to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 Them also king David ^odedicated unto the Lord, with the silver and the gold that ^phe brought from all these nations; from Edom and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from ^qAmalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites, in the ^rvalley of Salt, eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and ^sexecuted judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And ^tJoab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and ^uJehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the ^xpriests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

C H A P. XIX.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villanously entreated. 6 The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW ^ait came to pass after this, that ^bNahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his ^cson reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, ^dbecause his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, ^eto comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, ^fThinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and ^gto spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and ^hshaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their ⁱbuttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; (for the men were greatly ashamed.) And the king said, Tarry at ^jJericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves ^k† odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired ^lthirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before ^mMedeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent ⁿJoab, and all the host of the ^omighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the ^pcity; and ^qthe kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the ^r† battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of ^sAbishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt ^t† help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 ^uBe of good courage, and ^vlet us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and let the Lord do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab, and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise ^w† fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were ^x† put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river; and ^yShophach, the captain of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered

AND ^a Satan stood up against Israel, and ^b provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel, from ^c Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD [†] make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 ^d Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went ^e throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 [†] And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were ^f a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them; for the king's word was ^g abominable to Joab. 7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he ^h smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have ⁱ sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's ^k seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, ¹ Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: ^m choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad ^a came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee

12 Either three years' ^o famine; or three months to ^p be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now, therefore, advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for ^{||} very great are his mercies: but let me ^q not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel ^r seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he ^s repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lift up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having ^t a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem: then David and the elders of Israel, who were ^u clothed in sackcloth, ^x fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even ^y I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed: but as for these ^z sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked, and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD; thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering: I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt-offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon:

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid, because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

C H A P. XXII.

1 David foreknowing the place of the temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it: 6 He instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple. 17 He chargeth the princes to assist his son.

THEN David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build an house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

1 David in his old age maketh Solomon king. 2 The number and distribution of the Levites. 7 The families of the Gershonites. 12 The sons of Kohath.

21 The sons of Merari. 24 The office of the Levites.

SO when David was ^aold and full of days, he ^bmade Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he ^cgathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of ^dthirty years and upward; and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were ^eofficers and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters: and four thousand ^fpraised the LORD with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And David ^gdivided them into ^h† courses among the sons of Levi, namely, ⁱh Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the ^ji Gershonites were ^kll Laadan and Shimei.

8 The ^lk sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah [†]had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of [†]l Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of ^mm Amram; Aaron and Moses; and ⁿn Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify [†]the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and ^oto bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the ^pp man of God, ^qhis sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the ^rr sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of ^ss Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah [†]were very many.

18 Of the sons of [†]u Izhar; ^vv Shelomith the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 ¶ ^aThe sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but ^vdaughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish ^ztook them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of ^aLevi, after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the ^bwork for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of ^ctwenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given ^drest unto his people, that they may dwell ^ein Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also unto the Levites; they shall ^fno more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because [†]their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron, for the ^gservice of the house of the LORD, in the ^hcourts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for the ⁱshew-bread, and for the ^kfine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size;

30 And to stand every ^lmorning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise ^mat even;

31 And to offer all ⁿburnt-sacrifices unto the LORD, in the sabbaths, in the ^onew moons, and on the set ^pfeasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

32 And that they should keep the ^qcharge of the ^rtabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 The division of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. ^aThe sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But ^bNadab and Abihu died ^cbefore their father, and had ^dno children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both ^eZadok of the sons of Eleazar, and ^fAhimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their ^goffices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar, according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided ^hby lot, one sort with with another: for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshbeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses,

16 The nineteenth to Pethaiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the ordelings of them in their service, to come into the house of the Lord, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah; of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, and Zadok and Abimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers, over against their younger brethren.

C H A P. XXV.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

MOREOVER, David, and the captains of the host, separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen, according to their service, was;

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiab, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the Lord.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the Lord, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them with their brethren, that were instructed in the songs of the Lord, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now, the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jeshaiab, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

18 The eleventh to Azareel, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had charge of the treasures. 29 Officers and judges.

CONCERNING the ^adivisions of the ^bporters : Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the ^cfirst-born, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover, the sons of ^dObed-edom were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth.

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peluthai the eighth ; for God ^eblessed || him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father : for they were ^fmighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah ; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, ^gElzabad, whose brethren were ^hstrong men ; Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom ; they, and their sons, and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also ⁱHosah, of the children of ^jMerari, had sons ; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet ^khis father made him the chief,)

11 Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth : all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the ^ldivisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards ^mone against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 And they cast lots, as well the ⁿsmall as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son (a wise counsellor) they cast lots, and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward ; and to his sons the house of Asuppim.

16 To ^oShuppim and Hosah ^pthe lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the ^qgoing up, ward against ^rward.

17 ^sEastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At || Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the ^ttreasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the ^udedicated things.

21 As concerning the sons of Laadan : the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli ; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 Of the ^xAnramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites :

24 And ^yShebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer ; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which ^zDavid the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 Out of the ^aspoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.

28 And all that ^bSamuel the seer, and ^cSaul the son of Kish, and ^dAbner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated ; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the ^eoutward business over Israel, for ^fofficers and ^gjudges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward, ^hin all business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the ⁱfortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at ^kJazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the ^lReubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasof Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachab:

17 Of the Levites, ^r Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: [†] of the Aaronites, ^s Zadok:

18 Of Judah, ^{||} Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael.

19 Of Zebulun, ^t Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of ^u Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiab:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in ^v Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of ^w Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from ^x twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the ^y stars of the heavens.

24 ^b Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he ^c finished not, because there ^d fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the Chronicles of king David.

25 And over the ^e king's treasures was Azemaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziel:

26 And over them that did the work of the field, for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And ^f over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive-trees, and the ^g sycamore-trees that were in the low plains, was Baalhanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in ^h Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the ⁱ camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the ^j asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were the rulers of the ^k substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan, David's ^l uncle, was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

33 And ^m Abithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's ⁿ companion:

34 And ^o after Abithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and ^p Abiathar: and the ^q general of the king's army was Joab.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly, having declared God's favour to him, and promise to his son Solomon, exhorteth them to fear God: 9 He encourageth Solomon to build the temple: 11

He giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

AND David ^a assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the ^b stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his ^c sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king ^d stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, ^e my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in ^f mine heart to build an house of ^g rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the ^h footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name; because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed [†] blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me ⁱ before all the house of my father to be king over Israel ^k for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of ^l Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me, to make me king over all Israel:

5 And ^m of all my sons (for the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, ⁿ Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my ^o courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my ^p commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God, that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, ^q know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with ^r a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD ^s searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the ^t sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the ^u pattern of the porch, and of the ^x houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the ^y mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the ^z treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the ^a dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of ^b gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; ^c silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the ^d candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof; and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of ^e shew-bread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the ^f flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups; and for the ^g golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the ^h chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand ⁱ in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not ^k fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the ^l courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee, for all manner of workmanship, every willing skilful man, for any manner of service; also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 David, by his example and entreaty, 6 causeth the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 David's thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people having blessed God, and sacrificed, make Solomon king. 26 David's reign and death.

FURTHERMORE, David the king said unto ^a all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet ^b young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not ^c for man, but ^d for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; ^e onyx-stones, and stones to be set, ^f glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of ^g precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have ^h set my affection to the house of my God, I have, of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to

¶ The SECOND Book of the CHRONICLES.

C H A P. I.

1 *The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. * 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.*

AND Solomon the son of David ^a was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God ^b was with him, ^c and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon ^d spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the ^e high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the ^f tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from ^g Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, the ^h brasen altar that Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; and Solomon and the congregation ⁱ sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar ^k before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 In that ^l night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign ^m in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over ⁿ a people like the dust of the earth in ^o multitude.

10 ^p Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may ^q go out and come in before this people: for who can ^r judge this thy people that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this ^s was ^t in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 ^u Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as ^v none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and ^w reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon ^x gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the ^y king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had ^z horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn; the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt, a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, ^{aa} by their means.

C H A P. II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His ambassage to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the ^{ab} name of the LORD, and an house ^{ac} for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ^{ad} ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the ^{ae} mountain, and ^{af} three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent to ^{ag} Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the ^{ah} name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the ^{ai} continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God ^{aj} above all gods.

6 But ^{ak} who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and ^{al} heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now, therefore, ^{am} a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson, and blue, and that can skill ^{an} to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did ^{ao} provide.

8 Send me also ^{ap} cedar-trees, fir-trees, and ^{aq} al-gum-trees, out of Lebanon; (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon;) and behold, ^{ar} my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be ^{as} wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand ^{at} measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand ^{au} baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Hiram the king of Tyre † answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath † loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that † made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, † endowed with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endowed with understanding, of † Hiram my father's, 14 The † son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, † as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to † Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all the † strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be † bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

C H A P. III.

1 The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The vail and pillars.

THEN Solomon † began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount † Moriah, where the LORD † appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of † Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the † second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was † instructed for the building of the house of God. The † length by cubits, after the † first measure, was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the † porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the † greater house he ceiled with † fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon † palm-trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with † precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of † Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graven † cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made † the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the † upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy place he made two † cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the † wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were † inward.

14 And he made the † vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two † pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he † reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

2 Also he made a † molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an hand-breadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held ^a three thousand baths.

6 He made also ^a ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they ^a washed in them; but the sea was for the ^a priests to wash in.

7 And he made ^a ten candlesticks of gold according to their ^a form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also ^a ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basons of gold.

9 Furthermore, he made ^a the court of the priests, and the ^a great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with ^a brass.

10 And he set the ^a sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And ^a Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars:

13 And four hundred ^a pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also ^a bases; and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it:

16 The ^a pots also, and the shovels, and the ^a flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon, for the house of the LORD, of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the ^a clay-ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could ^a not be found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the ^a golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shew-bread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after ^a the manner, before ^a the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that ^a perfect gold;

22 And the ^a snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the ^a entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CHAP. V.

1 The dedicated treasures. 2 The solemn induction of the ark into the oracle. 11 God being praised, giveth a visible sign of his favour.

THUS all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the ^a things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon ^a assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ^a ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king, in the feast which was in the ^a seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the ^a Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the ^a holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the ^a priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed ^a sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the ^a oracle of the house, into the ^a most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the ^a staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ^a ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was ^a nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at ^a Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the ^a holy place; (for all the priests that were present were ^a sanctified, and did not then ^a wait by course;

12 Also the Levites, which were the ^a singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being ^a arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets;)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lift up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is ^a good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with ^a a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for ^a the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

THEN ^a said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the ^b thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy ^c dwelling for [†] ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and ^d blessed the whole congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel ^e stood:)

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands ^f fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I ^g chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen ^h Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be ⁱ over my people Israel.

7 Now it was ^k in the heart of David my father to build an house for the ^l name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst ^m well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy ⁿ loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on ^o the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel:

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the ^p covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread ^q forth his hands,

13 (For Solomon had made ^r a brasen scaffold of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the ^s court; and upon it he ^t stood, and ^u kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven,)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is ^v no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants that ^w walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, [†] There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to ^z their way to walk in ^a my law, as thou hast walked before me.

CHRIST

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, ^b heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!)

19 Have respect, therefore, to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth [†] before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place.

21 Hearken, therefore, unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then ^c hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him ^d according to his righteousness.

24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, ^e because they have sinned against thee, and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and ^f forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heaven is ^g shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and ^h turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast ⁱ taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon the land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 If there be ^j dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them [†] in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be;

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house;

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only ^k knowest the hearts of the children of men:)

31 That they may ^l fear thee, to walk in thy ways

32 Moreover, concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched-out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel; and may know that \dagger this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they \circ pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their \parallel cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which ϕ sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet if they \dagger bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee Σ with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name;

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, α thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore \dagger arise, O LORD God, into thy \dagger resting-place, thou, and the ark of thy Σ strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be Σ clothed with salvation, and let thy Σ saints rejoice in goodness.

42 O LORD God, α turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

C H A P. VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. 4 Solomon's solemn sacrifice.

8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon, giveth him promises upon condition.

NOW when Solomon α had made an end of praying, the β fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the ϵ glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could δ not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they ϵ bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And King Solomon offered \dagger a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests Σ waited on their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the β priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel \dagger stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon κ hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 Also, at the same time, Solomon kept \dagger the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of α Hama unto the β river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a \dagger solemn assembly: for they kept the \circ dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the \dagger three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart, for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus Solomon α finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he \dagger prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD α appeared to Solomon β by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have \circ chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 If I Σ shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I Σ command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall Σ humble themselves, and α pray, and β seek my face, and ϵ turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now α mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place:

16 For now have I ϵ chosen and sanctified this this house, that my name may be there for ever : and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments ;

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods and worship them ;

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them : and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it ; so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this house ?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them : therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

AND it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the Lord, and his own house,

2 That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars ;

6 And Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work ; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her : for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy whereunto the ark of the Lord hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the Lord on the altar of the Lord, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required ; the porters also by their courses at every gate : for so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the Lord, and until it was finished : so the house of the Lord was perfected.

17 Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea ; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be † kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the ^e young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly: and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the ⁱ advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; for the † cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Abiah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent [†] Hadoram, that was over the ⁱ tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones that he died: but king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel ^m rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

C H A P. XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah: 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the ^a house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were ^b warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the ^c man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel ^d in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up nor fight against ^e your brethren: return every man to his house; for this ^f thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and ^g built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even ^h Beth-lehem, and ⁱ Etam, and ^k Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, 8 ^l And Gath, and ^m Mareshah, and ⁿ Ziph, 9 And Adoraim, and ^o Lachish, and ^p Azekah, 10 And ^q Zorah, and ^r Aijalon, and ^s Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 (For the Levites left their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ^t Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from ^u executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him ^x priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves ^y which he had made.)

16 And ^z after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as ^a set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for ^b three years they ^c walked in the way of David and ^d Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamaiah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took ^e Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his ^f concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler ^g among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt ^h wisely, and ⁱ dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city; and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired many wives.

C H A P. XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak: 5 He and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AN I it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had ^a strengthened himself, he ^b forsook the law of the Lord, and ^c all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that, in the fifth year of Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, ^d because they had transgressed against the Lord,

3 With twelve hundred ^e chariots, and three-score thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the ^f Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the ^g fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye have ^h forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king ⁱ humbled themselves; and they said, ^k The Lord is righteous.

7 And when the Lord ^l saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will ^m not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath ⁿ shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know ^o my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So ^p Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ^q made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of ^r the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: ^s and also in Judah things went well.

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his ^t name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because ^u he prepared not his heart to ^v seek the Lord.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of ^w Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo ^x the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam ^y slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam.

4 He declareth the right of his cause; 13 Trusting in God, he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW in the ^z eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother's name also was ^a Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel of ^b Gibeah:) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah ^c set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, ^d even ^e four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, ^f being mighty men of valour.

4 And Abijah ^g stood up upon mount ^h Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought you not to know, that the Lord God of Israel ⁱ gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, ^j even to him and to his sons by ^k a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^l rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him ^m vain men, the children of ⁿ Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was ^o young and ^p tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the Lord in the hand of the sons of David; and ye ^q be a great multitude, and there are with you ^r golden calves, which Jeroboam ^s made you for gods.

9 Have ye not ^t cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to ^u consecrate himself with a young bullock and ^v seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as ^w for us, the Lord is ^x our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests which minister unto the Lord, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they ^y burn unto the Lord, every morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the shew-bread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our ² captain, and his ² priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an ^a ambushment to come about behind them; so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they ^b cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that ^c God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God ^d delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel ^e five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were ^f brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they ^g relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him; ^h Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD ⁱ struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah ^j waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of ^k Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Asa succeeding, destroyeth idolatry: 6 Having peace, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 9 Calling on God, he overthroweth Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.

SO Abijah ^a slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land ^b was quiet ^b ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was ^c good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the ^d altars of the strange gods, and the ^e high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves;

4 And commanded Judah ^f to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away, out of all the cities of Judah, the high places and the images: and the kingdom ^g was quiet before him.

6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because ^h the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built, and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and ⁱ drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an host of ^j a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto ^k Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of ^l Zephtah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa ^m cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is ⁿ nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and ^o in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail ^p against thee.

12 So the ^q LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa, and the people that were with him, pursued them unto ^r Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host: and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the ^s fear of the LORD came upon them; and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the ^t tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to ^u Jerusalem.

C H A P. XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God: 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry: 18 He bringeth dedicated things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the ^a Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out ^b to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD ^c is with you while ye be with him: and if ye ^d seek him, he will be ^e found of you; but if ye forsake ^f him, he will forsake ^f you.

3 Now for ^g a long season Israel, hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law:

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in ^h those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon ⁱ all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And ^j nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye ^k strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak: ^l for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away † the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him:)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the fifth and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah: 7 Being reproved therefore by Hanani, he putteth him in prison: 11 Among his other acts, in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians: 13 His death and burial.

IN the sixth and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, (358) and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art; and they made a very great burning for him.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth: 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah: 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute: 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

AND Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel:

5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And ^a his heart was lift up in the ways of the LORD: moreover, he took away the ^b high places and groves out of Judah.

7 Also, in the third year of his reign, he sent to his ^c princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nathaneel, and to Micaiah, ^d to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent ^e Levites, even She-maiah, and Nathaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asa-hel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobiah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, ^f priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had ^g the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 And the ^h fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute-silver: and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

12 And Jehoshaphat ⁱ waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had ^j much business in the cities of Judah: and the ^k men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these ^l are the ^m numbers of them, according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who ⁿ willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with ^o bow and shield, two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat had ^a riches and honour in abundance, and ^b joined affinity with Ahab. 2 And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to ^c Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, ^d Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, ^e I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^f Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets ^g four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; ^h for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but ⁱ always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied ^j before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him ^k horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, ^l Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with ^m one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, ⁿ that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? and he said, ^o Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered unto your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee, that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did ^p see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return, therefore, every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore, hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the ^q host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left.

CHAP. XIX.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake, saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chensanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel: therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the sun going down he died.

1 Jehoshaphat reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom: 5 His instructions to the judges, 8 to the priests and Levites.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless, there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people, from Beer-sheba, to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 Moreover, in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea, on this side Syria: and, behold, they be in ^a Hazazon-tamar, which is ^c Eng-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat ^f feared, and set himself ^a to seek the LORD, and proclaimed ^b a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together to ask ^g help of the LORD; even out of ^h all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before ⁱ the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou ^j God in heaven? and ^k rulesst not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is ^l there not power and might, so that ^m none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou ⁿ our God, who didst ^o drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ^p thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee ^q a sanctuary therein for thy ^r name, saying,

9 If, ^s when ^t evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou ^u wouldst not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they ^v reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou ^w not judge them? for we have ^x no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but ^y our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood ^z before the LORD, with their ^a little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ^b Then upon Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite, of the sons of Asaph, came the ^c Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat; Thus saith the LORD unto you, ^d Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is ^e not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall ^f not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, ^g stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them; for the LORD will be ^h with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat ⁱ bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites of the children of the ^j Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, in ^k 1 Chr. 6, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ^l And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of ^m Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: ⁿ Believe in the LORD your God, so shall you be ^o established; believe his prophets, so shall ye ^p prosper.

21 And when he ^q had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the ^r beauty of holiness as ^s Ex. 15, 11 they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever. ^t Ps. 136, 1

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ^u ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab ^v stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they ^w were ^x dead bodies fallen to the earth, and ^y none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance, both riches with the dead bodies, and ^z precious jewels, (which they stripped off for themselves,) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day, they assembled themselves in the valley of ^a Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The ^b valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the ^c forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the LORD had made them ^d to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the ^e fear of God was on all the kingdoms of ^f those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his ^g God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the ^h way of Asa his father, 34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold they are written in the book of ^g Jehu, the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah ^h join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly.
36 And he joined himself with him to make ships ⁱ to go to Tarshish : and they made the ships in ^k Ezion-gaber.
37 Then Eliezer, the son of Dodavah of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast ^l joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath ^m broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

1 Jehoram succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren : 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt : 12 The prophecy of Elijah against him in writing : 16 The Philistines and Arabians oppress him : 18 His incurable disease, infamous death, and burial.

889. NOW Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David : and ^{||} Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
2 And he had brethren, the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah : all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.
3 And their father gave them great ^a gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah : but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was ^b the first-born.
4 Now when Jehoram was ^c risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and ^d slew all his brethren with the sword, and ^e divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ^e eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the ^f kings of Israel, like as did ^g the house of Ahab ; for he had the ^h daughter of Ahab to wife : and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the ^k covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a [†] light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the [†] dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram [†] went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him : and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did ^a Libnah revolt from under ^a his hand ; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made ^e high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit [†] fornication and ^a compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came ^a a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ^a ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go ^a a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of ^a Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself ;

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods :

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy ^a bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 [¶] Moreover, ^y the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were [†] near the Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and ^a brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives ; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 [¶] And after all this the LORD smote him in his ^a bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that, in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness ; so he died of sore diseases : and his people made no ^b burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and ^a departed [†] without being desired ; howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding, reigneth wickedly. 5 In his confederacy with Joram the son of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoshabeath his aunt hid, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^a made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead : for the ^b band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign ; and he reigned ^e one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the ^d daughter of Omri.

3 ^e He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab : for ^f his mother was his ^g counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab ; for they were his h 1 Kings 12, 14. 5 He walked also after their ⁱ counsel, and went with Jehoram, the son of Ahab, king of Israel, to war against Hazael king of Syria at ^{*} Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in ⁱ Jezreel, because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram, the son of ^{*} Ahab, at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the [†] destruction of Ahaziah ^m was of God, by coming to Joram; for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu, the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had [†] anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that when Jehu was ^o executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the ^p brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, ^q he slew them.

9 And ^r he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he ^s is the son of Jehoshaphat, who ^{*} sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 But when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, ^t saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed-royal of the house of Judah.

11 But ^u Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a [†] bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of ^{*} Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them ^v hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the [†] doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the [‡] gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into ^b the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they [†] are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the ⁱ Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever ^{else} cometh into the house, he shall be put to death; but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites, and all Judah, did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and ^k took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the ^{||} courses.

9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been ⁱ king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, (every man having his weapon in his hand, (from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they ^m brought out the king's son, and put upon him ⁿ the crown, and gave him the ^o testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [†] God save the king.

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD.

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his ^p pillar at the entering in, and the princes of the land rejoiced, and ^q sounded with trumpets; also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, ^r Treason, treason!

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso ^s followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the horse-gate, by the king's house, they ^t slew her there.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada.

4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple.

15 Jehoiada's death and honourable burial.

17 Joash falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehoiada.

23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehozabad.

27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

JOASH was ^a seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And ^b Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada ^c took for him ^d two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was ^e minded to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of ^f all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, the ^g collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the ^h tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, ⁱ that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the ^j dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon ^k Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made ^l a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that ^m at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired ⁿ masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and ^o the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made ^p vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver: and they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was ^q full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the ^r city of David among the kings, because he had ^s done good in ^t Israel, both towards God, and ^u towards his house.

17 Now ^v after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they ^w left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and ^x wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he ^y sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they ^z testified against them: but they would ^a not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye ^b cannot prosper? Because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and ^c stoned him with stones, ^d at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, ^e and require it.

23 And it came to pass, at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, ^f because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they ^g executed judgment against Joash.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; ⁿ Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 Now concerning his sons, and the^o greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the || story of the book of the Kings. And † Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 He executeth justice on the traitors: 5 Having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites, discontented with their dismission, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet: 17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 His reign: 27 He is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH ^a was^a twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but^b not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he^c slew his servants that had^d killed the king his father:

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, ^e The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains^f over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the^g houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from^h twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that couldⁱ handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an^k hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for^l an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came^m a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; ⁿ for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of^o Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, ^p do it, be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath^q power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD^r is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their^s anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the^t valley of Salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were^u broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto^v Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the^w gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be^x his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the^y people which could not deliver^z their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? ^a forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined^b to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then Amaziah king of Judah^c took advice, and || sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a^d wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and^e thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home, why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for^f it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth^g to Judah.

22 And Judah was^h put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God ^k with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the [†] hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, ¹ first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to ^m Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the ⁿ city of Judah.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Waxing proud, he invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten with leprosy: 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah took ^{||} Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^a according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God ^b in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in ^c the visions of God: and ^d as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth, and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God ^e helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the ^f Ammonites ^g gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built ^h towers in Jerusalem, at the ¹ corner-gate, and at the ^k valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the ¹ desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had ^m an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them, throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and ⁿ slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal: and his name spread far abroad; for he was ^o marvellously helped till he was strong.

16 But when he was ^p strong, ^q his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the ^r priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, ^r It ^{pertaineth} not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the ^s priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed: neither shall it be for thine ^v honour ^z from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and ^a while he was wroth with the priests, the ^b leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense-altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself ^c hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in ^d a several house, being a leper; for he was ^e cut off from the house of the LORD; and Jotham his son was over the king's house, ^f judging the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did ^g Isaiah the prophet the son of ^g Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah ^h slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

JOTHAM was ^a twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

² And he did that which was ^b right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he ^c entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet ^d corruptly.

³ He ^e built the ^f high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of ^g Ophel he built much.

⁴ Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah: and in the forests he built ^h castles and towers.

⁵ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year ⁱ an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand ^j measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year and the third.

⁶ So Jotham became mighty, because he ^k prepared his ^l ways before the LORD his God.

⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

⁸ He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

⁹ And ^m Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXVIII.

¹ Ahaz reigning very wickedly, is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. ⁶ Judah being captivated by the Israelites, is sent home by the counsel of Oded the prophet. ¹⁶ Ahaz sending for aid to Assyria, is not helped thereby. ²² In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. ²⁶ He dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

AHAZ was ⁿ twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was ^o right in the sight of the LORD, ^p like David his father:

² For he walked in the ^q ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for ^r Baalim.

⁵ Wherefore the LORD ^w his God delivered him into the hand of the ^x king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus; and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

⁹ But ^b a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers ^c was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that ^d reacheth up unto heaven.

¹⁰ And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for ^e bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, ^f sins against the LORD your God?

¹¹ Now hear me, therefore, and ^g deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for ^h the fierce wrath of God is upon you.

¹³ And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is ^j fierce wrath against Israel.

¹⁴ So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

¹⁵ And the men which were expressed by name ^k rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them ^l to eat and to drink, and ^m anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶ ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the ⁿ kings of Assyria to help him.

¹⁷ For ^o again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

¹⁸ The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken ^p Beth-shemesh, and ^q Ajalon, and ^r Gederoth, and ^s Shochu with the villages thereof, and ^t Timnah with the villages thereof; Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

²¹ For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, ^a and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of this distress did he trespass ^o yet more against the LORD: ^p this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he ^q sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria ^r help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they ^s may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz ^t gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto ^u other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 3 He restoreth religion. 5 He exhorteth the Levites. 12 They sanctify themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 20 Hezekiah offereth solemn sacrifices, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

HEZEKIAH ^a began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^b opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the ^c Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; ^d Sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the ^e filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For ^f our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have ^g turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have ^g shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the ^h holy place, unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the ⁱ wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to ^j trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the ^k sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make ^m a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, ⁿ be not now negligent: for the LORD hath ^o chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and burn incense.

12 ^p Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of ^q Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of ^r Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the ^s inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook ^t Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the ^u porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the ^v vessels thereof, and the ^w shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did ^x cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose ^y early, and gathered the ^z rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought ^a seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for ^b a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and ^c sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and ^d laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded, that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the princes, commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was three-score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering.
So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimed a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree, to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem; for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who, therefore, gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah, the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose, and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ^a ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, ^a according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites:

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified; therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had ^a not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one.

19 That ^a prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the ^b purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and ^b healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast ^k of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [†] comfortably unto all the Levites [†] that taught the ^l good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making ^m confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation ^a a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the ^a priests the ^p Levites arose and ^a blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up [†] to his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

CH A P. XXXI.

1 The people is broken in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordereth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 5 The people's forwardness in offerings and vishes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW ^a when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the ^b groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh; until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the ^c courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and ^a Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the ^e tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the ^f king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the ^g morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the ^h sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the ⁱ set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the ^k portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be ^l encouraged in the ^m law of the LORD.

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the ⁿ first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the ^o tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithes of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of ^p holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [†] by heaps.

7 In the ^q third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the ^r seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they ^s blessed the LORD, and ^t his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the [†] chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since the [†] people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD we have had ^u enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath ^x blessed his people: and that which is left is this great store.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ^y chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them, 12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicated things, [†] faithfully; over which Cononiah the Levite was ^z ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers, under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Heze-Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, † his daily portion for their service in their charges, according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses:

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their † set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself, and encourageth his people. 9 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 21 An angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 24 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery: 25 He waxing proud, is humbled by God: 27 His wealth and works: 31 His error in the ambassage of Babylon: 32 He dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was † purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city; and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid, nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.

8 With him is an arm of flesh: but with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon † do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Dost not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: † how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice, in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem saem as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 For this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried ^a to heaven.

21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and ^{||} guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and ^b presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was ^c magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ^a In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah ^e rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for ^f his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and ^g upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself ^b for the pride of his heart, (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for ⁱ God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to ^k inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to ^l try him, that he might ^m know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his [†] goodness, behold, they are written in the ⁿ Vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, and in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And ^{||} Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign: 3 He setteth up idolatry, and would not be admonished: 11 He is carried into Babylon: 12 Upon his prayer to God

he is released, and putteth down idolatry: 18 His acts: 20 He dying, Amon succeedeth him. 21 Amon reigning wickedly, is slain by his servants. 25 The murderers being slain, Josiah succeedeth him.

MANASSEH was ^a twelve years old when ^{a 2 Kings 21, 1, 2.} he began to reign: and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the ^b abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he [†] built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had ^c broken down, and he reared up altars for ^d Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the ^e host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the ^f two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his ^g children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he [†] wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, ^h In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more ⁱ remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do ^k all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^l to err, and to do ^m worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not ⁿ hearken.

11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of ^o the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the ^p thorns, and bound him with ^q fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was ^r in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 And prayed unto him; and he was ^s entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh ^t knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built ^u a wall without the city of David, on the west side of ^x Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at ^y the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the ^a strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace-offerings and thank-offerings, and ^a commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, ^b the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the ^c name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel:

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the ^d seers.

20 So Manasseh ^e slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, ^f as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them:

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself: but Amon [†] trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants ^g conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He destroyeth idolatry. 8 He taketh order for the repair of the temple.

14 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to inquire of the Lord.

23 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but respite thereof in Josiah's time. 29 Josiah causing it to be read in a solemn assembly, reneweth the covenant with God.

JOSIAH was ^a eight years old when he began to reign: and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right ^b in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the ^c right hand nor to the left.

3 For in the ^d eighth year of his reign, while he was yet ^d young, he began ^e to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to ^f purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim, in his presence: and the images that were on high above them he cut down: and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made ^a dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the ^b bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the ^c cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images ^k into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maa-seiah the ^l governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to ^m repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they ⁿ delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they ^o put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house;

11 Even to the ^p artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work [†] faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward: and other of the Levites, all that ^q could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service; and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest ^r found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have [†] gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read [†] it before the king :

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he ⁸ rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and || for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found : for great ^{is} the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [†] I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even ^u all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah :

25 Because they have ⁸ forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the ^v works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall ² not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard ;

27 Because thine heart was || tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be ⁸ gathered to thy grave ^b in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ^o Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small ; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood ^q in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all ^e the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And [†] all his days they departed not ^f from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover : 20 He propoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER, Josiah kept ^a a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem : and they ^b killed the passover on the ^c fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their ^d charges, and ^e encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites that ^f taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the ^g holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build ; it shall not be ^h a burden upon your shoulders ; ⁱ serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the ^k houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of ^l David king of Israel, and according to the writing of ^m Solomon his son ;

5 And ⁿ stand in the ^o holy place, according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites :

6 So kill the passover, and ^p sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah ^q gave to the ^r people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks : these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes gave ^s willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites : ^t Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah, and Jehiel, and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites, for passover-offerings, || five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and ^u the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests ^v sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they ^w removed the burnt-offerings, ^x that that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the [†] people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover ² with fire, according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: ^a because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph, were in their place, according to the ^b commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer: and the porters waited at [†] every gate: they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of ^c unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was ^d no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, ^e Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, [†] What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against [†] thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; ^f for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless, Josiah would not turn his face from him, but ^g disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of ^h Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at King Josiah: and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore ⁱ wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he ^j died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem ^k mourned for Josiah.

25 And ^l Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, 27 And his deeds, ^m first and last, behold, ⁿ they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

14 Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place:

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all

20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon, where they were servants to him and his sons, until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled,) the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah:

3 ¶ Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

C H A P. III.

1 The altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundation of the temple laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the ^aseventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together ^bas one man to ^cJerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is ^dwritten in the law of Moses the ^eman of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for ^fsear was upon them because of the people of those countries;) and they ^goffered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the ^hfeast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, ⁱas the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the ^jcontinual burnt-offering, both of the new moons, and of all the ^kset feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that ^lwillingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of ^mZidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring ⁿcedar-trees from ^oLebanon to the sea of ^pJoppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then ^qstood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadak, and their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with ^rtrumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people ^sshouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the ^tfirst house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud ^ufor joy;

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

C H A P. IV.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindered.

NOW when the ^vadversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the ^wLORD God of Israel,

2 ^xThen they came to Zerubbabel, and to the ^ychief of the fathers, and said unto them, ^zLet us build with you; for ^awe seek your God, as ye do; and we do ^bsacrifice unto him, since the days of ^cEsar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, You have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, ^das king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 ^k Then the people of the land ^l weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and ^m troubled them in building;

5 And hired ^a counsellors against them, to ^o frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until ^p the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, wrote a letter ^q against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and [†] at such a time.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews, which came up from thee to us, are come unto Jerusalem, building the ^r rebellious and the ^s bad city, and have set ^t up the walls thereof, and [†] joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not [†] pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now, because [†] we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king,

15 That search may be made in the book of the ^u records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know, that this city is a rebellious city, and ^v hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, ^y Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been ^z mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries ^a beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and ^b custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up ^c in haste to Jerusalem, unto the Jews, and made them to cease [†] by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ^d ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.

3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THEN the prophets, ^a Haggai the prophet, and ^b Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem ^c in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then ^d rose up ^e Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God ^f helping them.

3 At the same time came to them Tatnai, ^g governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, ^h Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this ⁱ wall?

4 Then said ^j we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the ^k eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could ^l not cause them to cease, ^m till the matter came to Darius: and then they ⁿ returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus: Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that ^o we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the ^p great God, which is builded with ^q great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

and the Levites in their ^e courses, for the service of God, which is at ^f Jerusalem; as ^g it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the ^h fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were ⁱ purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and ^k for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had ^l separated themselves unto them from the ^m filthiness of the heathen of the land, ⁿ to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, 22 And kept the feast of ^o unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and ^p turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

C H A P. VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to him. 27 He bleisseth God for his favour.

NOW after these things, in the reign of ^a Artaxerxes king of Persia, ^b Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of ^c Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of ^d Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of ^e Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukkai,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of ^f Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ^g a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the ^h hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the ⁱ children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the ^k Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the ^l seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the ^m first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had ⁿ prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to ^o do it, and to ^p teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, a king of kings, Unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of ^r their own free-will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his ^s seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of ^t thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose ^u habitation is in Jerusalem;

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find ^v in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, ^w bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, ^x to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do ^y after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem:

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto ^z an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred ^{aa} measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred ^{ab} baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be ^{ac} wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that, touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God; it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, ^{ad} set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as ^{ae} know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to ^{af} banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 ¶ Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath ^{ag} put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem;

C H A P. VIII.

1 The companions of Esra, who returned from Babylon. 15 He sendeth to Iddo for ministers for the temple. 21 He keepeth a fast. 24 He committeth the treasures to the custody of the priests. 31 From Ahava they come to Jerusalem. 33 The treasure is weighed in the temple. 36 The commission is delivered.

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the^a genealogy of them that^b went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of^c Phinehas; ^d Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; ^e Hattush:

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned, by genealogy, of the¹ males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of^s Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of^b Adin; Ebed the son of¹ Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of^k Shephatiah; ¹ Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of^m Joab; ⁿ Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of^e Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of^p Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the^a river that runneth to Ahava; and there^a abode we in tents three days: and I^a viewed the people and the priests, and found there^a none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemajah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief, at the place Casiphia; and ^f I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And, by the^a good hand of our God upon us, they brought us^a a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And^v Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah, of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the^v Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 Then I proclaimed^a a fast there at the river Ahava, that we might^b afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him^a a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them^d for good that^e seek him; but his power and his¹ wrath is against all them that^s forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was^b entreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 Andⁱ weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had^k offered;

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are¹ holy unto the LORD; ^m the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers:

29 ⁿ Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the^e chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the^p first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, weighed in the house house of our God by the hand of ^a Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was ^a Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered ^a burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, ^a twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the ^a priests, and the Levites, have ^b not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their ^a abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have ^d taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; so that the ^a holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the [†] princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I ^a rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down ^a astonished.

4 Then were ^a assembled unto me every one that ^a trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the ^a evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and ^a spread out my hands unto the LORD my God.

6 And said, O my God! I am ^a ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for ^a our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up ^a unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to ^a confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us ^a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us ^a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath ^a not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the ^a sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us ^a a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, ^a what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast ^a commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now, therefore, ^a give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, ^a nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever; that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for ^a an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us ^a less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we ^a again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art ^a righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are ^a before thee in our trespasses; for we ^a cannot stand before thee because of this.

2 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promise amendment. 15 The care to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he himself down ^a before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and ^a women, and children: for the people went very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have ^a taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is ^a hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, ^a according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 ^a Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: ^a we also will be with thee; ^a be of good courage; and ^a do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, ^a to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the ¹ chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did ^m eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they † made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself ‖ separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days: it was the ⁿ ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the ^o street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the † great rain.

15 ¶ ^y Only Jonathan the son of Asahel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah, were employed about this matter; and Meshullam and Shabbe-thai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

C H A P. I.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 5 His prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month ^a Chisleu, in the ^b twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That ^c Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the ^d province are ^e in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is ^f broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that ^g I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and ^h fasted, and ⁱ prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, ^k O LORD God of heaven, the ^l great and terrible God, that ^m keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments;

6 ⁿ Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and ^o night, for the children of Israel thy servants, ^p and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned ^q against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 ^r Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^s If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye ^t turn unto me, and keep my commandments, do them; though there were of you ^u cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy ^v servants, and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy ^w strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to ^x fear thy name; and ^y prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man: For I was the king's cup-bearer.

C H A P. II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness, sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem: 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem: 12 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls: 17 He inciteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month ^a Nisan, in the twentieth year of ^b Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the ^c wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been ^d beforetime ^e sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ^f sorrow of heart. Then I was ^g very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ^h Let the king live for ever: ⁱ why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I ^j prayed to the God

5 And I said unto the king, If it ^k please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest ^l send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that ^m I may build it.

6 And the ⁿ king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I ^o set him a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let ^p letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over, till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which ^q appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house ^r that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the ^s good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.)

10 When Sanballat the ^t Horonite, and Tobiah the ^u servant, the ^v Ammonite, heard of it, it ^w grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was ^x there three days.

12 And I arose ^y in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I ^z any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was ^a there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, by the ^b gate of the valley, even before the ^c dragon-well, and to the ^d dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the ^e fountain, and to the ^f king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by ^g the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

C H A P. IV.

1 While the enemies ^ascoff, Nehemiah prayeth, and continueth the work. 7 Understanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that ^awe builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great ^bindignation, and ^cmocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these ^afeeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they ^arevive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now ^aTobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if ^aa fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 ^bHear, O our God; for we are despised: and ^cturn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity; and ^acover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be ^bblotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

5 So built we the wall; and all the wall was ^ajoined together unto the half thereof: for the people had ^aa mind to work.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the ^aArabians, and the ^aAmmonites, and the ^aAshdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were ^avery wroth,

8 And conspired ^aall of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our ^aprayer unto our God, and ^aset a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The ^astrength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not ^aable to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which ^adwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 Therefore ^aset I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, ^bBe not ye afraid of them: ^cremember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your ^dbrethren, your sons and your daughters, your ^ewives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought ^atheir counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my ^aservants wrought in the work, and the other half of them ^bheld both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall ^afight for us.

21 So ^awe laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us ^aput off our clothes, ^bsaving that every one put them off for washing.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

C H A P. VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was ^a no breach left therein, (though at that time I had ^b not set up the doors upon the gates),

2 That Sanballat and Geshem ^c sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^d Ono. But they thought to do me ^e mischief.

3 And ^f I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the ^g work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me ^h four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, ⁱ It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu ^k saith it, that thou and the Jews think to ^l rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be ^m their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed ⁿ prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou ^o feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us ^p afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, ^q O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of ^r Shemaiah the son of ^s Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was ^t shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the ^u house of God, within the temple; and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should ^v such a man as I flee? and ^w who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? ^x I will not go in.

12 And, lo, ^b I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he ^c pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be ^d afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ^e prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was ^f finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, ^g in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when ^h all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were ⁱ much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of ^k our God.

17 Moreover, in those days, the nobles of Judah ^l sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of ^m Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of ⁿ Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his [†] good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the ^a doors, and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother ^b Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: (for he was a faithful man, and ^c feared ^d God above many:)

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the ^e houses were not built.

5 And my God ^f put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

5 And Ezra ^l opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people ^m stood up.

6 And Ezra ⁿ blessed the LORD, the great God: and all the people answered, ^o Amen, Amen, with ^p lifting up their hands: and they ^q bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with ^r their ^s faces to the ground.

9 And Nehemiah, which ^w is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day ^x is ^y holy unto the LORD your God; ^z mourn not, nor weep. For all the people ^a wept when they heard the words of the law.

11 So the Levites ^f stilled all the people, saying, ^g Hold your peace; for the day ^h is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth; ⁱ because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the ^j second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the ^k priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^l booths in the feast of the seventh month:

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and ^v sat under the booths: for since the days of ^w Jeshua the son of Nun, ^x unto that day, had not

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and ^g stood and ^h confessed their sins, and the iniquities ⁱ of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and ^j read in the book of the law of the LORD their God ^k one ^l fourth part of the day, and ^m another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 Then stood up upon the ⁿ stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and ^o cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabaniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and ^p bless the LORD your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy ^q glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, ^r even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast ^s made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, ^t the earth, and all ^u things that are therein, the seas, and all that ^v is therein, and thou ^w preservest them all; and the host of heaven ^x worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst ^y choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of ^z Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of ^a Abraham:

8 And foundest ^b his heart faithful before thee, and madest ^c a covenant with him, to give the land of the ^d Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give ^e it, I say, to his ^f seed, and hast ^g performed thy words; for thou art ^h righteous:

9 And didst ⁱ see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their ^j cry by the Red Sea:

10 And shewedst ^k signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt ^l proudly against thee: so didst thou get thee ^m a name, as ⁿ it is this day.

11 And thou didst ^o divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, ^p as a stone into the mighty waters.

of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou earnest also upon ¹ mount Sinai, and spakest with them ^m from heaven, and gavest them ^a right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy ^b holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them ^b bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the ^a rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^a go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and ^a our fathers dealt ^t proudly, and hardened their necks, and ^u hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were ^s mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed ^y a captain to return to their bondage: but thou ^{art} a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, ^s slow to anger, and of great kindness, and ^a forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them ^b a molten calf, and said, This ^{is} thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou, in thy ^c manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^d pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy ^e good Spirit to instruct them, and witheldest not thy ^f manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, ^{so} that ^s they lacked nothing; their ^h clothes waxed not old, and their feet ⁱ swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of ^k Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the ^l stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go ^m in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou ⁿ subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and ^o a fat land, and possessed ^p houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and ^q delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law ^r behind their backs, and ^s slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore ^t thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the ^u time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest ^{them} from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them ^v saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had ^v rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou ^u heardest ^{them} from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies;

29 And ^a testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man ^b do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear:

30 Yet many years didst thou ^c forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets; yet would they ^d not give ear: therefore ^e gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for thy ^f great mercies' sake, thou didst ^u not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou ^{art} a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, ^h the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem ⁱ little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings ^k of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit, thou ^{art} ^l just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done ^m right, but we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have ⁿ our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and ^o in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from ^p their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are ^q servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, ^r to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

30 And that we would ^y not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:

32 Also we made ^c ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel, for the ^d service of the house of our God;

34 And ^g we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the ^h wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law;

38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the ^o chambers, into the treasure-house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi, shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we ^p will not forsake the house of our God.

22 ¶ The Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers; also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in [†]the book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, [†]ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters, keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall, toward the dung-gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah;

35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph;

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep-gate: and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, out of the fields of the cities, the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, of old, there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters every day his portion; and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites, and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed. 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God, 15 the violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Baalam against them, that he should curse them; howbeit

- Before CHRIST 445. howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.
- 1 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.
- 4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:
- 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, (which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.
- 6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king.
- 7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.
- 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.
- 9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.
- 10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers that did the work were fled every one to his field.
- 11 Then I contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.
- 12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the treasuries.
- 13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe; and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful; and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.
- 14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.
- 15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.
- 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah; and in Jerusalem.
- 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?
- 18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.
- 19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.
- 20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.
- 21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.
- 22 And I commanded the Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.
- 23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:
- 24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.
- 25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.
- 26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.
- 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?
- 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.
- 29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.
- 30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;
- 31 And for the wood-offering at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti sent for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over ^b an hundred and seven and twenty provinces.)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus ^c sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in ^d Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he made ^e a feast unto all his princes and his ^f servants; the ^g power, of Persia and Media, the ^h nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him;

4 When he ⁱ shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his ^k excellent majesty, many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the ^l beds were of gold and silver, upon ^m a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and ⁿ royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did ^o compel: for the king had ^p appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure,

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus:

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her ^q beauty: for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti ^r refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very ^s wroth, and his ^t anger burned in him.

13 Then the king said to the ^u wise men, which ^v knew the times, (for ^w so was the king's manner towards all that knew ^x law and judgment;

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, She-thar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, ^y the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw ^z the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 What shall ^b we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered [†] before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done [†] wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ^d despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti ^e come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands ^f honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying [†] pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man ^g should bear rule in his own house; and ^h that it should be ⁱ published according to the language of every people.

1 Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 15 Esther best pleasing the king, is made queen. 21 Mordecai discovering a treason, is recorded in the Chronicles.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he ^a remembered Vashti, and what she had ^b done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the ^c king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there ^d be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in ^e all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, berlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, 6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem to the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah (that is Esther) his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 Now, when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women,)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the Chronicles before the king.

C H A P. III.

1 Haman advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots: 8 He obtaineth, by calumniation, a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgresses thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to ^m to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

⁸ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is ^a certain people ^b scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and ^c their laws are diverse from all people, neither ^d keep they the ^e king's laws, therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

⁹ If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed; and I will pay ^v ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

¹⁰ And the king took his ^r ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the ^s Jews' enemy.

¹² Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded, unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the ^d name of king Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king's ring.

¹³ And the letters were sent ^e by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish ^f all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, ^g in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

¹⁵ The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment; and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down ^a to drink; but the ^b city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAP. IV.

¹ The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. ⁴ Esther, understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit : ¹⁰ She excusing herself, is threatened by Mordecai : ¹⁵ She appointing a fast, undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived ^a all that was done, Mordecai ^b rent his clothes, and put on ^c sackcloth with ^d ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and ^e cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

² And came even before the king's gate : for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

³ And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was ^f great mourning among the Jews, and ^g fasting, and weeping, and wailing : and many ^h lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁷ And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the ^l sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them :

⁸ Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at ^m Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to ⁿ charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make ^o supplication unto him, and to make ^p request before him for her people.

⁹ And Hatach came and ^q told Esther the words of Mordecai;

¹⁰ ^r Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

¹¹ All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether ^s man or woman, shall come unto the king into the ^t inner court, who is ^u not called, there is ^v one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall ^w hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live : but I have not been called to come in unto the king these ^x thirty days.

¹² And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

¹³ Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in ^a the king's house more than all the Jews.

¹⁴ For if thou altogether holdest thy peace ^b at this time, then shall there ^c enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from ^d another place; but ^e thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed : and ^f who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for ^g such a time as this?

¹⁵ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer;

¹⁶ Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and ^h fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day : ⁱ I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and ^j so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and ^k if I perish, I perish.

1 Esther adventuring on the king's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet: 6 She being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9 Haman, proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai: 14 By the counsel of Zeresh, he buildeth for him a gallows.

NOW it came to pass on the ^a third day that Esther put on her ^b royal apparel, and stood in the ^c inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court; that she ^d obtained favour in his sight: and the king ^e held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the ^f top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, ^g What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what ^h is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the ⁱ half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther ^j answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the ^k banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What ^l is thy petition? and ^m it shall be granted thee: and what ⁿ is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, ^o My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 Then went Haman forth that day ^p joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he ^q stood not up, nor moved for him, he was ^r full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless, Haman ^s refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and ^t Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the ^u glory of his riches, and the ^v multitude of his children, and all the ^w things wherein the king had ^x promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and ^y to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet ^z all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 Then said ^a Zeresh his wife and all ^b his friends unto him, Let ^c a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and ^d to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: ^e then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he ^f caused the gallows to be made.

C H A P. VI.

1 Ahasuerus reading in the Chronicles of the good service done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. 4 Haman coming to sue that Mordecai might be hanged, unawares giveth counsel that he might do him honour: 12 Complaining of his misfortune, his friends tell him of his final destiny.

ON ^g that night could not the king ^h sleep: and he commanded to bring the book of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was ⁱ found written, That Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought ^j to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, ^k What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 And the king said, Who ^l is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king ^m to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What ⁿ shall be done unto the man ^o to whom the king delighteth to honour? (Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?)

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man ^p whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king ^q useth to wear, and the ^r horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown-royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man ^s with whom the king delighteth to honour, and ^t bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel, and he ^u arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 And Mordecai¹ came again to the king's gate: but Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head^m covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friendsⁿ every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai^{be} of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt^o not prevail against him, but shalt surely^p fall before him.

14 And while they^q were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

C H A P. VII.

1 Esther entertaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king, in his anger, understanding of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther, on the second day, at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let^b my life be given me at my petition, and^c my people at my request:

4 For we are^d sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for^e bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not^f countervail the king's damage.

5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, The^g adversary and enemy is this^h wicked Haman. Then Haman wasⁱ afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his^k wrath, went into the palace-garden: and Haman^l stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil^m determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman wasⁿ fallen upon the bed whereon Esther^{nas} was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they^o covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the^q gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they^r hanged Haman on the gallows that he^s had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath^t pacified.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Mordecai is advanced. 3 Esther maketh suit to reverse Haman's letters. 7 Ahasuerus granteth to the Jews to defend themselves. 15 Mordecai's honour and the Jews' joy.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus^b give the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, unto Esther the queen: and Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was^c unto her.

2 And the king took off^d his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai^e over the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the^f mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king^g held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be^h pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can Iⁱ endure to see the evil that shall come unto^j my people? or how can I endure to see the^k destruction of my kindred?

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the^l house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because^m he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, mayⁿ no man reverse.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the^o third month, that is, the month Si- van, on the three and twentieth day thereof: and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring; and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and ^a to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 12 Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Haman's sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW in the twelfth month, that is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them.)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men,

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar: and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from ^a sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast || Pur (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should ^z return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days ^a Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as ^b joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be ^c remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of ^d peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed [†] for themselves, and for their ^e seed, the ^f matters of the fastings and their ^g cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

¶ The BOOK of JOB.

C H A P. I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan appearing before God, by calumniation obtaineth leave to tempt Job. 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he bleaseth God.

THERE was a man in the land of ^a Uz, whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and ^d upright, and one that ^e feared God, and ^f eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him ^g seven sons and three daughters.

3 His ^h substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went, and ⁱ feasted in their houses every one ^k his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, ^l to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and ^m sanctified them, and ⁿ rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according ^o to the number of them all: for Job said, ^p It may be that my sons have ^q sinned, and cursed God in their ^r hearts. Thus did Job ^s continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when ^t the sons of God came to ^u present themselves before the LORD, and ^v Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, ^y Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From ^z going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an ^a hedge about him, and about his ^b house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the ^c work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land:

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will ^d curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is ^e in thy power; ^f only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were ^a eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house :

14 And there came ^b a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them ;

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away ; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword ; and ⁱ I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 ^k While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ^l The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house :

19 And, behold, there came ^m a great wind from the wilderness, and ⁿ smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 ^o Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and ^p fell down upon the ground, and ^q worshipped, 21 And said, ^r Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither : the LORD ^s gave, and the LORD hath ^t taken away ; ^u blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

C H A P. II.

1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job : 7 He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends condole with him in silence.

A GAIN there was a day when the sons of ^a God came to ^b present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou ? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from ^b walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that ^c there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil ? and still he ^d holdeth fast his integrity, although ^e thou movest me against him, to destroy him ^f without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin ; yea, ^g all that a man hath will he give for his life :

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch ^h his ⁱ bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand ; but ^j save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with ^k sore boils, from the ^l sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him ^m a potsherd to scrape himself withal ; and he ⁿ sat down among ^o the ashes.

9 Then said ^p his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity ? Curse God, and die.

10 But he said ^q unto her, Thou speakest as one of the ^r foolish women speaketh. What ^s ! shall we receive ^t good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive ^u evil ? In all this did not Job sin with his ^v lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's ^w three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own ^x place ; Eliphaz the ^y Temanite, and Bildad the ^z Shuhite, and Zophar the ^a Naamathite : for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to ^b comfort him.

12 And when they lift up their eyes afar off, and ^c knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept ; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their ^d heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and ^e none spake a word unto him : for they saw that ^f his grief was very great.

C H A P. III.

1 Job curseth the day and services of his birth. 13 The ease of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

A FTER this ^a opened Job his mouth, and ^b cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said,

3 Let ^c the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be ^d darkness ; let not God ^e regard it from above, neither let ^f the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the ^g shadow of death stain it ; let a ^h cloud dwell upon it ; let the ⁱ blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let ^j darkness seize upon it ; let it not be ^k joined unto the days of the year ; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be ^l solitary ; let no ^m joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them ⁿ curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the ^o stars of the twilight thereof be dark ; let it look for light, but have ^p none ; neither let it see the dawning of the day :

10 Because it shut not up the doors of ^q my mother's womb, nor hid ^r sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from ^s the womb ? why did I not ^t give up the ghost when I came out of the belly ?

12 Why did the knees prevent me ? or why the breasts that I should suck ?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet; I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

21 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and I dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

C H A P. IV.

1 Eliphaaz reproveth Job for want of religion: 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked: 12 His fearful vision to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Not but it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

7 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, the uprightness of thy ways, and thy hope?

8 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

9 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

10 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

11 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

12 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

13 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes;

there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less on them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

C H A P. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground,

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause;

9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

- Before CHRIST cir. 1520.
- 17 Behold, ^a happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:
- 18 For he maketh sore, and ^v bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.
- 19 He shall deliver thee in ^s six troubles; yea, in ^s seven there shall no evil touch thee.
- 20 In ^b famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword.
- 21 ^c Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue; neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
- 22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
- 23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field; and the ^e beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
- 24 And thou shalt ^f know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.
- 25 Thou shalt know also that ^g thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
- 26 Thou shalt come to ^h thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

- 1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless: 8 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort: 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.
- BUT Job answered and said,
- 2 Oh that my ^a grief were thoroughly ^b weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!
- 3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are ^c swallowed up.
- 4 For the ^d arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do ^e set themselves in array against me.
- 5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath ^f grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?
- 6 Can that which is ^g unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there ^h any taste in the white of an egg?
- 7 The things that my soul ⁱ refused to touch are as my ^j sorrowful meat.
- 8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that ^k I long for;
- 9 Even that it would please God to ^l destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
- 10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not ^m concealed the words of the Holy One.
- 11 What is my strength, that I should ⁿ hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?
- 12 Is my strength ^o the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
- 13 Is not ^p my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?
- 14 To him that is afflicted ^q pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
- 15 My brethren have ^r dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;
- 16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:
- 17 What time they wax warm they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
- 18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.
- 19 The troops of ^s Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.
- 20 They were ^t confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.
- 21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are ^u afraid.
- 22 Did I say, ^v Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?
- 23 Or, Deliver me from the enemies' hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the ^w mighty?
- 24 ^x Teach me, and I will ^x hold my tongue; and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
- 25 How forcible are ^y right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?
- 26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as ^z wind?
- 27 Yea, ye ^a overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.
- 28 Now, therefore, be content: look upon me: for it is ^b evident unto you if I lie.
- 29 ^c Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.
- 30 Is there iniquity in ^d my tongue? cannot my taste ^e discern perverse things?

- 1 Job excuseth his desire of death: 12 He complaineth of his own restlessness, and of God's watchfulness.
- IS there not ^a an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of ^b an hireling?
- 2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for ^c the reward of his work;
- 3 So am I made to possess ^d months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.
- 4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the ^e night be gone? and I am full of ^f tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
- 5 My flesh is clothed with ^g worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become ^h loathsome.
- 6 My days are ⁱ swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without ^j hope.
- 7 O remember that my life is ^k wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away; so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; and I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it: I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 What is man that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou Preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works: 8 He allegeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite: 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be as a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and that out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil-doers;

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling-place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledgeth God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him: one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not; which overturneth them in his anger;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble;

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars;

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

10 Which doeth great things, past finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not; he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my Judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me: yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.
 18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but fileth me with bitterness.
 19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?
 20 If I ^ajustify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.
 21 Though I were perfect, yet would I ^anot know my soul: I would despise my life.
 22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the ^vperfect and the wicked.
 23 If the scourge ^aslay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
 24 The earth ^ais given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who ^ais he?
 25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they ^bsee no good.
 26 They are passed away as the swift ships; as the ^ceagle that hasteth to the prey.
 27 If I say, I will forget my ^dcomplaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;
 28 I am ^aafraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
 29 If I be wicked, why then labour I ^fin vain?
 30 If I ^gwash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;
 31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ^bditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.
 32 For he is not a ⁱman, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.
 33 Neither is there any ^kdays-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.
 34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his ^lfear terrify me;
 35 ^mThen would I speak, and not fear him: but ⁿit is not so with me.

C H A P. X.
 1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions: 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.
 MY soul is ^aweary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the ^bbitterness of my soul.
 2 I will say unto God, Do not ^ccondemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
 3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the ^dwork of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
 4 Hast thou ^eeyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?
 5 ^fAre thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,
 6 That thou ^ginquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?
 7 ^hThou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can ⁱdeliver out of thine hand.
 8 Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
 9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me ^kas the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

 10 Hast thou not ^lpoured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?
 11 Thou hast ^mclothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
 12 Thou hast granted me ⁿlife and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
 13 And these things hast thou ^ohid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.
 14 If I sin, then thou ^pmarkest me, and thou ^qperdest me from mine iniquity.
 15 If I be wicked, ^rtwo unto me; and if I ^sbe righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore ^tsee thou mine affliction;
 16 For it ^uincreaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou shewest thyself ^vmarvellous upon me.
 17 Thou renewest thy ^wwitnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; ^xchanges and war are against me.
 18 Wherefore then hast thou ^ybrought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and ^zno eye had seen me!
 19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
 20 Are not my ^adays few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,
 21 Before I go ^bwhence I shall ^cnot return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;
 22 A land of ^ddarkness, as darkness itself: ^eand of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

 1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.
 THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
 2 Should not the ^amultitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?
 3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou ^bmockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
 4 For ^cthou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.
 5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;
 6 And that he would shew thee the ^dsecrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know, therefore, that God exacteth of thee ^eless than thine iniquity deserveth.
 7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto ^fperfection?
 8 It is ^gas high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?
 9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.
 10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can ^hhinder him?

12 For vain man would ^k be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou ^l prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in ^m thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou ⁿ lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt ^o forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt ^p shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take ^q thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt ^r lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the ^s eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

C H A P. XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him: 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said,

2 No doubt but ye ^t are ^a the people, and wisdom shall die ^b with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not ^c inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am ^d as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready ^e to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 The tabernacles of robbers ^f prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ^g ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose ^h hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the ⁱ ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

12 With the ^j ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 With him ^k is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be ^l built again; he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he ^m sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him ⁿ is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors ^o away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 He ^p looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and ^q overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth away ^r the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth ^s contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 He discovereth ^t deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He ^u increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away ^v the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They ^w grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality: 14 He professeth his confidence in God, 20 and entreatheth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

L O, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the ^x same ^a do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would ^y speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye ^z are all physicians of ^a no value.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be ^b your wisdom.

6 ^c Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak wickedly ^d for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye ^e accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or, as one man ^f mocketh another, do ye ^g so mock him?

10 He will surely ^h reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his ⁱ dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances ^j are like unto ¹ ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and ^k let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life ^l in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, ^m yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also ⁿ shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall ^o not come before him.

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying,
Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks:

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.

32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness: 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case: 17 He maintaineth his innocence.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged;
and though I forbear, what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me:
he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have gaped upon me with their reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

11 God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare;
he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach;
he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on mine eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in hea-

20 My friends scorn me; but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage, the righteous: 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid thine heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a by-word of the people, and aforesime I was as a tabret.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.

2 ^a How long will ye ^b vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye ^c reproached me: you are not ashamed that you make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error ^d remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will ^e magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach;

6 Know now that ^f God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of ^g wrong, but I am ^h not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath ⁱ fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of ^k my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine ^l hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as ^m one of his enemies.

12 His troops come ⁿ together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren ^o far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my ^p familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my ^q maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my ^r servant, and he gave me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.

17 My ^s breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

18 Yea, ^t young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 All my ^u inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 ^x My bone-cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have ^y pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me ^z as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 O that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25 For ^a I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall ^b stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 And though, after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in ^c my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see ^d for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

28 But ye should say, Why ^e persecute we Him?

him? seeing the root of the matter is found in me.

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is ^a judgment.

C H A P. XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.
THEN answered ^a Zophar the Naamatitite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this ^b I make haste.

3 I have heard the ^c check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this ^d of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is ^e short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his ^f head reach unto the clouds:

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his ^g own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall ^h not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall ⁱ his place any more behold him.

10 ^k His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall ^l lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be ^m sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and ⁿ forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth;

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is ^o the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall ^p vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the ^q viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall ^r not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

18 That which he laboured for shall he ^s restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

19 Because he hath oppressed and hath ^t forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not;

20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall ^u not save of that which he desired.

21 There shall none of his meat be ^v left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the ^w fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him ^x while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the ^y bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is ^z drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places; ^a a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The ^b heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the ^c earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall ^d depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage ^e appointed unto him by God.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Job sheweth, that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 16 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 23 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 30 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 ^a Hear diligently my speech; and let this be your consolations.

3 ^b Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint ^c to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be ^d astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and ^e trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 ^f Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are ^g mighty in power?

8 Their ^h seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the ⁱ rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and ^k faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like ^l a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and ^m in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, ⁿ Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 ^o What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, ^p their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God ^q distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as ^r stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: ^s he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

C H A P. XXII.

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God: 5 He accuseth Job of divers sins: 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty; and the arms of the fatherless have been broken:

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold, the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden;

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood;

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad; and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down: but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee; and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, 6 in confidence of his mercy. 8 God, who is invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocence. 13 God's decree is immutable.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 Even to-day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? no; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing ^a times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some ^b remove the land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof;

3 They drive away ^e the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge;

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the ^d poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work, ^e rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his ^f corn in the field, and they gather the vintage of the wicked;

7 They cause the ^e naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold;

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the ^h rock for want of a shelter;

9 They ⁱ pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the ^k sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and ^l suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out; ^m yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that ⁿ rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer, rising with the light, killeth the poor and needy, and ^o in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye ^p shall see me; and disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day-time: ^q they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the ^r shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: ^s he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow-waters; so doth the ^t grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him: he shall be ^u no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreateth the ^x barren that beareth not, and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He ^y draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet ^z his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for ^a a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the ^b tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be ^c not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

C H A P. XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 ^a Dominion and ^b fear are with him; he maketh ^c peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his ^d armies? and upon whom doth not his ^e light arise?

4 How then can man be ^f justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold, even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not ^g pure in his sight:

6 How much less man, that is a worm, and the son of man, which is ^h a worm?

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Job reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, ^a acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 How hast thou ^a helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath ^b no wisdom? and how hast thou ^c plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 ^d To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

Moreover, ^a Job continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath ^b taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the ^c spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips shall not speak ^d wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should ^e justify you: till I die I will ^f not remove my integrity from me.

6 My righteousness ^g I hold fast, and will not let it go: ^h my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God ^k taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when ^l trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
will he ^m always call upon God?

11 ⁿ I will teach you by the hand of God:
that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;
^o why then are ye thus altogether ^o vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of ^p oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the ^q sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be ^r buried in death; and his widows shall ^s not weep.

16 Though he ^t heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but ^u the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house ^x as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall ^y not be gathered: ^z he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away ^a in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he ^b departeth; and, as a storm, ^b hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain ^c flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall ^d clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things: 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they ^a find it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and ^b brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth ^c an end to darkness, and searcheth out all ^d perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh ^e bread; and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of ^f sapphires; and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is ^g a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock;
he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He ^h cutteth out rivers among the rocks;
and his eye ⁱ seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is ^k hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But ^l where shall wisdom be found? and where is the ^m place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the ⁿ land of the living.

14 The ^o depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for ^p gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious ^q onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it:
and the exchange of it shall not be for ^r jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of ^s pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is ^t hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 ^u God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and ^v seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the ^w weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made ^x a decree for the rain, and prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

C H A P. XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I b think upon a maid?

2 For what c portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and d a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he e see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have f walked with vanity, or if my g foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be h weighed in an even balance, that God i may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and k mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands;

8 Then let me l sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived m by a woman; or if I have n laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let o others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the p judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would q root out all mine increase.

13 If I did r despise the cause of my manservant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and, when he s visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make t him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their u desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have x eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my y youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided z her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any a perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not b blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have c lift up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in d the gate;

22 e Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For f destruction from God was a g terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my h confidence;

25 If i I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If j beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness,

27 And k my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath m kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity n to be punished by the judge: for I should have o denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that p hated me, or lift up myself when evil found him;

30 (Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing q a curse to his soul;)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of r his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 (The s stranger did not lodge in the street; but I opened my doors to the traveller;)-

33 If I covered my transgressions t as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom;

34 (Did I fear a great multitude, or did the u contempt of families terrify me, that I v kept silence, and went not out of the door?)

35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is that the Almighty would w answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book:

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as x a crown to me.

37 I would a declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I b go near unto him.)

38 If my land c cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

39 If I have d eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life;

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job e are ended.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 9 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men a ceased to answer Job, because he was b righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was c kindled the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the d Buzite, of the kindred of Ram; against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified e himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had f condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were g elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was h afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, i Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach k wisdom.

8 But there is l a spirit in man; and the m inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 n Great men are not always wise; neither do the o aged understand judgment.

Before CHRIST
cir. 1520.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst you searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you; and, behold, there was none of you that ^aconvicted Job, or that ^aanswered his words:

13 ^aLest ye should say, ^tWe have found out wisdom: ^uGod thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now, he hath not directed ^{his} words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were ^aamazed; they answered no more; they ^vleft off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more,)

17 I said, I will answer also my part; I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter; the spirit within me ^zconstraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly ^{is} as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like ^bnew bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I ^ewill ^oopen my lips, and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, ^daccept any man's person; neither let me give ^eflattering titles unto man.

22 For ^fI know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon ^stake me away.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job: 8 He excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry: 31 He inviteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken ^ato all my words. 2 Behold, now I have ^bopened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the ^cuprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The ^dSpirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set ^{thy} words in order before me, stand up;

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish ^ein God's stead; I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, ^fmy terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine ^ehearing, and I have heard the voice of ^{thy} words, saying,

9 I am ^hclean without transgression, I am innocent; neither ^{is} there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he ^hfindeth occasions against me, he ^hcounteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth ^mmy feet in the stocks, he ⁿmarketh all my paths.

12 Behold, ^oin this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is ^pgreater than man.

13 Why dost thou ^ostrive against him? for he ^rgiveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God ^speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man ^tperceiveth it not.

15 In ^ua dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed,

16 Then he ^uopeneth the ears of men, and ^vsealeth their instruction, 17 That he may ^zwithdraw man from his purpose, and hide ^apride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from ^bperishing by the sword.

19 He is ^cchastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his life ^dabhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is ^econsumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones ^{that} were not seen ^fstick out.

22 His soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the ^gdestroyers.

23 If there be ^ha messenger with him, an ⁱinterpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his ^juprightness;

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return ^kto the days of his youth:

26 He shall ^mpray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him; and he shall ⁿsee his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men; and if any say, ^oI have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it ^pprofited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the ^qpit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these ^rthings worketh God [†]oftentimes with man, 30 ^rTo bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job; hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak, 32 If thou hast any thing to say, ^sanswer me: for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ^thearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee ^uwisdom.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE, Elihu answered and said, 2 Hear my words, O ^aye wise men; and give ear ^bunto me, ye that have knowledge:

3 For the ^cear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what ^{is} ^dgood.

5 For Job hath ^esaid, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound ^{is} incurable ^zwithout transgression.

8 Which ^k goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men?

9 For he hath ^l said, It profiteth a man ^m nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do ⁿ wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he ^o render unto him, and cause every man to ^p find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty ^q pervert judgment.

13 Who hath ^r given him a charge over the earth? or who hath ^s disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he ^t gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto ^u dust.

16 If now thou hast ^v understanding, hear this; hearken to the voice of my words:

17 Shall even he that hateth right ^w govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art ^x wicked: and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that ^a accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 ^b In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled: ^c at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away ^d without hand.

21 For ^e his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is ^f no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man ^g more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall ^h break in pieces mighty men without number, and ⁱ set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he ^k knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are ^l destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they ^m turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the ⁿ cry of the poor to come unto him, and ^o he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth ^q quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ^r ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have ^s borne chastisement, I will ^t not offend any more:

32 That which ^u I see not, teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do ^v no more.

33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 ^{||} My desire is, that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin; he ^y clappeth his hands amongst us, and multiplieth his words against God.

C H A P. XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 ^a Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou ^b saidst, My righteousness is ^c more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, ^e What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will ^d answer thee, and thy companions ^d ch. 22, 2, 3. with thee.

5 ^e Look unto the heavens, and see; and be- hold the clouds, which ^f are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou ^g against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 If thou be righteous, what ^h givest thou him? or what ⁱ receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may ^j hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may ^k profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to ^m cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty:

10 But none saith, Where is God my [†] Maker, who giveth ⁿ songs in the night;

5 Behold, God is mighty, ¹ and despiseth not any: ² he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He ³ preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth ⁴ right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not ⁵ his eyes from the righteous: but with kings ⁶ are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if ⁷ they be bound in ⁸ letters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their ⁹ work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He ¹⁰ openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve ¹¹ him, they shall spend their days in ¹² prosperity, and their years in pleasures;

12 But if they obey not, they shall ¹³ perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the ¹⁴ hypocrites in heart ¹⁵ heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them:

14 They ¹⁶ die in youth, and their life is among the ¹⁷ unclean.

15 He delivereth the ¹⁸ poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression:

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait ¹⁹ into ²⁰ a broad place, where ²¹ there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be ²² full of fatness.

17 But thou hast ²³ fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice ²⁴ take hold on thee.

19 Will he esteem thy ²⁸ riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the ²⁹ day of ³⁰ night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, ³¹ regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen ³² rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who ³³ teacheth like him?

23 Who hath ³⁴ enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast ³⁵ wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou ³⁶ magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may ³⁷ see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and ³⁸ we know him not; neither can ³⁹ the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh ⁴⁰ small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof;

28 Which the clouds do drop ⁴¹ and distil upon man ⁴² abundantly.

29 Also can ⁴³ any understand the ⁴⁴ spreadings of the clouds, or the ⁴⁵ noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he ⁴⁶ spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them ⁴⁷ judgeth he the people; he giveth ⁴⁸ meat in abundance.

32 With ⁴⁹ clouds he covereth the light; and

1 God challengeth Job to answer. 4 God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7 When the morning-stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof, 20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow, or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters; or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of the Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil; or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER, the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment?

wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath; and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together, and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him: 16 He magnifieth and blesseth Job. 16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said, I 2 I know that thou canst ^b do every thing, and that no ^c thought can be withholden from thee.

3 Who is he that ^a hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I ^e understood not; things ^f too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will ^g demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have ^h heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; but now ⁱ mine eye seeth thee:

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, ^k and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that, ^l after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me ^m the thing that is ⁿ right, as ^o my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now ^p seven bullocks and seven rams, and ^q go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall ^r pray for you, for him will I accept; lest I deal with you ^s after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me ^t the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 ¶ So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shubite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

10 And the LORD ^u turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then ^v came there unto him ^w all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed ^x the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons, and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

The BOOK of PSALMS.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED is the man ^a that walketh not in ^b the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful:

2 But his ^c delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree ^d planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his ^e season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall ^f prosper.

4 The ungodly ^g are ^h not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall ⁱ not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD ^k knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall ^l perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ: 10 Kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY do the heathen ^a rage, and the people imagine ^b a vain thing?

2 The ^c kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his ^d Anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their ^e bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that ^f sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and ^g vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I ^h set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare the ⁱ decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 ^k Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine ^l inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt ^m break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 ⁿ Be wise now, therefore, O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 ^o Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be ^p angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection.

A Psalm of David, when he ^a fled from Absalom his Son.

LORD, how are they ^b increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is ^c no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art ^d a shield for me; my glory, and the ^e lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he ^f heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 ^g I laid me down and slept; I awaked: for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have ^h set themselves against me round about.

7 ⁱ Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the ^k cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 ^l Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: ^m thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience: 2 He reproveth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of ^a my righteousness: ^b thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn ^c my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly ^d for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 ^e Stand in awe, and sin not; ^f commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be ^g still. Selah.

5 Offer the ^h sacrifices of righteousness; and put your ⁱ trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any ^k good? LORD, lift thou up the ^l light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put ^m gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their ⁿ corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell ^o in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am c purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee; for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now compassed us in our steps; they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

P S A L. XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of his song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,

I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength. 2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my ² stay.

19 He brought me forth also into ^a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me ^b according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not ^c wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments ^d were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also ^e upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the ^f froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down ^g high looks.

28 For thou wilt ^h light my candle; the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is ⁱ tried; he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

31 For ^k who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like ^l hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He ^m teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also ⁿ given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and ^o thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast ^p enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and ^q overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have ^r wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast ^s girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me ^t the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he ^u answered them not.

42 Then did I ^x beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me ^y the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers ^z shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be ^a afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD ^b liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be ^c exalted.

47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies; yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I ^d give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his ^e seed for evermore.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is ^g nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is ^h perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple:

8 The statutes of the LORD are ⁱ right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, ^j enlightening the eyes:

9 The fear of the LORD is ^k clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much ^l fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is ^m great reward.

12 Who can understand his ⁿ errors! cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous ^o sins; let them not have ^p dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou^c

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength ^m faileth because of mine iniquity, and my ⁿ bones are consumed.

11 I was ^o a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among ^p my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without ^q fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out ^r of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the ^s slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art ^t my God.

15 ^u My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 ^v Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them ^w be silent in the grave.

18 Let the ^x lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 ^y Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast ^z laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the ^a secret of thy presence from the pride of man; thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD; for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said ^b in my haste, I am ^c cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou hearest the voice of my supplications, when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the ^d proud doer.

24 ^e Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

P S A L. XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous; for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise:

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made: and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in store-houses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him:

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to naught: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

2 I was dumb with silence: I held my peace, even ^a from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let ^a thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about; ^a mine iniquities have taken hold up-on me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head; therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them ^a be ashamed and confounded to-gether that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

15 Let them ^a be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, Aha, aha!

4 I said, O LORD, be merciful unto me ; ^d heal my soul ; for I have ^e sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me ; When shall he die, and his name perish ?

6 And if he come to see me, he ^f speaketh vanity : his heart gathereth iniquity to itself ; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me : against me do they devise my hurt.

8 ^g An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him : and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, mine own ^h familiar friend in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lift up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou ⁱ favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou ^k upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

1 David's zeal to serve God in the temple : 5 He encourageth his soul to trust in God.

To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the Sons of ^a Korah.

AS the hart ^b panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul ^c thirsteth for God, for the living God : when shall I come and appear before God ?

3 My ^d tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, ^e Where is thy God ?

4 When I ^f remember these things, I pour out my soul in me : for I had gone with the multitude ; I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept ^g holy-day.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted in me ? ^h Hope thou in God ; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me : ⁱ therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 ^k Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy water-spouts : all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will ^m command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night ⁿ his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me ; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God ?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted within me ? Hope thou in God ; for I shall yet praise him, who is [†] the health of my countenance, and my God.

3 O send out thy ^d light and thy ^e truth : let them lead me, let them bring me unto thy ^f holy hill, and to thy ^g tabernacles.

4 Then will I ^h go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy : yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 7 complaineth of her present evils. 17 Professing her integrity, 24 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the Sons of Korah.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, ^a our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old ;

2 How thou didst ^b drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them ; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession ^c by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them ; but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because ^d thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God : ^e command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies ; through thy name will we ^f tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not ^g trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God ^h we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou ⁱ hast cast off, and put us to shame ; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us ^k to turn back from the enemy ; enemy ; and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat ; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people ¹ for nought, and dost ^m not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us ^a a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us ^a a by-word among the heathen, ^p a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth ; by reason of the enemy and ^a avenger.

17 All this is come upon us ; ^r yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 ^a Our heart is not turned back, neither have our ^r steps declined from thy way ;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have ^u forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god ;

21 Shall not God ^r search this out ? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, ^y for thy sake are we killed all the day long ; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 ^a Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD ? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Whereas ^a hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression ?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the ^b dust ; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us, for thy mercies' sake.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?
6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;
8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever);
9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places to all generations: they call their lands after their own names.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, (that he may judge his people.)

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains; and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

4 Behold, God is my ^f helper: the LORD is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall ^g reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy ^h truth.

1 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case: 9 He prayeth against his enemies, of whose wickedness and treachery he complaineth: 16 He comforteth himself in God's preservation of him, and confusion of his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and ^a hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: ^b I mourn in my complaint, and make ^c a noise;

3 Because of the ^d voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they ^e cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they ^f hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me; and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath ^h overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I ⁱ flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo then would I wander far off, and remain in the ^k wilderness. Selah.

8 I would ^l hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O LORD, and ^m divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof; mischief also and sorrow are in the ⁿ midst of it.

11 ^o Wickedness is in the midst thereof; deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was ^p not an enemy that reproached me: then could I have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him;

13 But it was thou, a man mine ^q equal, ^r my guide, and mine ^s acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God ^t in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down ^u quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will ^v call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

17 ^y Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud; and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from ^z the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have ^a no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath ^b put forth his hands against such as be at ^c peace with him; he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were ^d smothered than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they ^e drawn swords.

22 Cast thy ^f burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall ^g not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David. Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law: b incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will c open my mouth in d a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old;

3 Which we have e heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the f praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established g a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known h to their children;

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and i declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God; but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be k as their fathers, l a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The m children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and n refused to walk in his law;

11 And o forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the field of p Zoan.

13 He q divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day-time also he r led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the s rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters t to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned u yet more against him, by s provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart, by asking meat for their † lust.

19 Yea, they v spake against God: they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he z smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he a give bread also? can he provide flesh a Ps. 138, 25 for his people? b Mat. 6, 25.

21 Therefore the LORD b heard this, and was c wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel.

22 Because they d believed not in God, and e trusted not in his salvation;

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the f doors of heaven, 24 And had rained down g manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat † angels' food: he sent them h meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind i to blow in the heaven; and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained k flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea;

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their l lust: l Num. 11, 33.

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they m sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume n in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he o slew them, then they sought him; and they returned and inquired early after God:

35 And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues:

37 For their heart p was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being q full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, r many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath:

39 For he remembered that they were but r flesh; s a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and t grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, they u turned back, and tempted God, and x limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy:

43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 And had turned their rivers into y blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent z divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and a frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the b caterpillar, and their labour unto c the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore-trees with || frost.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to d hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending [†]evil angels among them.

50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

51 And smote all the [°]first-born in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But made his own people to go forth [°]like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the [°]sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of [†]his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his [°]right hand had purchased.

55 He [†]cast out the heathen also before them, and [†]divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they [°]tempted and provoked the most high God, and [°]kept not his testimonies;

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like [°]their fathers: they were turned aside like [°]a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their [°]high places, and moved him to [°]jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of [†]Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered [°]his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their [°]priests fell by the sword; and their widows made [°]no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord [°]awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he [°]smote his enemies in the hinder parts; he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover, he refused the tabernacle of [°]Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Sion, which he loved.

69 And he [°]built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the [°]sheep-folds:

71 From following the ewes great with young, he brought him [°]to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the [†]skilfulness of his hands.

1 The Psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem: 8 He prayeth for deliverance, 13 and promiseth thankfulness.

A Psalm of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen are come into [°]thine [°]inheritance; thy [°]holy temple have they [°]defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on [°]heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the [°]fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none [°]to bury them.

4 We are become [°]a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy [°]jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have [†]not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that [°]have not called upon thy name:

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling-place.

8 O remember not against us [°]former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are brought [°]very low.

9 Help us, O God of [°]our salvation, for the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for [°]thy name's sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, [°]Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight, by the revenging of [°]the blood of thy servants which is shed.

11 Let the [°]sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are [°]appointed to die:

12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their [°]bosom their reproach, where-with they have reproached thee, O LORD.

13 So we thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever; we will [†]shew forth thy praise to all generations.

GIVE ear, O [°]Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like [°]a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, [°]shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh, [°]stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 Turn us again, O God, and cause thy [°]face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the [°]bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us [°]a strife unto our neighbours; and our enemies [°]laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought [°]a vine out of Egypt; thou hast [°]cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

12 Why hast thou then² broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13 The³ boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the⁴ wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts, look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

16 It is burnt with fire; it is cut down: they perish at the⁵ rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son⁶ of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the^c trumpet in the^d new moon, in the time^e appointed, on our solemn^f feast day.

4 For this^g was^h a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would^r none of me.

12 So^s I gave them up unto their own hearts^t; lust; and they walked in their^u own counsels.

13 O that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. 7 The story of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 Over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name; b make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: c talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 d Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength; seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant;

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people,

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong;
yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant;

18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron;

19 Until the time that his word came; the word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance;

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.

23 e Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 The land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also, and their figtrees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

y Gen. 49, 3. land, the ^y chief of all their strength.

1 Against suretiship, 6 idleness, 12 and mischief-ousness. 16 Seven things hateful to God. 20 The blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whore-dom.

MY son, if thou be ° surety for thy friend, if thou hast ° bstricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend;
go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4 ° Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; ° consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,
8 ° Provideth her meat in the summer, and ga-thereth her food in the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou ° sleep, O sluggard?
when wilt thou ° arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;

11 So shall thy ° poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as ° an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walk-eth with ° a froward mouth.

13 He ° winketh with his eyes, he ° speaketh

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he ° deviseth mischiefs continually; he is soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly;
suddenly shall he be broken ° without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate;
yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 ° A proud look, ° a lying tongue, and ° hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth ° wicked imaginations, ° feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A ° false witness that speaketh lies, and him that ° soweth discord among brethren.

20 ¶ My son, ° keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 ° Bind them continually upon thine heart, ° and tie them about thy neck.

22 When thou ° goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For the commandment is ° a lamp, and the law is light; and ° reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 To keep thee ° from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ° Lust not after her beauty in thine heart;
neither let her take thee with her eyelids:

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to ° a piece of bread; and the ° adulteress will ° hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in ° his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever ° toucheth her shall not be ° innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to ° satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

31 But if he be found, he shall restore ° seven-fold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh ° understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 ° A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the ° day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom; neither

 7 And beheld among the ^f simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man ^e void of understanding,
 8 Passing through the street ^b near her corner; and he ⁱ went the way to her house;
 9 In ^k the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:
 10 And, behold, there met him a woman, with the ⁱ attire of an harlot, and ^m subtle of heart.
 11 (She is ⁿ loud and stubborn; her feet ^o abide not in her house:
 12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and ^p lieth in wait at every corner.)
 13 So she ^q caught him, and kissed him, and ^r with an impudent face said unto him, 14 I have ^s peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows:
 15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have ^t found thee.
 16 I have ^u decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved ^v works, with fine linen of Egypt.
 17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves:
 19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone ^x a long journey:
 20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.
 21 With much fair speech she ^y caused him to yield, with the ^z flattering of her lips she forced him.
 22 He goeth after her straightway, as ^a an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the ^b correction of the stocks;
 23 Till ^c a dart strike through his liver, as a bird ^d hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.
 24 Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth:
 25 Let not ^e thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths:
 26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, many ^f strong men have been slain by her.
 27 ^g Her house is the way to hell, going down to the ^h chambers of death.

1 The fame, 6 and evidence of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOETH not ^a Wisdom cry? and Understanding ^b put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, ^c by the way in the places of the paths;

3 She ^d crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors;

4 Unto ^e you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ^f ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of ^g excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be ^h right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak ⁱ truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips..

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all ^k plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 ^l Receive my instruction, and ^m not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is ⁿ better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 ^o I Wisdom dwell with Prudence, and find out knowledge of ^p witty inventions.

13 ^q The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the ^r froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and ^s sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 ^t By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me ^u princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that ^x love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 ^y Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 ^z My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 ^a I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment;

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit ^b substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The Lord ^c possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, ^e I was there; when he set a compass upon the face of the depth;

28 When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep;

29 When he gave to the sea ^d his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was ^e by him, as one brought up with him; and I was daily ^f his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and ^g my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for ^h blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and ⁱ refuse it not.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The custom, 16 and error of folly.

WISDOM hath builded ^a her house, she hath ^b hewn out her seven ^c pillars:

2 She hath killed her ^d beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

3 She hath ^e sent forth her ^f maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is ^g simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 ^h Come, eat of my ⁱ bread, and drink of the wine ^j which I have mingled.

6 ^k Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth ^l a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man ^m getteth himself a blot.

8 ⁿ Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke ^o a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give ^p instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will ^q increase in learning.

10 ^r The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For ^s by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise ^t for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ^u A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and ^v knoweth nothing.

14 For she ^w sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who ^x go right on their ways;

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17 ^y Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

17 He that is ^g soon angry dealeth foolishly; and a man of ^h wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple ⁱ inherit folly: but the prudent are ^k crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil ^l bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is ^m hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath ⁿ many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, ^o happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence, and ^p his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is ^q a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the ^r king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is ^s slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 ^t A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the ^u rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor ^x reproacheth his Maker: but he that ^y honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked ^z is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath ^a hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the ^b heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 ^c Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward ^d a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

C H A P. XV.

A SOFT answer ^e turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise ^f useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 ^g The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 ^h A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is ⁱ a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof ^j is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is ^k much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is ^l trouble.

7 The lips of the wise ^m disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish ⁿ doeth not so.

8 The ^o sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his ^p delight.

9 The ^q way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that ^r followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is ^s grievous unto him that forsaketh the way; and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD; how much more then the ^t hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner ^u loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he ^v go unto the wise.

13 ^w A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the ^x spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding ^y seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools ^z feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are ^a evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 ^b Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than ^c a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 ^d A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is ^e slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is ^f as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made ^g plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 ^h Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding ⁱ walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the ^k multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken ^l in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is ^m above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will ⁿ destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 ^o The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are ^p pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain ^q troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous ^r studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far ^s from the wicked: but he ^t heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and ^u a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the ^x reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and ^y before honour is humility.

Before CHRIST

THE ^apreparations of the heart in man, and the ^banswer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are ^cclean in his own eyes: but the LORD ^dweigheth the spirits.

3 ^eCommit thy works unto the LORD, and thy ^fthoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things ^gfor himself; yea, even the wicked ^hfor the day of evil.

5 Every one that is ⁱproud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though ^khand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is ^lpurged; and by the ^mfear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways ⁿplease the LORD, he maketh even his ^oenemies to be at peace with him.

8 ^pBetter is a little with righteousness, than great revenues ^qwithout right.

9 A man's heart ^rdeviseth his way: but the LORD ^sdirecteth his steps.

10 ^tA divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth ^utransgresseth not in judgment.

11 ^vA just weight and balance are the LORD's; all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the ^wthrone is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the ^xdelight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The ^ywrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will ^zpacify it.

15 In the ^alight of the king's wisdom is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the ^blatter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

17 ^cThe highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find ^dgood; and whoso ^etrusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The ^fwise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is ^ga well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the ^hinstruction of fools is folly.

23 ⁱThe heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 ^jPleasant words are as an honey-comb, ^ksweet to the soul, and ^lhealth to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that ^mlaboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man ⁿdiggett up evil; and in his ^olips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife; and ^pa whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 ^qA violent man ^renticeth his neighbour, and ^sleadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things; moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is ^tslow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ^uruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The ^vlot is cast into the lap; but the whole ^wdisposing thereof is of the LORD.

C H A P. XVII.

BBETTER is ^aa dry morsel, and quietness ^btherewith, than an house full of ^csacrifices ^dwith strife.

2 ^eA wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The fining-pot is for silver, and the ^f furnace for gold: but the LORD ^gtrieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear ^hto a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso ⁱmocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and he that ^jis glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 ^kChildren's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are ^ltheir fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh ^mnot a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; whithersoever it turneth, ⁿit prospereth.

9 He that ^ocovereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that ^prepeateth a matter separateth ^qvery friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than ^ra hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only ^srebellion; therefore ^ta cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear, robbed of her whelps, meet a man, rather than ^ua fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth ^vevil for good, ^wevil shall not depart from his house.

14 ^xThe beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore leave off contention ^ybefore it be meddled with.

15 He that ^zjustifieth the wicked, and he that ^acondemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there ^ba price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing ^che hath ^dno heart to it?

17 A friend loveth ^eat all times, and a brother ^fis born ^gfor adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that ^hloveth strife: and he that ⁱexalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath ^ja perverse tongue fall-eth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath ^kno joy.

22 ^lA merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but ^ma broken spirit drieth the bones.

15 It is ^a joy to the just to do judgment: but ^o destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that ^p wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth ^q pleasure shall be a poor man; he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be ^r a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a ^s contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is ^t treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 He that ^u followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man ^v scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in ^y proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothful ^z killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous ^a giveth and spareth not.

27 The sacrifice of the ^b wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man ^c hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

30 There is no ^d wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the LORD.

31 The ^e horse is prepared against the day of battle: but ^f safety is of the LORD.

C H A P. XXII.

A ^a GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor ^b meet together: the LORD is the ^c maker of them all.

3 A prudent man ^d foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple ^e pass on, and are punished.

4 By humility, and the fear of the LORD, ^f are riches, and honour, and life.

5 ^g Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be ^h far from them.

6 ⁱ Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will ^k not depart from it.

7 The rich ^l ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He that ^m soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 He that hath ⁿ a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the ^o scorner, and contention shall go by; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

11 He that loveth ^p pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the ^q king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge; and he ^r overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

13 The slothful man saith, There is ^s a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 The mouth of strange women is ^t a deep pit: he that is ^u abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that ^x giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto ^y my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That ^z thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

20 Have not ^a I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, 21 That ^b I might make thee know the certainty of the ^c words of truth, that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither ^d oppress the afflicted in the gate;

23 For the LORD will ^e plead their cause, and ^f spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a ^g furious man thou shalt not go;

25 Lest thou ^h learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be not thou ⁱ one of them that ^j strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy ^k bed from under thee?

28 Remove not the ancient ^l land-mark which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man ^m diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

C H A P. XXIII.

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, ^a consider diligently what is before thee;

2 And put ^b a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties; for they are ^c deceitful meat.

4 Labour not to be ^d rich; cease from thine ^e own wisdom.

5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which ^f is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.

6 Eat thou not the bread of ^g him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, ^h saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 ¹ The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 Speak not in the ears of a fool; for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 Remove not the old land-mark; and enter not into the ^k fields of the fatherless:

11 For their ¹ Redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 ^m Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not ⁿ correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul ^o from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall ^p rejoice, even mine;

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart ^q envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an ^r end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and ^s guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not amongst ^t wine-bibbers; amongst riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with ^u rags.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 ^x Buy the truth, and ^y sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, ^z give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For an whore is a deep ditch; and a ^a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the ^b transgressors among men.

29 Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek ^c mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like ^d an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold ^e strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things:

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I ^f felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet ^g again.

C H A P. XXIV.

BE not thou ^a envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart ^b studieth destruction, and their lips ^c talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house ^d builded, and by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is ^e strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy ^f war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is ^g too high for a fool; he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that ^h deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The ⁱ thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou ^k faint in the day ^l of adversity, thy strength is small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that ^m pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he ⁿ render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, ^o eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which is sweet to thy taste:

14 So shall the ^p knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, ^q against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and ^r riseth up again: but the wicked shall ^s fall into mischief.

17 ^t Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth;

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it ^u displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 ^x Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked:

20 For there shall be ^y no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, ^z fear thou the LORD and the king; and meddle not with them that are given ^a to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ^b ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have ^c respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the ^d wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that ^e rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Observations about kings, 8 and about avoiding quarrels, and sundry causes thereof.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither, than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another;

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprove upon an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him; for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 The north wind driveth away rain; so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey; so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Observations about fools, 13 about sluggards, 17 and about contentious busy-bodies.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest; so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying; so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling; so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God, that formed all things, both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit; so a fool returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

THE wicked flee when no man pursueth :
but the righteous are ^a bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof : but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be ^c prolonged.

3 A poor man that ^d oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain, which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law ^e praise the wicked : but such as keep the law ^f contend with them.

5 Evil men ^g understand not judgment : but they that seek the LORD ^h understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse ⁱ in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son : but he that is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that ^j turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own own pit: but the upright shall have ^k good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise ^l in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do ^m rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is ⁿ hidden.

13 He that ^o covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso ^p confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that ^q feareth alway: but he that ^r hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a ^s roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is ^t a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong ^u his days.

17 A man that doth violence to the blood of any person shall fly to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is ^v perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have ^x plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have ^y poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good; for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and ^z considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that ^a rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that ^b putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

26 He that ^c trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall ^d not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous ^e increase.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Observations of publick government, 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, thievery, cowardice, and corruption.

HE that, being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be ^a destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are ^b in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked ^c beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots ^d spendeth his substance.

4 The king ^e by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth ^f gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that ^g flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth ^h sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous ⁱ considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise ^j men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, ^k whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty ^l hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth ^m all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken ⁿ to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the Lord ^o lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that ^p faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child ^q left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their ^r fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people ^s perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will ^t not be corrected by words: for though he ^u understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that ^v delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him ^w low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso ^x is ^y partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The ^z fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but ^a every man's judgment cometh from the Lord.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the ^b just; and he that ^c is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

5 ^f Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he ^g reprove thee; and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; ^h I deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with ⁱ food convenient for me;

9 Lest I be full, and ^j I deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be ^k poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 ^l Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their ^m own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how ⁿ lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to ^o devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16 The grave; and the ^p barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire, that saith not, It is enough.

17 The eye that ^q mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too ^r wonderful for me, yea, four, which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an ^s adulterous woman; she eateth, and ^t wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have ^u done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is ^v filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married, and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are ^w little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

30 ^y A lion, which is ^z strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A greyhound; an he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast ^{aa} thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth:

3 Give not thy ^{af} strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which ^{ag} destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink;

5 Lest they drink, and ^{ah} forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

¶ ECCLESIASTES, or the PREACHER.

CHAPTER I.

1 The Preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain ; 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses : 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten : 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David,
^a king of Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities ; ^b all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he ^c taketh under the sun ?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh : but the ^d earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^e hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north : it ^f whirleth about continually ; and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea ; yet the sea is not full : unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they ^g return again.

8 All things are full of labour, man cannot utter it : the ^h eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be ; and that which is done, is that which shall be done : and there is no ⁱ new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, Sec, ^k this is new ? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is ^l no remembrance of former things ; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ ^m I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem :

13 And I ⁿ gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning ^o all things that are done under heaven : this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man, to be exercised therewith.

14 I have ^p seen all the works that are done under the sun ; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is ^q crooked cannot be made straight ; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying,
Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem ; yea, my heart had ^r great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I ^s gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know ^t madness and folly : I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much ^u grief ; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour ; but that is God's gift.

I SAID ^a in mine heart, Go to now, I will I prove thee with mirth ; therefore enjoy pleasure : and, behold, this also is ^b vanity.

2 I said ^c of laughter, It is mad : and of mirth,
What doeth it ?

3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, (^d yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I ^e made me great works ; I builded me
^f houses ; I planted me vineyards ;

5 I made me gardens and ^g orchards, and I planted trees in them ^h of all kind of fruits ;

6 I made me ⁱ pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees ;

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house ; also I had ^k great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me ;

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces ;
I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ^l musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all all that were before me in Jerusalem : also my wisdom ^m remained with me.

10 And whatsoever ⁿ mine eyes desired I kept not from them ; I withheld not my heart from any joy : for ^o my heart rejoiced in all my labour ; and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I ^p looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do : and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was ^q no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and ^r madness, and folly : for what can the man do that cometh ^s after the king ? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that ^t wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness : and I myself perceived also that ^u one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me : and why was I then ^v more wise ? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever ; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man ? ^w As the fool.

17 Therefore I ^x hated life ; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me : for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, ^y I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun ; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man ^z or a fool ? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also ^{aa} vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart ^{ab} to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity ; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ^{ac} leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of ^{ad} all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun ?

23 For ^{ae} all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief : yea, his heart taketh not ^{af} rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was ^{ag} from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten ^{ah} hereunto more than I ?

26 For God giveth to a man that is ^{ai} good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy : but to the ^{aj} sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's work. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works hereafter, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven :

2 A time to be ^a born, and a time to ^b die : a time to ^c plant, and a time to pluck ^d up that which is planted :

3 A time ^e to kill, and a time to heal : a time to break down, and a time to build up :

9 ^l What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth ?

10 I have ^m seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 ⁿ He hath made every thing beautiful in his time : also he hath set the world in their heart ; so that no man can ^o find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good ^p in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should ^q eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be ^r for ever : ^s nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it : and God doeth it that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now ; and that which ^t is to be hath already been : and God requireth that which is past.

16 And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that ^u wickedness was there ; and the place of righteousness that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall ^v judge the righteous and the wicked : for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are ^w beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts ; even one thing befalleth them : as the one dieth, so dieth the other ; yea, they have all one breath : so that a man hath ^x no pre-eminence above a beast : for all is vanity.

20 All go unto ^y one place : all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth ?

C H A P. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use, 3 of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight, and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

a ch. 5, 14. THERE is ^a an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he ^b desireth, yet God giveth him ^c not power to eat thereof, but a ^d stranger catcheth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man ^e beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be ^f not filled with good, and also that he have ^g no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

4 For he ^h cometh in with vanity, and departeth in ⁱ darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath ^k more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live ^l a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his ^m mouth, and yet the appetite is ⁿ not filled.

8 For what hath the wise ^o more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than ^p the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he ^q contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For ^r who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a ^s shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

C H A P. VII.

A ^a GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of ^b death than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the ^c house of ^d feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 ^e Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The ^f heart of the wise is in the ^g house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the ^h rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the ⁱ laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh ^k a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the ^l end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the ^m patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not ⁿ hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the ^o former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 ^p Wisdom is ^q good with an inheritance; and by it there is ^r profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a ^s defence, and ^t money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider ^u the work of God: for who can make that ^v straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity ^w consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that ^x perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that ^y prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous ^z over-much; neither make thyself ^a over-wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not ^b over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die ^c before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest ^d take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall ^e come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom ^f strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that ^g doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant ^h curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart ⁱ knoweth that ^j thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I ^k proved by wisdom: I said, I will be ^l wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is ^m far off, and exceeding ⁿ deep, who can find it out?

25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And ^o I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart ^p is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso ^q pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preacher,) counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not:

1 Observations of wisdom and folly, 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth ^a a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his ^b right hand; but a fool's heart ^c at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth ^d him, and ^e he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for ^e yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an ^f error which proceedeth from the ruler;

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the ^g rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen ^h servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that ⁱ diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whose ^k breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt thereby; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but ^l wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the ^m serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are ⁿ gracious: but the lips of a fool will ^o swallow up himself.

13 The ^p beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is ^q full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them; because he knoweth not how to go to the ^r city.

16 Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is ^s a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of ^t nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 ^u Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for ^v a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread ^a upon the waters: for thou shalt find it ^b after many days.

2 Give a ^c portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the ^d clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that ^e observeth the wind, shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds, shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the ^g spirit, nor how ^h the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy ⁱ seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the ^j light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him ^k remember the days of darkness; for they shall be ^l many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ^m Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into ⁿ judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away ^o evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And, moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

6 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY night on ^a my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and ^b go about the city; in the streets, and in the broad ways, I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The ^a watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom ^f I said, ^d Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was, but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would ^e not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the chamber of her that ^t conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the ^a wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast ^a doves' eyes ^b within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from mount Gilead.

4 Thy neck is like the ^f tower of David, builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 Thy two ^g breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the ^h day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountains of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is ⁱ no spot in thee.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, ^k my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' ¹ dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast [†] ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain ^{of} thy neck.

10 How fair is thy [†] love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O ^m spouse, drop as the honeycomb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of ⁿ thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden ^a inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring ^o shut up, a ^p fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with ^q pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard;

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the ^r chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of ^a living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The vehemency of love. 8 The calling of the Gentiles. 14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

OH that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe, or to a young hart, upon the mountains of spices.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

2 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion: 5 He lamenteth her judgments: 10 He upbraideth their whole service: 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments: 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me:

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom.

6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking: 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the ^a last days, that the ^b mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be ^c exalted above the hills; ^d and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ^e Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will ^f teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for ^g out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall ^h judge among the nations, and shall ⁱ rebuke many people; and they shall ^j beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they ^k learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the ^l light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast ^m forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they ⁿ please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of ^o silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of ^p idols; they worship the ^q work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore ^r forgive them not.

10 Enter into the ^s rock, and hide thee in the dust, for ^t fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be ^u bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is ^v proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the ^w high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ^x ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant ^y pictures.

17 And the ^z loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD ^a alone shall be exalted in that day.

C H A P. III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudence of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem, and from Judah, the stay and the ^a staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the ^b judge, and the prophet, and the ^c prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give ^d children to be their princes, and ^e babes shall rule over them.

5 And the ^f people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the ^g child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall ^h take hold of his brother, of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ⁱ ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ^j ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their ^k tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The ^l shew of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin ^m as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the ⁿ righteous, that it shall be ^o well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ^p ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them: O my people, they which lead thee ^q cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD ^r standeth up to plead, and standeth to ^s judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the ^t princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the ^u vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye ^v beat my people to pieces, and ^w grind the faces of the poor? saith the LORD God of hosts.

16 Moreover, the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth ^x necks and ^y wanton eyes, walking, and ^z mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a ^a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will ^b discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their ^c round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the tablets, and the ear-rings,

21 The rings, and ^d nose-jewels,

22 The ^e changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins, 23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the veils.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle, a ^f rent; and instead of well-set hair, ^g baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her ^h gates shall lament and mourn: and, she, being ⁱ desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

C H A P. IV.

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND in ^a that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat ^b our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, to take away ^c our reproach.

2 ^d In that day shall the ^e branch of the LORD be ^f beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are ^g escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called ^h holy, even every one that is ⁱ written among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the ^j spirit of judgment, and by the ^k spirit of burning.

C H A P. V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard, God excuseth his severe judgment: 8 His judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The execrations of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my ^a well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his ^b vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he ^c looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth ^d wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^e judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard ^f that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will ^g take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6 And I will lay it ^h waste: it shall not be ⁱ pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold ^k a cry.

8 Wo unto them that ^l join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be ^m no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, O a truth, many ⁿ houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 Wo unto them that rise up ^o early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12 And the ^p harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they ^q regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 Therefore my people ^r are gone into captivity, because they have ^s no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the ^t eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be ^u exalted in judgment, and God, that is holy, shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the ^x lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the ^y fat ones shall ^z strangers eat.

18 Wo unto them that ^a draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and ^b sin as it were with a ^c cart-rope!

19 That ^d say, Let him ^e make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel ^f draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put ^g darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Wo unto them that are ^h wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

22 Wo unto them that are ⁱ mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which ^j justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their ^k root shall be rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the ^l anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. ^m For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift up an ⁿ ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be ^o weary nor stumble amongst them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

28 Whose ^p arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

29 Their ^q roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; and if one look unto the land, behold ^r darkness and sorrow; and the light is darkened in the ^s heavens thereof.

C. H. A. P. VI.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, 5 being terrified, is confirmed for his message: 9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah^a died I saw also the LORD^b sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the^c seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his^d face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, ^e Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole^f earth is full of his glory.

4 And the^g posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was^h filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, ⁱ Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of^k unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then^l flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the^m altar;

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard theⁿ voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go^o for us? Then I said, Here am I; ^p send me.

9 And he said, ^q Go, and tell this people, ^r Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 ^s Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; ^t lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long? And he answered, Until the^u cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be^v utterly desolate;

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be^y a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a^z tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, so the^a holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

C. H. A. P. VII.

1 Ahaz being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing, hath for a sign, Christ promised: 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of^a Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to^b war against it, but ^c could^d not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is^e confederate with Ephraim: and^f his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and^g Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be^h quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of theseⁱ smoking fire-brands, for the^j fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, ^k have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein^l for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the LORD God, It shall^m not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syriaⁿ is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within^o threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken,^p that it be^q not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim^r is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is^s Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall^t not be established.

10 Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 ^u Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God: ^v ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I^w tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to^x weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign: Behold, ^y a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name^z Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall^a he eat, that he may^b know to refuse the evil, and choose the good:

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the^c land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring^d upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy^e father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the^f fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the^g bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest^h all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that isⁱ hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the^j feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria; 5 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great ¹ roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning ² Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful ³ witnesses to record, ⁴ Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I ⁵ went unto the prophetess; and she conceived and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz:

4 For ⁶ before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, my mother, the ⁷ riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forsomuch as this people refuseth the waters of ⁸ Shiloah that go softly, and ⁹ rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, ¹⁰ strong and many, even the ¹¹ king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the ¹² neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¹³ Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be ¹⁴ broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come ¹⁵ to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for ¹⁶ God is with us.

11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and ¹⁷ instructed me, that I should ¹⁸ not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 ¹⁹ Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither ²⁰ fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 ²¹ Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for ²² a sanctuary; but for a ²³ stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And ²⁴ many among them shall ²⁵ stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 ²⁶ Bind up the testimony, ²⁷ seal the law among my ²⁸ disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that ²⁹ he hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will ³⁰ look for him.

18 Behold, ³¹ I, and the children whom the LORD ³² hath given me, are for ³³ signs and for wonders in Israel, from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall ³⁴ say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? ³⁵ for the living to the dead?

20 To the ³⁶ law and to the testimony: if they speak not ³⁷ according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall ³⁸ pass through it hardly, beset and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall ³⁹ fret themselves, and curse their king and their ⁴⁰ God, and look upward.

22 And they shall ⁴¹ look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

1, What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride: 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS, the ¹ dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he ² lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward ³ did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The ⁴ people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the ⁵ light shined.

3 Thou hast ⁶ multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they ⁷ divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the ⁸ staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of ⁹ Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and ¹⁰ garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with ¹¹ burning and fuel of fire.

derlui, Counsellor, The ^a mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

⁷ Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be ^c no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The ^a zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

⁸ ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and ⁱ it hath ^b brighted upon Israel.

⁹ And all the people ^a shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that

^x say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

^y 2 Kings 15, 20. ^z Pa. 127, 1. ^a Rev. 13, 7. ¹⁰ The ^v bricks are fallen down, but ^z we will build with hewn stones; the ^a sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

¹¹ Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

¹² The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. ^b For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand ⁱ is stretched out still.

¹³ For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they ^c seek the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴ Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel ^d head and tail, branch and rush, in ^e one day.

¹⁵ The ancient and honourable, he ⁱ is the head; and the prophet ^f that teacheth lies, he ⁱ is the ^e tail.

¹⁶ For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are ^h destroyed.

¹⁷ Therefore the LORD shall have ⁱ no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their ^a fatherless and widows: for every one ⁱ is ^a hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand ⁱ is stretched out still.

¹⁹ Though the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall ⁿ spare his brother.

²⁰ And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be ^o satisfied: they shall eat every man ^p the flesh of his own arm:

²¹ Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. ^q For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand ⁱ is stretched out still.

C H A P. X.

¹ The wo of tyrants. ⁵ Assyria, the rod of hy-pocrites, for his pride shall be broken. ²⁰ A remnant of Israel shall be saved. ²⁴ Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WO unto them that decree ^a unrighteous decrees, and ^b that write grievousness which they have prescribed:

² To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their ^c prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

³ And what will ye do in the ^d day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come ^e from far? to whom ^f will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

⁴ ¶ Without me they shall ^g bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand ⁱ is stretched out still.

⁵ O Assyrian, the ^h rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

⁶ I will send him against an ⁱ hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I ^k give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

⁷ Howbeit ^l he meaneth not so, neither doth ⁱ his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

⁸ For ^m he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

⁹ Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

¹⁰ As my hand hath ⁿ found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

¹¹ Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, ^o so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

¹² Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the LORD hath ^p performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will ^q punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

¹³ For he saith, By the ^r strength of my hand I have done it, and by my ^s wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the ^t bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

¹⁴ And my hand hath found, as a ^u nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

¹⁵ Shall the axe ^x boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were ^y no wood.

¹⁶ Therefore shall the LORD, the LORD of hosts, send among his ^z fat ones ^a leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like a burning of a fire.

¹⁷ And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his ^b briars ^c in one day;

¹⁸ And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his ^d fruitful field, both soul and body: and

Before CHRIST cir. 713.
and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the ^e trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the ^f remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again ^g stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto ^h the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow ^k with righteousness.

23 For the LORD God of hosts shall make a ^l consumption, even ^m determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be ⁿ not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a ^o very little while, and the indignation shall ^p cease, and mine anger, ^q in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge ^r for him, according to the slaughter ^s of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod ^t was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up ^u after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his ^v burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of ^w the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeath of Saul is fled.

30 ^y Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim; cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim ^z gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall ^a shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the ^b high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a ^c mighty one.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocation of the Gentiles.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and ^a a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall ^b rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the LORD;

3 And shall make him of ^c quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousness shall he judge ^d the ^e poor, and ^f reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall ^g smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with ^h the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And ⁱ righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 The ^j wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice-den.

9 They shall ^k not hurt nor destroy in all my ^l holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the ^m knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a ⁿ root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his ^o rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall set his hand again the ^p second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall ^q set up an ensign for the ^r nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the ^s dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 The ^t envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall ^u not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward ^v the west; they shall spoil them of the ^w east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall ^x obey them.

15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the ^y tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his ^z mighty wind shall he shake his hand ^a over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make ^b men go over dry-shod.

16 And there shall be an ^c highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of ^d Egypt.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, ^q a cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and he shall destroy the sinners thereof ^r out of it.

10 For the ^s stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the ^t world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud ^u to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

14 And it shall be as the ^z chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

16 Their children also shall be ^c dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have ^g no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew ^h Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be ⁱ inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there:

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and ^j satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the ^k wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces; and her ^l time is near to come, and her ^m days shall not be prolonged.

SEND ye the ^a lamb to the ^b ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that as a ^c wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the ^d outcasts, ^e bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts ^f dwell with thee, Moab: be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established; and he shall ^g sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking ^h judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is ⁱ very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his ^k lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the ^l foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon ^m languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness; her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 Therefore I will ⁿ bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And ^o gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an ^p harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 And it shall ^q come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary ^r to pray; but he shall ^s not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, ^t Within three years, as the years of an ^u hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The wo of Israel's enemies.

THE burden of ^a Damascus. Behold, ^b Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks which shall lie down, and none shall ^c make them afraid.

3 The fortress shall also cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be ^d as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made ^e thin, and the ^f fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvest-man ^g gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Yet ^h gleanings shall be ⁱ left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man ^k look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the ^l altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his ^m fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they ⁿ left, because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast ^o forgotten the God of thy ^p salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength; therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the ^q harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Wo to the multitude of many people, which make a ^r noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but ^s God shall ^t rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the ^u chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like ^v a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And, behold, at ^w evening-tide trouble; and before the ^x morning he is not. This is the ^y portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD ° rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the ° heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians ° against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the ° counsel thereof: and they shall ° seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a ° cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the ° waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away, and the brooks of ° defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the ° mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The ° fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that ° spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for ° fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are ° fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become ° brutish: ° how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 ° Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools; the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a ° perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to ° err in every work thereof, as ° a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the ° head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto ° women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the ° shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a ° terror unto Egypt: every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and ° swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an ° altar to the LORD in the midst of ° the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof ° to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall ° cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a ° saviour, and a ° great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be ° known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do ° sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall ° smite Egypt; he shall smite and heal it: and they shall ° return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a ° highway out of Egypt to Assyria; and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a ° blessing in the midst of the land;

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt ° my people, and Assyria the ° work of my hands, and Israel mine ° inheritance.

IN the year that ^a Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

² At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the ^b sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he ^c did so, walking naked and barefoot.

³ And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a ^d sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

⁴ So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their ^e buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

⁵ And they shall be ^f afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia ^g their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

⁶ And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

¹ The prophet bewailing the captivity of his people, seeth in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. ¹¹ Edom scorning the prophet, is moved to repentance. ¹³ The set time of Arabia's calamity.

THE burden of the ^a desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

² A grievous vision is declared unto me; The ^b treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler ^c spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

⁴ My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the ^f night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

⁵ Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, ^h eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

⁶ For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set ⁱ a watchman, let him declare ^k what he seeth.

⁷ And he saw a ^l chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened ^m diligently with much heed.

⁸ And he cried, ⁿ A lion: My lord, I stand ^o continually upon the ^p watch-tower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights;

⁹ And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, ^q Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the ^r graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

¹⁰ O my ^s threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

¹¹ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, ^t what of the night? watchman, what of the night?

¹² The watchman said, The ^u morning cometh, and also the ^v night: if ye will inquire, ^w inquire ye: ^x return, ^y come.

¹³ The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

¹⁴ The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

¹⁵ For they ^b fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

¹⁶ For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a ^c year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

¹⁷ And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of ^d Kedar, shall be ^e diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

¹ The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians: ⁸ He reproveth their human wisdom and worldly joy: ¹⁵ He prophesieth Shebna's deprivation, ²⁰ and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the ^a valley of ^b vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

² Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ^c a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

³ All thy ^d rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are ^e bound together, which have fled from far.

⁴ Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will ^f weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

⁶ And Elah bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir ⁱ uncovered the shield.

⁷ And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

⁸ And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the ^k forest.

⁹ Ye have seen also the ^l breaches of the city of David, that they are many; and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool:

¹⁰ And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

¹¹ Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the ^m old pool: but ye have not looked unto the ⁿ maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

¹² And in that day did the LORD God of hosts call call to ^o weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And, behold, ^p joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, ¹ eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be ^r purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord
God of hosts.

15 Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto ^s Shebna, which is ^t over the house, and say,

16 What hast thou here, and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that ^u graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely ^x cover thee.

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the ^y shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he ^z pull thee down.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant ^a Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will ^b clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy ^c girdle, and I will commit thy ^d government into his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the ^e key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a ^f nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a ^g glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all ^h the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all ⁱ vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flacons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the ^k burden that was upon it shall be ^l cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre: 17 Their unhappy return.

THE burden of Tyre. ^a Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is ^b laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be ^c still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have ^d replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, ^e is her revenue; and she is a ^f mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the ^g sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying,

I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up ^h young men, nor bring up vir-gins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely ⁱ pained at the report of Tyre.

6 ^j Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 ^k Is this your ^k joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her ^l own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the ^m crowning city, whose ⁿ merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the ^o honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the ^p pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He ^q stretched out his hand over the sea; ^q Ex. 14, 21 he ^r shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more ^s rejoice, ^s Revel. 13, 22.
O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon; arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not ^t till the Assyrian ^t founded it for them that dwell in the ^u wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten ^v seventy years, according to the ^x days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, ^y thou harlot that hast been forgotten: make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her ^z hire, and shall ^a commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her ^b merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to ^c eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 The doleful judgments of God upon the land. 13
A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth ^a empty; and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and ^b scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the ^c people, so with the ^d priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender,

O LORD, thou art my God; I will ^oexalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done ^hwonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a ^ocity an ^oheap; of a defended city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people ^oglorify thee, the city of the ^hterrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a ^orefuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the ^hcovering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will ^oswallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the ^orebuks of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is ^oour God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have ^owaited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread-corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall ^a not be found in the bursting of it ^a a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, ^b In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in ^c confidence shall be your strength; and ^d ye would not.

16 But ye said, ^e No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 ^f One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee; till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

18 And therefore will the Lord ^g wait, that he may be gracious unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you; for the Lord ^h is a God of judgment: ⁱ blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall ^k dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the ^l voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

22 Ye shall ^q defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, ^r Get thee hence.

23 ^s Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy ^t cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The ^u oxen likewise, and the young asses that ear the ground, shall eat ^v clean provender which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the ^w great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the ^x moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be ^y seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from ^b far, ^c burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; ^d his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his ^e breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall ^f be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a ^g song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the Lord, to the ^h mighty One of Israel.

30 And the Lord shall cause his glorious voice ⁱ to be heard, and shall shew the light- ing down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and ^j hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the Lord shall the ^k Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And ^l in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the Lord shall lay upon him, it shall be with ^m tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For ⁿ Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the ^o king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a ^p stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God: 6 He exhorteth to conversion: 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WO to them that go down to Egypt ^a for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither ^b seek the Lord!

2 Yet he also is ^c wise, and will bring evil, and will not ^d call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are ^e men, and ^f not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the Lord ^g spoken unto me, Like as ^h the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the Lord of hosts come down to fight for ⁱ mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As ^j birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts ^k defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it, and passing over he will preserve it.

f Neh. 2, 19.

NOW it came to pass in the^a fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the^b defended cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a[†] great army: and he stood by the conduit of the^d upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the^o great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for war: now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou^e rebellest against me?

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he whose^k high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before^l this altar?

10 And am I now come^p up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? ^q The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may^r eat their own dung and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and^s cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria:

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he^t shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you^u trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah; for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and^v come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and^y take you away to a land like your own land, ^z a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, ^a The LORD will deliver us. ^a Hath any of the^b gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they^c among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they^d held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their^e clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, 19 And have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now, therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it? and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb; as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears; therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as growth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 3 The sun goeth ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise.

9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN ^a those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And ^a Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah ^b turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, c Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good ^d in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came ^e the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have ^f heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I ^g will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will ^h deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be ⁱ a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said, in the ^k cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall ^l not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine ^m age is departed, and is removed from me as a ⁿ shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he ^o break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane, or a swallow, so did I ^p chatter; I did ^a mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with ^a looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

15 ^a What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in ^a the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, ^a by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins ^a behind thy back.

18 For the ^a grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The ^a living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the ^a father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, ^b all the days of our ^c life, in the house of the LORD.

21 For Isaiah had ^a said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall ^a go up to the house of the LORD?

3 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^a that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was ^b glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was ^c nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, ^d What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a ^e far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, ^f All that is in mine house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is ^g in thine house, and that which thy ^g fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

1 The promulgation of the gospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles. 12 The prophet by the omnipotency of God, 18 and his incomparableness, 26 comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye ^a my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is ^b accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand ^c double for all her sins.

3 The ^d voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for ^e our God.

4 Every ^f valley shall be exalted, and every ^g mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the ^h glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall ⁱ see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^k All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the LORD ^l bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the ^m word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zion, that bringest ⁿ good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, ^o Behold your God!

10 Behold, the LORD ^p God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his ^q reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall ^r feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with ^s young.

12 Who hath ^t measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the ^u span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath ^v directed the ^w Spirit of the LORD, or, being his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who ^x instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small ^y dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are ^b as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing and ^c vanity.

18 ^d To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The ^e workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished, that he hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning ^f workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been ^g told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; and that ^h stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

23 That bringeth the ⁱ princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall ^k blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away ^l as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye ^m liken me, or shall I be ⁿ equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host ^o by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one ^p faileth.

27 ^q Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way ^r is hid from the LORD, and my ^s judgment is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, ^t fainteth not, neither is weary? there is ^u no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the ^v faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the ^w youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall ^x renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and ^y not faint.

1 God expostulateth with his people about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his ^b foot, ^c gave the nations before him, and made him ^d ruler over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt not fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box-tree together;

20 That they may see and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things that they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before-time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

BEHOLD my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein;

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailling woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises:
8 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency; 14 He forgetteth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people: 22 He reproveth the people as inexcusable.

BUT now, thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; and thou art mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no Saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army, and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ^a Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do ^a a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in ^t the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The ^a beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall ^b shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast ⁱ not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast ^k been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast ⁱ not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices: I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast ^m wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that ^a blotteth out thy transgressions for mine ^o own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 ^p Put me in remembrance: let us ^q plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy ^r first father hath sinned, and thy ^s teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned ^t the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the ^u curse, and Israel to reproaches.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol-makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, O ^a Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that ^b made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou, ^c Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ^d pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall ^e spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 ^f One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall ^g call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the ^h first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall ⁱ call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ^j ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is ^k no God; I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image are all of their vanity; and their delectable ^m things shall ⁿ not profit: and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is ^o profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ^p ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, ^q he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he marketh it out with a line, he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the ^r house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ^s strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth ar ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof and ^t warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he ^u maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire: with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my God.

18 They have ^x not known nor understood: for he hath ^y shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it; and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: ^z a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not ^a a lie in my right hand?

21 ^a Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have ^c redeemed thee.

23 ^d Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the ^e earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the ^f liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 That ^g confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof:

27 That saith to the ^h deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

C H A P. XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake. 5 By his omnipotency he challengeth obedience: 20 He convinceth the idols of vanity, by his saving power.

THUS saith the LORD to his ^a anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to ^b subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved ^c gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the ^d gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the ^e treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest ^f know that I the LORD which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine ^g elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not been known me.

5 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: ^h I girded thee, though thou hast not known me;

6 That they may know from the ⁱ rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness; I make ^j peace, and create ^k evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop down, ye ^l heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down ^m righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I the LORD have created it.

9 Wo unto him that ⁿ striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the ^o clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Wo unto him that saith unto his father,

What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons; and concerning the work of my hands ^p command ye me.

12 I have made the earth, ^q and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 ^r I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for ^s price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabaeans, men of stature, shall ^t come over ^u unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and there is none else; there is no God.

15 Verily, thou art a God that ^v hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of ^w idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an ^x everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be ^y inhabited; I am the LORD, and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, ^z in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me ^a in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are ^b escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that ^c cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me; a just God, and a Saviour: there is none besides me.

22 ^d Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That ^e unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I ^f righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD shall all the ^g seed of Israel be ^h justified, and shall glory.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the ^a beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden: they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop; they bow down together; they could not ^b deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are ^c borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the ^d womb:

4 And even to your ^e old age ^f I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye ^g liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They ^h lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down; yea, they worship.

11 Calling a ⁿ ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth ^o my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Harken unto me, ye ^p stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near ^q my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel ^r my glory.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 God's judgments upon Babylon and Chaldea, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and over-boldness, 11 shall be irresistible.

COME down, and sit in the ^a dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou ^b shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, ^c make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will ^d take vengeance, and I will ^e not meet thee as a man.

4 As for ^f our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into ^g darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was ^h wroth with my people; I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them ⁱ no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a ^k lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given ^l to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, ^m I am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But ⁿ these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy ^o sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast ^p trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy ^q wisdom and thy knowledge it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know ^r from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able ^s to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thy ^t enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold they shall be as ^u stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be ^v a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee ^w with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

C H A P. XLVIII.

1 God to convince the people of their foreknown obstinacy, revealeth his prophecies: 9 He saveth them for his own sake: 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence: 16 He lamenteth their backwardness: 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the ^a name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; which swear by the name of the Lord, and make ^b mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and ^c stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The Lord of hosts is his name.

3 I have ^d declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they ^e came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ^f obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy ^g brow brass:

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine † idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will ^s not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even ^b hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are ⁱ created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou ^k heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a ^l transgressor from the womb.

9 ^m For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my ⁿ praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but || not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For ^o mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will ^p not give my glory unto another.

12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my ^q called; I am he: I am the ^r first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the ^s foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I ^t call unto them, they ^u stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which ^x among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath ^y loved him; he will do his ^z pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way ^a prosperous.

16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from ^b the time that it was, ^c there am I: and now the Lord God and his Spirit hath ^d sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which ^e leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ^f O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy ^g peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name ^h should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ⁱ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of ^j singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^k redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the ^l rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is ^m no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

1 Christ being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them: 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 13 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

L I STEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath ^a called me from the ^b womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ^c my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ^d polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O ^e Israel, in whom I will be ^f glorified.

4 Then I said, I have laboured ^g in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; yet surely ^h my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be ⁱ not gathered, yet shall I be ^k glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be ^l my strength.

6 And he said, It is ^m a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel; I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man ⁿ despiseth, to him whom the ^o nation abhorreth, to a ^p servant of rulers, ^q Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an ^r acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped ^s thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for ^t a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages:

9 That thou mayest say to the ^u prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves: they shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall ^x not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come ^y from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of ^z Sinim.

13 Sing, ^a O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

8 Thy ^q watchmen shall ^r lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see ^s eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem:

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ^t all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ^u Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out of the midst of her; be ye ^v clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with ^w haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will ^x go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward.

14 As many were ^e astonished at thee; (his visage was so marred more than ^d any man, and his form more than the sons of men;)

15 So shall he ^e sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had ^t not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

1 The prophet, complaining of incredulity, excuseth the scandal of the cross, 4 by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO hath believed our report? and to whom is the ^a arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; he hath no form nor ^b comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and ^e rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and ^a acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we ^e esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our ^t griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, ^e smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded ^h for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we, like ⁱ sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath ^k laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he ^l opened not his mouth: he is brought as a ^m lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall ^a declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the ^o transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the ^p wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any ^q deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it ^r pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul ^a an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall ^t prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the ^u travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his ^v knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I ^v divide him a portion with the great, and he shall ^w divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors: and he bare the sin of many, and made ^x intercession for the transgressors.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

SING, ^a O barren, thou that didst not bear; ^a break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst ^b not travail with child: for ^c more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them ^d stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes:

3 For thou shalt ^e break forth on the right hand and on the left; and ^f thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt ^g forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker ^h is thine ^h husband; the LORD of hosts ⁱ is his name; and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; The God of the ^j whole earth shall he be called.

7 For a ^m small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

10 For the mountains shall ^r depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath ^s mercy on thee.

11 O thou ^t afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy ^u stones with fair colours, and lay thy ^v foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

H^O, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the ^a waters, and he that hath ^b no money; come ye, ^c buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is ^d not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fitness.

3 Incline your ear, ^e and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an ^f everlasting covenant with you, even ^g the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a ^h witness to the people, ⁱ a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath ^j glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD ^k while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7 Let the ^l wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his ^m thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will ⁿ abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are ^o your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the ^p heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my ^q thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the ^r rain cometh down, and the snow, from heaven, and returneth not thither, but ^s watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give ^t seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not ^u return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall ^v go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: ^w the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 He promiseth it shall be general without respect to persons: 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

T^HUS saith the LORD; Keep ye ^a judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my ^b righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that ^c doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that ^d keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the ^e stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am ^f a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the ^g eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that ^h please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine ⁱ house, and within my walls, a place and a name ^j better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that ^k join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and ^l taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in ^m my house of prayer; their ⁿ burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called ^o an house of prayer for ^p all people.

8 The Lord God, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I ^q gather others to him, besides those that are ^r gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to ^s devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are ^t blind; they are all ^u ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they ^v cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are ^w greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his ^x gain from his quarter.

- CHAP. LVIII.
1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true. 8 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.
CRY ^a aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their ^b transgression; and the house of Jacob their sins.
2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.
3 ^c Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? ^d wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the ^e day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labours.
4 Behold, ye fast for ^f strife and debate, and to ^g smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye ^h do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.
5 ⁱ Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to ^j afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes ^k under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?
6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? ^l to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the ^m heavy burdens, and to let the ⁿ oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?
7 Is it not to ^o deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are ^p cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou ^q cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine ^r own flesh?
8 Then shall thy ^s light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall ^t go before thee: the glory of the LORD shall be thy rearward.
9 Then shalt thou ^u call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the ^v putting forth of the finger, and ^w speaking vanity:
10 And if thou ^x draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:
11 And the LORD shall ^y guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ^z drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a ^a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.
12 And they that shall be ^b of thee shall build the old ^c waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The Repairer of the breach, The ^d Restorer of paths to dwell in.
13 If thou ^e turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing ^f thy pleasure on my holyday; and call the sabbath ^g a Delight, the Holy of the LORD, Honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor ^h speaking thine own words:

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is ¹not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have ²separated between you and your God, and your sins have ³hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For ⁴your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken ⁵lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 ⁶None calleth for justice, nor ⁷any ⁸pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they ⁹conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch ¹cockatrice' eggs, and weave the ²spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their ¹webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their ¹feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is ²no judgment in their goings: they have made them ³crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is ⁴judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait ⁵for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We ¹grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We ¹roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our ¹transgressions are multiplied ²before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are ³with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, ⁴conceiving and uttering from the ⁵heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth ¹faileth; and he that ²departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was ¹no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore ²his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he ¹put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their ¹deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to ²his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the ¹west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the ²Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the ¹Redeemer shall come to ²Zion, and unto them that ³turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my ¹covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and ²my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of ³thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: ²thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be ³nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and ¹flow together, and thine heart shall ²fear, and be ³enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the ⁴forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

ders: but thou shalt call thy ⁿwalls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The ^osun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory;

20 Thy sun shall no more ^pgo down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy ^qmourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be ^rall righteous:
they shall inherit the land for ever, the ^sbranch of my planting, the ^twork of my hands, that I may be ^uglorified.

22 ^aA little one shall ^vbecome a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will ^zhasten it ^ain his time.

C H A P. LXI.

1 The office of Christ. 4 The forwardness, 7 and blessings of the faithful.

THE Spirit of the Lord God ^ais upon me; because the Lord hath ^banointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the ^ccaptives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the ^dacceptable year of the Lord, and ^ethe day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the ^foil of joy for mourning, the ^ggarment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called ^hg Trees of Righteousness, The Planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the ⁱold wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^kstrangers shall stand and feed your ^lflocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your ^mplowmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the ⁿpriests of the Lord; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves.

7 For your ^oshame you shall have double, and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion:
therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the Lord ^plove judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will ^qdirect their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their ^rseed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people:
all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the Lord hath ^sblessed.

10 I will ^tgreatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God: for he hath clothed me with the ^ugarments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as ^va bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the ^wgarden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause ^xrighteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, 10 and preparing the people

FOR ^aZion's sake will I not ^bhold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof ^cgo forth as that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see ^dthy righteousness, and all kings thy ^eglory: and thou shalt be called by ^fa new name, which the ^gmouth of the Lord shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a ^hcrown of glory in the ⁱhand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed ^kForsaken: neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, in thee, and thy land shall be ^mmarried.

rejoiceth over the bride, so shall ^othy God rejoice over thee.

6 ^pI have set watchmen upon thy ^awalls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence;

7 And give him ⁿo rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ^aa praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his ^tright hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy ^ucorn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; ^zprepare you the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the ^ystones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath ^zproclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the ^adaughter of Zion, Behold, thy ^ssalvation cometh; behold, his ^ereward is with him; and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, ^dThe holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ^enot forsaken.

C H A P. LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy towards his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

W H O ^eis this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is ^bglorious in his apparel, travelling in ^ethe greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have ^dtrodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their ^eblood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ^tday of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold; therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will ^bmention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction ^hhe was afflicted, and the angel of his ^spresence saved them: in his ^llove and in his pity he redeemed them: and he ^mbare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and ^avexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he ^ofought against them.

11 Then he ^premembered the days of old, ^aMoses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his ^hholy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with ^shis glorious arm, ^tdividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting ^aname?

13 That led them through the deep, ^aas an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest; so didst thou ^vlead thy people, to make thyself ^aa glorious name.

15 ^aLook down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy ^bbowels and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our Father, though Abraham be ^eignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from ^deverlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou ^emade us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? ^tReturn for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The ^epeople of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have ^htrodden down thy sanctuary.

19 ⁱWe are ^tthine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called ^bby thy name.

C H A P. LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have an holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the LORD, The ^a heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: ^b where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a ^c contrite spirit, and ^d trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ^e ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol: yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their ^f soul delighted in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their ^g delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your ^h brethren that hated you, that ⁱ cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall ^j appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the ^k city, a voice from the ^l temple, a voice of the ^m LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a ⁿ man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born ^o at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the ^p birth, and ^q not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice ^r for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may ^s suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the ^t abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend ^u peace to her like a river, and the ^v glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be ^w dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, ^x so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your ^y heart shall rejoice, and your ^z bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the LORD shall be known towards his servants, and his indignation towards his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with ^{aa} fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his ^{ab} anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his ^{ac} sword will the LORD ^{ad} plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall ^{ae} be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For ^{af} I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather ^{ag} all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set ^{ah} a sign among them, and I will send those that ^{ai} escape of them unto the ^{aj} nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for ^{ak} an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take ^{al} of them for ^{am} priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the ^{an} new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one ^{ao} new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall ^{ap} all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall ^{aq} go forth, and look upon the ^{ar} carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me; for their ^{as} worm shall not die, neither shall their ^{at} fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet JEREMIAH.

C H A P. I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic visions of an almond-rod, and a seething-pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE ^a words of Jeremiah the son of ^b Hilkiah, of the priests that were in ^c Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD ^d came in the days of ^e Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirtieth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the ^{||} end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I ^f formed thee in the belly ^g I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I ^h sanctified thee; and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, 'Ah, Lord God! behold, ^k I cannot speak; for I am a ⁱ child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall ^m send thee, and ⁿ whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 ^o Be not afraid of their faces: for ^p I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and ^q touched my mouth: and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have ^r put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day ^s set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a ^t rod of an ^u almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast ^x well seen: for I will ^y hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a ^z seething-pot, and the face thereof is toward the ^a north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an ^b evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will ^c call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall ^d set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments ^e against them touching all their wickedness, ^f who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore ^g gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I ^h confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a ⁱ defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls, against the whole ^k land; against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall ^l fight against thee, but they shall ^m not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

C H A P. II.

1 God having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their causeless revolt, 9 beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember ^a thee, the ^b kindness of thy youth, the ^c love of thine espousals, when thou wentest ^d after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was ^e holiness unto the LORD, and the ^f first-fruits of his increase: all that ^g devotion him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, ^h What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are ⁱ gone far from me, and have walked after ^j vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither ^k said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness; through a land of deserts, and of pits; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death; through a land that no man ^l passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a ^m plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof: but when ye entered, ye ⁿ defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The ^o priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that ^p handle the law ^q knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do ^r not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet ^s plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the ^t isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto ^u Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing:

11 Hath a nation ^v changed their gods, which ^w ye yet ^x no gods? but my people have changed their ^y glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be ^z astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now, what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? Let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord.

30 In vain have I smitten your children: they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see ye the word of the Lord: Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the Lord hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

C H A P. III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reprov'd and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted: but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 The Lord said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not.

8 And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce;

yet her treacherous sister Judah^a feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the^a lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with^a stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but^a feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified^a herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am^a merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger^c for ever.

13 Only^a acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast^a scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am^a married unto you: and I will take you^a one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you^a pastors according to mine heart, which shall^a feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be^a multiplied and increased in the land, in^a those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The^a ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the^a throne of the LORD; and^a all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the^a imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk^a with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and^a give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her^a husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A^a voice was heard upon the^a high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have^a perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22^a Return, ye backsliding children, and I will^a heal your backslidings. Behold, ^a we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the^a hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ^a truly^a is in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For^a shame hath devoured^a the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25^a We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

C H A P. IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments.

19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

I^a thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, I will return^a unto me; and if thou wilt put away^a thine^a abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou^a not remove.

2 And thou shalt^a swear, the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they^a glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and^a sow not among thorns.

4^a Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest^a my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ^a retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7^a The Lion is come up from his thicket, and^a the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land^a desolate: and thy cities shall^a be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this^a gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl; for the fierce anger of the LORD is^a not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the^a heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets^a shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely^a thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to^a cleanse, 12 Even^a a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I^a give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall^a come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are^a swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy^a vain thoughts lodge^a within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ^afrom Dan, and publisheth ^baffliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye ⁱmention to the nations: behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a ^kfar country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As ^jkeepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 Thy way and thy doings have ^mprocured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is ⁿbitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ^oMy bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 Destruction ^pupon destruction is cried: for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is ^qa foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are ^rwise to do evil, but to do good they have ^sno knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was ^twithout form and void; and the heavens, and they had ^uno light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they ^xtrembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the ^ybirds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the ^zpresence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make ^aa full end.

28 For this shall the earth ^bmourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will ^cnot repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into ^dthickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou ^edeckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy ^flovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as ^gof a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that ^hspreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now! for my soul is wearied because of ⁱmurderers.

CHAP. V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and (549) for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can ^afind a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will ^bpardon it.

2 And though they ^csay, The LORD liveth, surely they swear ^dfalsely.

3 O LORD, are not ^ethine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^fstricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have ^grefused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a ^hrock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the ⁱway of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God:

5 I will get me unto the ^kgreat men, and will ^lspeak unto them: for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but ^mthese have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of ⁿthe evenings shall spoil them, a ^oleopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are ^pno gods: when I had ^qfed them to the full, they then committed ^radultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as ^sfed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his ^tneighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be ^uavenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her ^vwalls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are ^wnot the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have ^xdealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have ^ybelied the LORD, and said, ^z*It is* not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine;

13 And the prophets shall become ^awind, and the word is ^bnot in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth ^cfire, and this d chap. 1, 9. people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you ^efrom far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ^fancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall ^geat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, ^hWherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land; so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ^hfoolish people, and without [†]understanding; which have ¹eyes, and see not; which have ears and hear not:

22 ^mFear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the ^pbound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God that giveth ^orain, both the ^pformer and the latter, in his ^aseason: he reserveth unto us the ^rappointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ^aYour iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they ^tcatch men.

27 As a ^acage is full of birds, so are their ^ahouses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are ^ywaxen fat, they shine; yea, they ^aoverpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they ^aprosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 A ^bwonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The ^aprophets prophesy ^dfalsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people ^alove to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

C H A P. VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah, 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins: 18 He proclaimeth God's wrath: 26 He calleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

O YE children of ^aBenjamin, gather yourselves to ^bflee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up ^aa sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the ^anorth, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The ^ashepherds with their flocks shall come unto her: they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up [†]at noon. Wo unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her ^apalaces.

6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, ^hHew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is ¹wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As ^aa fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: ¹violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou [†]instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly ^aglean the remnant of Israel as ^aa vine: turn back thine hand as ^aa grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ^aear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have ^ono delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am ^pweary with holding in: I will ^apour it out upon the ^rchildren abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with ^hhim that is full of days.

12 And their ^ahouses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given [†]to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people ^aslightly, saying, ^aPeace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were ^ynot at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, ^aStand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the ^aold paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find ^brest for your souls. But they said, ^cWe will not walk therein.

17 Also I set ^dwatchmen over you, saying, Harken to the ^asound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay ^k stumbling-blocks before this people, and the ^a fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and ^m spear; they are ⁿ cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain as of a ^a woman in travail.

25 ^p Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning as for an ^a only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler ^a shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a ^a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest ^a know and try their way.

28 They are all ^a grievous revolvers, walking with ^a slanders: they are ^a brass and iron; they are all ^a corrupters.

29 The ^a bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain; for the wicked are ^b not plucked away.

30 ^c Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

C H A P. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity: 8 He rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh: 17 He threateneth them for their idolatry: 21 He rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient: 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

THE ^a word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the ^b gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD:

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^c Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust you not in ^d lying words, saying, The ^e temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are ^f these.

5 For if ye ^a thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not ^b innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in ^a this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that ^k cannot profit.

9 Will ye ^l steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after ^m other gods whom ye ⁿ know not, and

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are ^o delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is ^p called by my name, become a ^q den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place, which was in Shiloh, where I set my ^r name ^s at the first, and ^t see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, ^u rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and ^x I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto ^a this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ^y Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your ^z brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ^a pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not ^b hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The ^c children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the ^d queen of heaven, and to ^e pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they ^f provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not ^g provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, ^h upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall ⁱ burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^j Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I ^k spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But ^l this thing commanded I them, saying, ^m Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in ⁿ all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity: 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God: 25 He threateneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongue like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this; and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burnt up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation:

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

23 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jeremiah complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. 5 God admoniseth him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritage. 14 He promiseth to the penitent a return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS ^a art thou, O LORD, when I ^a Ps. 51, 4. plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked ^b prosper? wherefore are all they hap- ^b Job 21, 7. py that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art ^c near in their mouth, and far from ^c Titus 1, 16. their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, ^d knowest me; thou hast ^d Ps. 139, 1. seen me, and tried mine heart ^e toward thee; ^e 2 Kings 20, pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the ^f day of slaughter. ^f James 5, 5.

4 How long shall the ^g land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the ^h wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall ⁱ not see our last end. ⁱ Ps. 50, 21.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou ^k contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the ^l swelling of Jordan? ^l Josh. 3, 15. Heb. 12, 4. m chap. 9, 4.

6 For even thy ^m brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have ⁿ called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak ⁿ Ps. 73, 18. & 137, 7. o 2 Kings 25 23. p ch. 10, 16.

7 I have forsaken ^p mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly-beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as ^q a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. ^q Matth. 23, 37.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as ^r a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ^r come to devour. ^r Luke 20, 47. s Rev. 19, 17. t chap. 8, 3.

10 Many ^u pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my ^u portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. ^u Isa. 63, 18.

11 * They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man ^y layeth it to heart. ^y Isa. 42, 25.

12 The ^z spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: ^a no flesh shall have peace. ^a Matth. 24, 22.

13 They have ^b sown wheat, but shall reap thorns; they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be ^c ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD. ^b Gen. 4, 12. Deut. 28, 38. Micah 6, 15. c Psal. 37, 3. Prov. 3, 4.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will ^g bring again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they ^h taught my people to swear by Baal;) then shall they ⁱ be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will ^k not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XIII.

1 In the type of a linen girdle hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people.

12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine, he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery.

15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments.

22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee ^a a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and ^b put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, ^c according to the word of the LORD, and put ^d it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which ^e is upon thy loins, and arise, go to ^f Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 ^g So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was ^h profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the ⁱ pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and ^j walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to ^k cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for ^l a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every ^m bottle shall be filled with ⁿ wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly ^o know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^p with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them ^q one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ^r but destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not ^s proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 ^t Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause ^u darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall ^v weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 ^w Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, ^x even the ^y crown of your glory.

19 The ^z cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them; Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north; where ^a is the flock that was ^b given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall ^c punish thee? (for thou hast taught them ^d to be captains, and as chief over thee;) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy ^e skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? ^f then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I ^g scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy ^h lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and ⁱ trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy ^j neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Wo unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? ^k when shall it once be?

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD doth not accept them: he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah, LORD God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; by sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O LORD our God: therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people; cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD, Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD; the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

1 The prophet, under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foresheweth the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers: 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt: 16 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt ^a not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons ^b nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the 4 They shall die of grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their ^c carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor ^d cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men ^e tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to ^f drink for their father or for their mother.

10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, ^j Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or ^k what is our iniquity, or what is our sin, that we have committed against the LORD our God?

6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is:

8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee; neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And I say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, that I bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

CHAP. XX.

1 Pashur smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

NOW ^d Pashur, the son of ^e Immer the priest, who ^f was also the ^g chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur ^h smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in ⁱ the stocks that ^j were in the high gate of Benjamin, which ^k was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but ^l Magor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee ^m a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and ⁿ thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover, I will deliver all the ^o strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the ^p treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied ^q lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast ^r deceived me, and I was ^s deceived; thou art ^t stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in ^u derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I ^v said, I will not make mention of ^w Ps. 14, 1 him, nor speak any more in his name: but his word was in mine heart as ^x a burning fire shut ^y q Ps. 39, 4 up in my bones, and I was ^z weary with forbear- ^a Acts 17, 16 ing, and I could not stay.

10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars ^b watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But the LORD ^c is ^d with me as a mighty ^e chap. 1, 19 terrible one; therefore my persecutors shall ^f stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that ^g triest the ^h ch. 11, 20 righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: ⁱ for unto thee have I ^j opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, ^k praise ye the LORD; for he hath ^l delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil-doers.

14 ^m Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, ⁿ A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD ^o overthrew, and repented not; and let him hear the cry in the ^p morning, and the shouting at noon-time;

17 Because he slew me not ^q from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb ^r h Job 5, 12 to see labour and sorrow, that my days should ^s be consumed with shame?

14 But I will punish you according ^sto the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall ^tdevour all things round about it.

1 He exhorteth to repentance with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD, Go down to the ^uhouse of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^vHear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates;

5 But if ye will ^{aa}not hear these words, I ^{ab}swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

7 And I will prepare ^{af}destroyers against thee, every one with his ^{ag}weapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

c John 10, 16.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah,
They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages:
for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastures, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol?
is he as a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock. 5 Christ shall rule and save them. 9 Against false prophets, 33 and mockers of the true prophets.

WO be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith
the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be

5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up, and which led, the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth, the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are profane;
yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith
the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me,
The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

Before CHRIST 599.
18 For who hath ¹ stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath [†] perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

Before CHRIST 599.
19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a ^m grievous whirlwind: it shall ^o fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

Before CHRIST 599.
20 The anger of the LORD shall ^o not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed, the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall ^p consider it perfectly.

Before CHRIST 599.
21 I have not ^a sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

Before CHRIST 599.
22 But if they had stood ^r in my counsel, and had ^a caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

Before CHRIST 599.
23 Am I a God ^t at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

Before CHRIST 599.
24 Can any hide himself ^u in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I ^x fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

Before CHRIST 599.
25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have ^y dreamed, I have dreamed.

Before CHRIST 599.
26 ^z How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the ^a deceit of their own heart;

Before CHRIST 599.
27 Which think ^b to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, ^c as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

Before CHRIST 599.

Before CHRIST 599.
29 Is not my word like ^g as a fire? saith the LORD; and like ^h a hammer that ⁱ breaketh the rock in pieces?

Before CHRIST 599.
33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, ^p saying, What is the ^q burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will ^r even forsake you, saith the LORD.

Before CHRIST 599.
34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.

Before CHRIST 599.
35 Thus shall ye say ^s every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

Before CHRIST 599.
36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye ^t mention no more; for every man's word shall be ^u his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

Before CHRIST 599.
37 Thus shalt thou say to the ^x prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

Before CHRIST 599.
38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

Before CHRIST 599.
39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will ^y utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and ^z cast you out of my presence:

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he sheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

Before CHRIST 599.
THE LORD ^a shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar ^b king of Babylon had carried away captive ^c Jehoiakim the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

Before CHRIST 599.
2 ^d A basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

Before CHRIST 599.
3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

Before CHRIST 599.
4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Before CHRIST 599.
5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I [†] acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah; whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans [†] for their good.

Before CHRIST 599.
6 For [†] I will set mine eyes upon them for [†] good, and I will [†] bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

Before CHRIST 599.
7 And [†] I will give them an [†] heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their [†] whole heart.

Before CHRIST 599.
8 And as the [†] evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that [†] dwell in the land of Egypt;

Before CHRIST 599.
9 And I will deliver them to [†] be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

1 Jeremiah reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 8 foretelleth the seventy years' captivity, 12 and after that the destruction of Babylon. 15 Under the type of a cup of wine, he foresheweth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the ^a fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto ^b all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the ^c thirtieth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth year,) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, ^d rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his ^e servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have ^f not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, ^g Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and ^h dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after ⁱ other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and ^j provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands ^k to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take ^m all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon ⁿ my servant, and will bring them against this land, and ^o against the inhabitants thereof, and against ^p all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them ^q the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the ^r millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon ^s seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are ^t accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it ^u perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For ^v many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will ^w recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me, Take the ^x wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be ^y mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and ^z made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, ^a Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; ^b (as it is this day;)

19 ^c Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the ^d mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 ^e Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the ^f kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ^g isles which are beyond the sea,

23 ^h Dedan, and Tema, and ⁱ Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of ^j Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of ^k Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the ^l Medes, 26 And all the kings of the ^m north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which ⁿ are upon the face of the earth: and the king of ^o Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and ^p rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ye shall certainly ^q drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is ^r called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not ^s be unpunished: for I will call for ^t a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall ^u roar from ^v on high, and utter his voice from ^w 18.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Jeremiah by promises and threatenings exhorteth to repentance. 8 He is therefore apprehended, 10 and arraigned : 12 His apology. 16 He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, 20 and of Urijah, 24 and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them : diminish not a word :

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpise to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened ;

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant ? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying,
This man is worthy to die ; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God ; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand ; do with me as seemeth good and meet unto
you :

15 But know ye for certain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof : for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die ; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death ? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them ? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah

Acts 10, 21.

maiah of ¹ Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and ^h fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king ¹ sent men into Egypt; namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt:

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt; and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king, who ^m slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand ^a of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar: 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets: 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah: 19 He foretelleth the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign ^a of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, Make thee ^b bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which ^c come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the ^d LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the ^e earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it unto whom it ^e seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ^h my servant; and the ⁱ beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his ^k son, and his ^l son's son, until the very ^m time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall ⁿ serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your ^a prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy ^a a lie unto you, to ^a remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under ^a the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to ^a Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 ^t Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy ^a a lie unto you.

15 For I have ^x not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name, that I ^y might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the ^z vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live; wherefore should this city be ^a laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make ^b intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the ^c pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive ^d Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the ^e nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that ^e remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be ^f carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD: then will I bring them up, and ^g restore them to this place.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in ^a the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the ^b prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 ^c Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I ^d bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon :

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the ^e captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD : for I will ^f break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^g Amen : the LORD do so ; the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people ;

8 The ^h prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms of war, and of ⁱ evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of ^k peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, ^l then shall the prophet be known that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from ^m off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and ⁿ brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, ^o Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations, within the ^p space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah ^q went his way.

12 ^r Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood ; but thou shalt make for them yokes of ^s iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ; and they shall serve him : and I have given him the ^t beasts of the field also.

15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah,

The LORD hath ^u not sent thee ; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will ^v cast thee from off the face of the earth : this year thou shalt die, because thou hast ^w taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet ^x died the same year, in the seventh month.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years : 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience : 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the ^a letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away ^b captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,

2 (After that ^c Jeconiah the king, and the ^d queen, and the ^e eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem,)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah ^f sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have ^g caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon,

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them ; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them ;

6 ^h Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters ; and ⁱ take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters ; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the ^j peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and ^k pray unto the LORD for it : for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, ^l deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ^m ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name ; I have ⁿ not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 For thus saith the LORD, That after ^o seventy years be ^p accomplished at Babylon I will ^q visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know ^r the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you ^s an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will ^t hearken unto you.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God ^a of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword ^b found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him ^c to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old ^d unto me, saying, Yea, I have ^e loved thee with ^f an everlasting love; therefore ^g with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

6 For there shall be ^l a day, that the ^m watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and ⁿ let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, ^o Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the ^p coasts of the earth, and with them the ^q blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with ^r weeping, and with ^s supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall ^t not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim ^u is my first-born.

17 And there is ¹ hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy ^m children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard ^o Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast ^o chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^p after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was ^q instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the ^r reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my ^s dear son? is he a pleasant child? For since I spake against him, I do earnestly ^t remember him still; therefore my bowels are ^u troubled for him: I will surely ^x have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up ^y way-marks, make thee ^z high heaps: ^a set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, ^b a woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD ^c bless thee, ^d O habitation of justice, and ^e mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall ^f dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the ^g weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I ^h awaked, and beheld; and my ⁱ sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the ^k seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to ^l pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to ^m build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, ⁿ The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die ^o for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make ^p a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

32 Not according ^q to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant ^r they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD;)

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, ^s I will put my law in their ^t inward parts, and ^u write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all ^x know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will ^y forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the LORD, which ^z giveth the sun a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which ^a divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If ^b those ordinances ^c depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If heaven above can be ^d measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off ^e all the seed of Israel, ^f for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the ^g city shall be built ^h to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring-line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields, unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate towards the east, shall be ⁱ holy unto the LORD; it ^j shall ^k not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the ^a tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the ^b eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army ^c besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet ^d was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, ^e Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^f I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And ^g Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall ^h speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ⁱ until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall ^j not prosper.

Before CHRIST cir. 590.
 6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
 7 Behold, Hanameel, the son of Shallum, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, ¹ Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the ^m right of redemption is thine to buy it.
 8 So Hanameel, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in ⁿ Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. ^o Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.
 9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ^p weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.
 10 And I subscribed the evidence, and ^q sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.
 11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, ^r both that which was sealed according ^r to the law and custom, and that which was open.
 12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ^s Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.
 13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,
 14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:
 15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards, shall be ^t possessed again in this land.
 16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, 17 I prayed unto the LORD, saying,
 18 Ah, Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is ^u nothing too hard for thee:
 19 Thou shewest ^v loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers unto the bosom of their children after them: The ^z Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name.
 20 ^a Great in counsel, and mighty ^b in work: (for thine ^c eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; ^d to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:)
 21 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and amongst other men; and hast made thee ^e a name, as at this day;
 22 And hast ^f brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with ^g signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;
 23 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^h a land flowing with milk and honey;

Before CHRIST cir. 590.
 23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they ⁱ obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law: they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do; therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.
 24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city ^k is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken ^l is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.
 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witness- es; for ^m the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.
 26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,
 27 Behold, ⁿ I am the LORD, ⁿ the God of all flesh: is there ^o any thing too hard for me?
 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^p I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.
 29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and ^q set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses ^r upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.
 30 For the children of Israel, and the children of Judah ^s have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.
 31 For this city hath been to me ^t as ^t a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day, that I should remove it from before my face;
 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, ^u they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
 33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, ^v rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.
 34 But they ^w set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
 35 And they ^x built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech, which I ^y commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.
 36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ^z ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;
 37 Behold, I will ^a gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely :

38 And they shall be ^d my people, and I will be their God :

39 And I will give them ^e one heart, and ^f one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them :

40 And I will make ^g an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good ; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall ^h not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will ⁱ rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land ^j assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD, Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is ^k desolate without man or beast ; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and ^l in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south : for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XXXIII.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the ^a second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the ^b maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to ^c establish it ; the LORD ^d is his name ;

3 ^e Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee ^f great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are ^g thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword ;

5 ^h They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but ⁱ it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom ^j I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, ^k I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will ^l reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of ^m Israel, to return, and will ⁿ build them as at the first.

8 And I will ^o cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me ; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 And it shall be to me ^p a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them : and they shall ^q fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place (which ^r ye say shall be ^s desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,) ^t

11 The ^u voice of joy, and the voice of gladness ; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride ; the voice of them that shall say, ^v Praise the LORD of hosts : for the LORD ^w is good ; for his mercy endureth for ever : and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, ^x as at the first, ^y saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be ^z a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ^a In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that ^b telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will ^c perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the ^d Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David ; and he shall ^e execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely : and this ^f is the name wherewith she shall be ^g called, ^h The LORD our righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD, ⁱ David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel ;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me, ^j to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, If you can ^k break ^l my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season ;

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son ^m to reign upon his throne ; and with the Levites the ⁿ priests, my ministers.

24 Considerest thou not what ^m this people have spoken, saying, ⁿ The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be ^o no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD, If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not ^p appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be ^q rulers over the ^r seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and ^s have mercy on them.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bond-servants, contrary to the covenant of God, reassume them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^a (when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against ^b all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him; Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^c I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee ^d mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt ^e not die by the sword;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the ^f burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn ^g odours for thee; and they will ^h lament thee, saying, Ah, lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto ^b Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against ⁱ Lachish, and against Azekah: for these ^k defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had ^l made a covenant with all the people which ^m were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ⁿ liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, ^{being} an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none ^m should serve himself of them, ^{to wit}, of a Jew ⁿ his brother.

10 Now, when all the princes, and all the people which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed, and let ^{them} go.

11 But ^o afterwards they turned, and caused the servants, and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and ^p brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out ^q of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 ^r At the end of seven years, let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been ^s sold unto thee; and, when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were ^t now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour: and ye had made a covenant before me in ^u the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and ^x polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I ^y proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be ^z removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they ^a cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the ^b priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and their ^c dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are ^d gone up from you.

7 It may be they will ^b present their supplication before the LORD, and will ¹ return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass, in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed ^k a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the ¹ chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan ^m the scribe, in the ⁿ higher court, at the entry of the ^o new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the ^p scribe's chamber, and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah ^q declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah ^r took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it ^s in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were ^t afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, ^u Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I ^x wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, ^y thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they ^z laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the ^a winter-house, in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he ^b cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor ^c rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah and Gemariah, had ^d made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, ^e to take Baruch the scribe, and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD ^f hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, (^g after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah,) saying, 28 ^h Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, ⁱ Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall ^k certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah, He shall have ^l none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will ^m punish him, and his seed, and his servants, for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the ⁿ mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ^a Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then ^a Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they ^e departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that ^f sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall ^g return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and ^h take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, ⁱ Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, ^k yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to ^l separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the ^m gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou ⁿ fastest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is ^o false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes ^p were wroth with Jeremiah, and ^q smote him, and put him in prison in the house of ^r Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah was entered into the ^s dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and ^t took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there ^u any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be ^v delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, ^w What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 ^x Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, ^y lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should ^z commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily ^a a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah, ^b Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king, by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard ^c the words that Jeremiah had spoken ^d unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^e He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have ^f his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be ^g given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the ^h princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be ⁱ put to death; for thus he ^j weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man ^k seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king ^l is not he that ^m can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the ⁿ dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that ^o was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon ^p there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 Now when Ebed-melech the ^q Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was ^r in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and ^s spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, ^t these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for ^u there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king ^v commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the Lord: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing: ^a hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely ^a put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou ^b not hearken unto me?

16 So the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the Lord liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If thou wilt assuredly ^a go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt ^d not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, ^a I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the Lord, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, ^a this is the word that the Lord hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the ^b women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes: and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy ^c children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if ^k the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee;

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him: for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

C H A P. XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 7 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city ruined. 9 The people captivated. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls; and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes, 14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he went among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XL.

1 Jeremiah being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair to him. * 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy, is not believed.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramath, when he had taken him, being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thy hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now, while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over all the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezeaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, sware unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise, when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan:

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

C H A P. XLI.

1 Ishmael treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purposeth with the residue to flee unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and mindeth to flee into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men, with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Before CHRIST 588.
c. Pr. 32, 1, 2.
3 Ishmael also slew ^aall the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from ^fShechem, from ^gShiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their ^hbeards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the ⁱhouse of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ^kweeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah || slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast ^lall the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain [†]because of Gedaliah, was it which ^mAsa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the ⁿking's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the ^oAmmonites.

11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the ^pcaptains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the ^qgreat waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were ^rglad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about, and returned, and ^twent unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ^uescaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had ^vrecovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, (after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam,) even [†]mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the ^yeunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwell in the habitation of ^zChimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18 [†]Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

C H A P. XLII.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to inquire of God, promising obedience to his will: 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He reproveth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.

T H E N all the captains of the forces, and ^aJohanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest, ^bcame near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^cpray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but ^da few of many, as thine eyes do behold us;)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us ^ethe way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may ^fdo.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ^gwhatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will ^hkeep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a ⁱtrue and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be ^kgood, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be ^lwell with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 [†]And it came to pass, ^mafter ten days, that ⁿthe word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people, from the ^oleast even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith ^pthe LORD, ^qthe God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I ^rbuild you, and not pull you down; and I will plant you, and ^snot pluck you up: for I ^trepent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 ^uBe not afraid of the king of Babylon, of ^vwhom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I ^wam ^xwith you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that ^yhe may have mercy upon you, and cause you ^zto return to your own land.

13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land,

15 And now, therefore, hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye wholly ^a set your faces ^a to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ^b ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 ^c So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt, to sojourn there; they shall die ^d by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be ^e an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 Johanan discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 3 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the ^a proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest ^b falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But ^c Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that ^d they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, ^e obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to ^f dwell in the land of Judah;

5 But ^g Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the ^h king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and ⁱ Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to ^k Tahpanhes.

8 ^l Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which ^m is in at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of ⁿ Babylon my servant, and will ^o set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall ^p smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ^q such as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the ^r houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence ^s in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that ^t is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ¹ my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, ² as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, ¹ Wherefore commit ye this great evil ^m against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the ^a works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ^a a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the ^o kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not [†] humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, ^a nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will ¹ set my face against you for evil, and to cut off [†] all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have ^s set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be ^t an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will [†] punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, [†] shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then ^u all the men ^x which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word which thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ^y we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing ^z goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ^a queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and ^b our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ^c victuals, and were ^d well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have ^e wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And ^f when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her ^g without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD ^h remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no ⁱ longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; ^k therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because you have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in ^l the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both ^m spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely ⁿ perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have ^o sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that ^p my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will ^q watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ^r a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall ^s know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hopra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon his enemy, and that sought his life.

C H A P. XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Wo is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

C H A P. XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles; 2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the LORD God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the LORD God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt, 14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another; and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, ^a before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^b waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; ^c the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his ^d strong horses, at the ^e rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the ^f fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of the day ^g that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every ^h helper that remaineth; for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of ⁱ Capthor.

5 ^k Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off ^l with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou ^m cut thyself?

6 ⁿ O thou sword of the LORD, ^o how long wilt it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be ^p quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he ^q appointed it.

C H A P. XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 26 and for their contempt of God and his people.

47 The restoration of Moab.

A GAINST Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Wo unto ^a Nebo! for it is spoiled; Kiriathaim is confounded and taken; ^b Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be ^c no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have ^d devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation: also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be ^e from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is ^f destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of ^g Luhith ^h continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 ⁱ Flee, save your lives, and be like the ^j heath in the wilderness.

7 For because thou hast ^k trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken; and ^l Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, with his ^m priests and his princes together.

8 And the ⁿ spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give ^o wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and ^p cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Moab hath been ^q at ease from his youth, and he hath ^r settled on his lees, and hath ^s not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him ^t to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and ^u break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall ^v be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of ^w Beth-el their confidence.

14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up ^x out of her cities, and his ^y chosen young men are gone down to the ^z slaughter, saith the King, ^a whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction ^b hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, ^c bemoan him; and all ye that know his ^d name, say, How is the ^e strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod?

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, ^f come down from thy glory, and sit ^g in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ^h ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, ⁱ What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ^j howl and cry; ^k tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And ^l judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblatthaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon, 24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 The ^m horn of Moab is cut off, and his ⁿ arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 Make ye him ^o drunken; for he magnified ^p himself ^q against the LORD: Moab also shall ^r wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the Lord: but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer; thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the Lord, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten is perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the Lord.

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the Lord.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 We be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the Lord. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites: 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the Lord, Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the Lord.

3 Howl, O Heshbon; for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird ye with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges: for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the Lord.

7 Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation; every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her; and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me?
and who will appoint me the time? who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red Sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings; they are faint-hearted: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry upon it, Fear is on every side.

30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil; and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them towards all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.

38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon unto them whom I reserve.

21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and so do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about: let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the LORD God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their Redeemer is strong; The LORD of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice; even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage; because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up ^aagainst me, ^ba destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon ^cfanners, that shall fan her, and shall ^dempty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and ^espare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been || forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was ^ffilled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ^gFlee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man ^hhis soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the ⁱtime of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been ^ka golden cup in the LORD's hand, that ^lmade all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is ^msuddenly fallen and destroyed: ⁿhowl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 ^oWe would have healed Babylon, but she ^pis not healed: forsake her, and ^qlet us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath ^rbrought forth our righteousness: come, and let us ^sdeclare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows, gather the shields: the LORD hath ^traised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the ^uvengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the ^xstandard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong; set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many ^ywaters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the ^zmeasure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men as with ^acaterpillars; and they shall ^blift up a shout against thee:

15 He hath ^cmade the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the ^dvapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is ^ebrutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity. the work of errors: in the time of their ^fvisitation they shall perish.

19 ^gThe Portion of Jacob is ^hnot like them; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance; The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art ⁱmy battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

29 And the ^u land shall tremble and sorrow: for ^v every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their ^w might hath failed; they became as women: they have burnt their dwelling-places; her ^x bars are broken.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like ^e a threshing-floor, it is time ^f to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her ^g harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath ^h devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like ⁱ a dragon, he hath filled his ^j belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The ^k violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, ^l My blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, (589)

ⁿ I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make ^o her springs dry, 37 And Babylon shall become ^p heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing without an inhabitant.

38 They shall ^q roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them ^r drunken, that they may ^s rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down ^t like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the ^u praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The ^x sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man ^y dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath ^z swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, ^a go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the ^b fierce anger of the LORD.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the ^y poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the ^z pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The ^a caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the ^b cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The ^c two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD:

Before CHRIST 588.
 LORD: the brass of all these vessels was ^d without weight.

21 And concerning the ^e pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and ^f a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was ^e five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 And the ^h captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and ⁱ Zephaniah the ^k second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch which had the charge of the men of war; and ^l seven men of them that [†] were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: In the ^m seventh year, three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive ⁿ from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two [†] persons:

30 In the ^o three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that ^p Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, ^q lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And ^r changed his prison-garments; and he did continually ^s eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin: 12 She complaineth of her grief, 18 and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the ^a city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and ^b princess among the provinces, how is she become ^c tributary!

2 She ^d weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among ^e all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah ^f is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she ^g dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between ^h the ⁱ straits.

4 ⁱ The ways of Zion do mourn, because none cometh to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; ^j her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she ^k is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the ^l chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the ^m multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion ⁿ all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find ^o no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her ^p pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did ^q mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath ^r grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her ^s nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her ^t filthiness is in her skirts; she ^u remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath ^x magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen ^y that the ^z heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should ^a not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek ^b bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become ^c vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that ^d pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, whereby the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From ^e above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread

cir. 588.
spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wretched, and come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to fall; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weep: mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow; my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress; my bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: y abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring a day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

C H A P. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem: 20 He complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devour-eth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth:

17 The LORD hath done that which he had ⁿdevised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy ^oto rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart ^pcried unto the LORD, ^qO wall of the daughter of Zion, let ^rtears run down like a river day and night; give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the ^snight; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy ^tyoung children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O LORD, and ^uconsider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women ^veat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger; thou hast ^ykilled, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, ^zas in a solemn day, ^amy terrors round about; so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine ^benemy consumed.

C H A P. III.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

I AM the man that hath ^aseen affliction by the ^brod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into ^cdarkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath ^dbroken my bones.

5 He hath ^ebuilded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be ^fdead of old.

7 He hath ^ghedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, ^hhe shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath ⁱinclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths ^kcrooked.

10 He was unto me as a ^lbear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and ^mpull-ed me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as ⁿa mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the ^oarrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was ^pa derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me ^adrunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also ^bbroken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath ^ccovered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from ^dpeace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And ^eI said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the ^fwormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is ^ghumbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have ^hI hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are ⁱnot consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new ^jevery morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is ^kmy portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that ^lwait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and ^mquietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that ⁿhe bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone, and ^okeepeth silence, because he hath borne ^pit upon him.

29 ^qHe putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth ^rhis ¹cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will ^snot cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have ^tcompassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict ^uwillingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the ^vprisoners of the earth,

35 ^wTo turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD ^xapproveth not.

37 Who is he that ^ysaith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not ^zevil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man ^acomplain, a man for the ^bpunishment of his sins?

40 Let us ^csearch and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with ^dour hands ^eunto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed, and have ^frebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast ^gcovered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that ^hour prayer should ⁱnot pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the ^joffscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have ^kopened their mouths against us.

47 Fear and ^a a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the ^e destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 ^f Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, 50 Till the LORD ^g look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the ^h daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast ^k a stone upon me.

54 ^l Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the ^m low dungeon.

56 Thou ⁿ hast heard my voice; hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou ^o drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O LORD, thou hast ^p pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong; judge thou my ^q cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their ^r vengeance, and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their ^s reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The ^t lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their ^u sitting down, and their rising up; I am their music.

64 ^x Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from ^y under the heavens of the LORD.

C H A P . IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate : 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are ^a poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed ^b as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their ^c young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ^d ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace ^e dung-hills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater ^f than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her ^g Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is ^h blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these ⁱ pine away, ^k stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the ^l pitiful women have ^m sodden their own children, they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath ⁿ poured out his fierce anger, and hath ^o kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have ^p entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the ^q sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the ^r blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered ^s as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, ^t Depart ye; it is ^u unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, ^v they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they ^x respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet ^y failed for our vain help: in our ^z watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that ^a we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for ^b our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are ^c swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The ^d breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their ^e pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ^f Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: ^g the cup ^h also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is ⁱ accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity; he will ^j visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

¶ The Book of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar: 4 His vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of GOD.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the ^a heavens were opened, and I saw ^b visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, (which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,)

3 The word of the LORD ^c came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the ^d Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; and the ^e hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 And I ^f looked, and behold, ^g a whirlwind came out of ^h the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a ⁱ brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire:

5 Also out of the ^j midst thereof came the likeness of ^k four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four ^l wings.

7 And their feet ^m were ⁿ straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a ^o calf's foot; and they sparkled like the colour of ^p burnished brass.

8 And they had the ^q hands of a man ^r under their wings, on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings ^s were ^t joined one to another; they ^u turned not when they went; they went every one ^v straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of ^w a man, and the face of ^x a lion on the right side: and they four had the face of an ^y ox on the left side; they four also had the face of ^z an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the ^a spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like ^b burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: ^c it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^d ran and ^e returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold, ^f one wheel upon the ^g earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance ^h of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they returned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so ⁱ high, that they were dreadful; and their rings were ^j full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went ^k by them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the ^l wheels were lifted up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature ^m was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for ⁿ the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the ^a firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of ^a the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other : every one had two, which ^a covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of ^a great waters, as the voice of ^a the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host : when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a ^a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone : and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above ^a upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of ^b fire round about within it ; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had ^c brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the ^d bow that is in the cloud in the day of ^e rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^f I fell upon my face, and I ^g heard a voice of one that spake.

1 Ezekiel's commission : 6 His instruction : 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, ^a Son of man, ^b stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit ^c entered into me ^d when he spake unto me, and ^e set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, ^f I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ^g nation that hath rebelled against me : they and ^h their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and ^b stiff-hearted : I do send thee unto them ; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, ⁱ whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear ; (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^k shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, ^l be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^m briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions : be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak ⁿ my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear ; for they are ^o most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee ; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house : open thy mouth, ^p and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me ; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein ;

10 And ^q he spread it before me : and it was written within and without ; and there was written therein ^r lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

C H A P. III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourage him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER, he said unto me, Son of man, ^a eat that thou findest : ^b eat this ^c roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I ^d opened my mouth, and he ^e caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause ^f thy belly to eat, and ^g fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^h eat it ; and it ⁱ was in my mouth ^j as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of ^k strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel :

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand : surely, had I sent thee to them, ^l they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee ; for they will not hearken ^m unto me : for all the house of Israel are ⁿ impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy ^o face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant, ^p harder than flint, have I ^q made thy forehead : fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, ^r all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in ^s thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto ^t thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, ^u whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the ^v spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the ^w "glory of the Lord from ^x his place."

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a ^y great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went ^z in bitterness, ^a in the heat of my spirit ; but the ^b hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by ^c the river of Chebar, and

16 And it came to pass, at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word that is at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned: also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

C H A P. IV.

1 Under the type of a siege, is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity. 9 By the provision of the siege is shewed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And I lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering-rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city; and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted; for from my youth up, even till now, have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof ^e a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall ^f a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, This is ^g Jerusalem: I ^h have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath ⁱ changed my judgments into wickedness ^k more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye ^l multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done ^m according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold ⁿ I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not ^o done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like; because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall ^p eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the ^q whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast ^r defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall ^s mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of these shall die with the ^t pestilence, and with ^u famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the ^v sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine ^w anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be ^x comforted: and they shall ^y know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make ^z thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, ^a an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee, in anger and in fury, and in ^b furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil ^c arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your ^d staff of bread.

17 So will I send upon you famine, and ^e evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your ^e images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will ^f scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be ^g laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and ^h your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall ⁱ fall in the midst of you; and ye shall ^j know that I am the Lord.

C H A P. VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel: 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies defile the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the ^a land of Israel, ^b An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will ^c recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And ^d mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, ^e an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it ^f watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 ^g The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the ^h day of trouble is near, and not the ⁱ sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly ^k pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the ^l rod hath blossomed; ^m pride hath budded.

11 ⁿ Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs; neither shall there ^o be wailing for them.

12 The ^p time is come, the day draweth near: let not the ^q buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath ^r is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any ^s strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even ^t to make all ready; but ^u none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The ^v sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like ^y doves of the valleys, all of them ^z mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 ^a All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and ^b horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and ^c baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall ^d not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the ^e stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the ^f beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations, and of their ^g detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the ^h wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall ⁱ pollute it.

22 My face will ^j I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the ^k robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make ^l a chain; for the land is full of ^m bloody crimes, the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their ⁿ holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 ^o Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet: but the law ^p shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The ^q king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and ^r according to their deserts will I judge them; and they ^s shall know that I am the Lord.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tammuz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat ^a before me, that the ^b hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of ^c fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of ^d brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head, and the spirit lift me up ^s between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the ^b image of jealousy, which ⁱ provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the ^k glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^l saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, ^m lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north. So I lift up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that ⁿ I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the ^o door of the court; and when I looked, behold, ^p a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, ^q dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and ^r abominable beasts, and all the ^t idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son ^u of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of ^v incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the ^w dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord ^x seeth us not; the Lord hath ^y forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt ^z see greater abominations than they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was towards the north; and, behold, there sat ^a women weeping for ^b Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, ^c between the porch and the altar, were about ^d five and twenty men, with their ^e backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces towards the east; and they worshipped the ^f sun towards the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O Son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit ^g here? for they have ^h filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch ⁱ to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal ^k in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they ^l cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

C H A P. IX.

HE cried also ^m in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that ⁿ have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six ^o men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man ^p a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and ^q one man ^r among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's ^s ink-horn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

3 And the ^t glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the ^u threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink-horn by his side;

4 And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set ^v a mark upon the foreheads of the men that ^w sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye ^x after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but ^y come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and ^z begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at ^a the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, ^b Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain; go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that ^c I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, ^d Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the ^e residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is ^f exceeding great, and the land is full of ^g blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord ^h seeth not.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand ^u with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud ^a filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl-stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels, that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel!

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them; and when the cherubims lift up their wings, to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lift up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel, by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The presumption of the princes. 4 Their sin and judgment. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER, the spirit lift me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel, in this city;

3 Which say, It is not near: let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Your slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

executed my judgments, but have done ^a after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pass, when I ^y prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, ^z died: then fell I ^a down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, 'Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 ^b Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they ^c unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ^d Get ye far from the LORD; unto ^e us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have ^f cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as ^g a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even ^h gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will give them ^k one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and ^l do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them ^m whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own head, saith the Lord God.

22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the ⁿ glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and ^o stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by the ^p Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth ^d at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 ^e Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight; thou shalt ^f cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee ^g for ^h a sign unto the house of Israel.

8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This ^l burden concerneth the ^m prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

13 My ^q net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall ^r he not see it, though he shall die there.

16 But I will leave a few ^u men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may ^v declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be ^z desolate from all that is therein, because ^a of the violence of them that dwell therein.

7 Have ye not seen ⁱ a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, ^k I am against you, ^l saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ^m assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the ⁿ writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they ^o enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because, ^p even because they have ^q seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with ^r untempered mortar.

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an ^s overflowing shower; and ye, ^t O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not ^u be said unto you, Where is ^v the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones, in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the ^w foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I ^x accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is ^y no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of ^z a peace for her, and there is no ^a peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the ^b daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the women that sew ^c d pillows to all arm-holes, and ^d make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye ^e hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for ^f handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people ^g that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls ^h to make them fly; and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and ⁱ strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by ^j promising him life;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor ^k divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

3 And I will make the land ^hdesolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant, is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 15 Her monstrous whoredom: 35 Her grievous judgment. 44 Her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters Sodom and Samaria, calleth for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

A GAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^acause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem, Thy ^bbirth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast ^cborn, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not ^dsalted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the ^eloathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own ^fblood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, ^gLive.

7 I have caused thee to ^hmultiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy ⁱbreasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast ^knaked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of ^llove; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest ^mmine.

9 Then ⁿwashed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I ^oanointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with ^pbrodered work, and ^qshod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I ^rcovered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and ^sa chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and ^ta beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou ^udecked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding ^vbeautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy ^wrenown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which ^xI had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ^yBut thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and ^zplayedst the harlot because of thy renown, and ^apouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy ^bhigh places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also ^ctaken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine ^doil and mine ^eincense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast ^fborne unto me, and these hast thou ^gsacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them ^hto pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast ⁱnot remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (^jwo, wo unto thee! saith the Lord God.)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee ^kan eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every ^lhead of the way, and hast made ^mthy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the ⁿEgyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary ^ofood, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ^pashamed of thy ^qlewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the ^rAssyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto ^sChaldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How ^tweak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the ^uwork of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an ^vharlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers ^a instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all ^b thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, ^c O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them:

37 Behold, therefore, I will ^e gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness ^f unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ^g as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and ^h jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine ⁱ eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall ^k strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up ^l a company against thee, and they ^m shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall ⁿ burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the ^o sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury towards thee ^p to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will ^q be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast ^r not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast ^s fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As ^t is the ^u mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine ^x elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were ^y a very little thing; thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, ^z as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, ^a pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were ^b haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath ^c Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast ^d justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, ^e bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more ^f righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the ^g captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I ^h bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art ⁱ a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, ^j then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was ^k not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, 57 ^l Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which ^m despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the Lord.

59 For thus saith the Lord God, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the ⁿ oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless, I will ^o remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ^p an everlasting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be ^q ashamed, when thou shalt receive ^r thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for ^s daughters, but not by thy ^t covenant.

62 And I will ^u establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt ^v know that I am the Lord;

63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and ^w never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am ^x pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes:
5 He sheweth how he dealeth with a just father,
10 with a wicked son of a just father, 14 with a just son of a wicked father, 19 with a wicked man repenting, 24 with a just man revolting: 25 concerning the land of Israel, saying, * The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's Israel.

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept ^smy judgments, to ^tdeal truly ; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, ^ua shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lift up his eyes to the idols, hath committed ^vabomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase : shall he then live ? he shall not live : he hath done all these abominations ; he shall surely ^wdie, his ^xblood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he ^ybeget a son that ^zseeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and ^aconsidereth, and ^bdoeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, 17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed ^cmy judgments, hath walked in my statutes ; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he ^dcruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why ? doth not the son bear the ^einiquity of the father ? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. ^fThe son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son ; the ^grighteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the ^hwickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will ⁱturn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be ^jmentioned unto him : ^kin his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any ^mpleasure at all that the wicked should die ? saith the Lord God ; and not that he should return from his ways, and live ?

24 But when ⁿthe righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and ^ocommitteeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live ? All his ^prighteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned : in his trespass, that he hath transgressed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet ^qye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, ^rIs not my way equal ? are not ^syour ways unequal ?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeeth iniquity, and dieth in them ; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall ^tsave his soul alive.

28 Because he ^uconsidereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal ? are not your ways unequal ?

30 Therefore I will ^vjudge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. ^wRepent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions ; so iniquity shall not be ^xyour ruin.

31 ^yCast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed ; and make you ^za new heart and a new spirit : for why will ye die, O house of Israel ?

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel.
5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest, he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

1 Kings 22, 1.
Isa. 22, 16.
ch. 33, 31.
AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came ^a to inquire of the LORD, and ^b sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, ^c I will not be inquired of by you.

Prov. 10, 29.
Isa. 11, 20.
Jer. 5, 28.
1 Kings 13, 7.
4 ^d Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? ^e cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, ^f In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the ^g seed of the house of Jacob, and ^h made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had ⁱ espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the ^k glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the ^l abominations of his eyes, and ^m defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Before CHRIST 593.
8 But they rebelled against me, and would ⁿ not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, ^o I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my ^p name's sake, that it should not be polluted ^q before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore ^r I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the ^s wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which ^t if a man do, he shall even ^u live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my sabbaths, to be ^v a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel ^x rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they ^y despised my judgments, which ^z if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would ^a pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But ^b I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I ^c lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their ^d heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make ^e an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, ^f Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the LORD your God: ^g walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And ^h hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children ⁱ rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which ^j if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless ^k I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 ^l I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and^o disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their^l eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were^m not good, and judgments whereby they should not live:

26 And I^a polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Yet in this your fathers have^o blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I^p had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their^u drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the^a high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye polluted^t after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye^u whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer^x your gifts, when ye make^y your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be^u inquired of by you.

32 And that which^a cometh into your mind shall^b not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with d Jer. 21, 5. ^d a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with^e fury poured out, will I^f rule over you;

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will^g gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out;

35 And I will bring you into the^h wilderness of the people, and there will Iⁱ plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I^k pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you^l to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

38 And I will^m purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shallⁿ not enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your^p gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine^q holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the^r house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your^s offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your^t sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall^u know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye^x remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall^y loathe yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your^z wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every^c green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and^d all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48 And^e all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak^f parables?

right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 a I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause b my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, c appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land; and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to d Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the e defended.

21 For the f king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use g divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the h liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for i Jerusalem, to appoint j captains, to open the i Jer. 51, 14. mouth in the slaughter, to k lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination k in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to l remembrance the inquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have made m your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear;
because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be n taken with the hand.

25 And thou, o profane wicked prince of Israel, whose p day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;

26 Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: q exalt him that is low, and r abase him that is high.

27 I will s overturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more, until he come t whose right it is; and u I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say,
Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Am-monites, and concerning their x reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is y drawn; for y the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering;

29 Whiles they see z vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose a day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath?
I will b judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will c pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will d blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for e fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more f remembered; for I the Lord have spoken it.

Before CHRIST 593.
 5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art ^c infamous and ^d much vexed.
 6 Behold, the ^e princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.
 7 In thee have they ^f set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed ^g the fatherless and the widow.
 8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my ^h sabbaths.
 9 In thee are men that ⁱ carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they ^j eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit ^k lewdness;
 10 In thee have they ^l discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.
 11 And one hath ^m committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.
 12 In thee have they ⁿ taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast ^o forgotten me, saith the Lord God.
 13 Behold, therefore, I have ^p smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy ^q blood which hath been in the midst of thee.
 14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine ^r hands be strong, in the days that ^s I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.
 15 And I will ^t scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.
 16 And thou shalt ^u take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt ^v know that I am the Lord.
 17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become ^w dross: all they ^x are ^y brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are ^z even the dross of silver.
 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, 'Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore, I will ^a gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
 20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, ^b to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.
 21 Yea, I will gather you, and ^c blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.
 22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have ^d poured out my fury upon you.
 23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
 24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is ^e not cleansed, nor ^f rained upon in the ^g day of indignation.

25 There is ^h a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have ⁱ devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.
 26 Her priests have ^j violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference ^k between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.
 27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like ^l wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.
 28 And her prophets have ^m daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, 'Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.
 29 The people of the land have used ⁿ oppression, and ^o exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.
 30 And I ^p sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the ^q gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.
 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.
 C H A P. XXIII.
 1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers: 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 And sheweth their judgments.
 THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,
 2 Son of man, there were ^a two women, the daughters of one mother;
 3 And they ^b committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their ^c youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.
 4 And the names of them were Aholah the ^d elder, and Aholibah her sister; and they were ^e mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.
 5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the ^f Assyrians her neighbours.
 6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.
 7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, ^g with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.
 8 Neither left she her whoredoms ^h brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.
 9 Wherefore I have ⁱ delivered her into the hand

Before
CHRIST

hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These^a discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and stew her with the sword; and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She^a doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both^a one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men^a poured upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans poured upon^a vermin,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And, as soon as she^a saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the^a Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19. Yet she^a multiplied her whoredoms, y in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their^a paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, a Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagrons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my^a jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy^a nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also^a strip thee out of thy^a clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy^a lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them^a whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee^a hatefully, and shall take away^a all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do^a these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring^a after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her^a cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup^a deep and large: thou shalt be^a laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be^a filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and^a suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and^a pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast^a forgotten me, and^a cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, I declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and^a blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have^a defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, I then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments, 41 And sattest upon^a a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set^a mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being^a at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was ^t old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is shewed the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the vision of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 19 is shewed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

AGAIN, in the ⁿ ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day; the king of Babylon ^b set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Set on ^c a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 ^d Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every ^e good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the ^f choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it ^b boil well, and let him seethe the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the ^b bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose ^b scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; ^k let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the ⁱ top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up ^m to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice ^a it well, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the ^o filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with ^p lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because ^q I have purged thee, and thou wast ^r not purged, thou shalt ^s not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the Lord ^t have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will ^u I spare, neither will I repent: ^v according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ^w Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee ^x the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou ^y mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, make ^z no mourning for the dead, bind ^a the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not ^b thy ^c lips, and eat not ^d the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and ^e at ^f even my wife died: and I did in the morning ^g as I was commanded.

19 And the people said unto me, ^h Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou dost so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will ⁱ profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the ^j desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ^k ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away ^l for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you ^m a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them ⁿ their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he that ^o escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 In that day shall thy ^p mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be

C H A P. XXV.

1 God's vengeance for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 8 upon Moab and Seir, 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face against the ^b Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the LORD God; Thus saith the LORD God, Because thou saidst, ^c Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:

4 Behold, therefore, I will deliver thee to the ^d men of the east for a possession, and they shall ^e set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they ^f shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^g Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the LORD God, Because thou hast ^h clapped ⁱ thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced ^j in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore, I will ^k stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the LORD God, Because that ^l Moab and ^m Seir do say, Behold, the ⁿ house of Judah ^o is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will ^p open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities ^q which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may ^r not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD God, Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by ^s taking vengeance, and hath greatly ^t offended, and revenged himself upon them:

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will ^u cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will ^v lay my vengeance upon Edom by ^w the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the LORD God.

15 Thus saith the LORD God, Because the Philistines have dealt ^x by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the ^y old hatred;

16 Therefore, thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the ^z Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 And I will execute ^a great vengeance upon them with ^b furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Tyrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened.

7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the ^a eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, ^b Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned ^c unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause ^d many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the ^e walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the ^f midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the LORD God; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her ^g daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 For thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar ^h king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall ⁱ make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 He shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, ^j as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make ^k a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy ^l merchandise; and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust, in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy ^m songs ⁿ in ^o the sea.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyrus : 26 The great and irrecoverable fall thereof.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, take up a ^a lamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the ^b entry of the sea, which art ^c a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God, O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy ^d builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship-boards of fir-trees of ^e Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the ^f oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Asshurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of ^g Chittim.

7 Fine linen, with brodered work from Egypt, was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: blue and purple from the isles of ^h Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy ⁱ wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of ^k Gebal, and the wise men thereof, were in thee, thy calkers: all the ships of the sea, with their mariners, were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia, and of ^l Lud, and of ^m Phut, were in thine army thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad, with thine army, were upon thy walls round about, and the ⁿ Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 ⁿ Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 ^o Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of ^p Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses, and horsemen, and mules.

15 The men of ^q Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present, horns of ivory and ebony.

16 ^r Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 ^s Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of ^t Minnith and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 ^u Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 ^v Dan also and Javan, going to and fro, occupied in thy fairs; bright iron, ^x cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 ^y Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 ^z Arabia, and all the princes of ^a Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats; in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of ^b Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 ^c Haran, and ^d Canneh, and ^e Eden, the merchants of ^f Sheba, ^g Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market; and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the ^h east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because ^a thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, ^b I am a god, I ^c sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the sea; yet thou art ^a a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, thou art ^o wiser than Daniel: there is ^c no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast ^a gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up ^b because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, ¹ Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore, I will bring ^k strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the ¹ pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou ^m yet say before him that slayeth ^m thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the ^a uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 [¶] Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, ^o take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every ^p precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the ^a anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast ^a perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the ^a multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I ^a will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may ^b behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy ^a sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee; it shall devour thee; and I will bring thee to ^a ashes upon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be ^a a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 [¶] Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face against ^c Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be ^a glorified in the midst of thee; and they shall ^a know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh, for his treachery to Israel. 3 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadrezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

IN the ^a tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^b set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and ^c against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, ^d I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^e dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put ^f hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee ^g thrown into ^h the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of ⁱ the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt ^j shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been ^k a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they ^l took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee thou ^m brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, ⁿ I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be ^o desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt ^p utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be ^q inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will ^r scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God, At the ^s end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the ^t captivity of Egypt, and I will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it ^u exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more ^x the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall ^y look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his ^z army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, ^a I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his ^b labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought ^c for me, saith the Lord God.

21 ^d In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the ^e opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

3 For the day ^c is ^d near, even the day of the LORD ^e is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the ^f heathen.

19 ^z Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt; and they ^a shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ^b And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have ^c broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall ^d not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I ^e am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will ^f break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will ^g strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put ^h my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall ⁱ groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall ^j know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will ^k scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ^l Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with ^m a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The ⁿ waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ^o little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted ^p above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the ^q fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his ^r shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^s garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 ^t I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, ^u envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast ^v lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 ^w I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely ^x deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt: 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it: 17 It shall be brought down to hell among all the uncircumcised nations.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas; and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God, I will, therefore, spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her; they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword; she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolters: 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem, he prophesieth the desolation of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of the prophets.

A GAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, speak to the children of ^a thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^b watchman:

3 If, when he ^c seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and ^d warn the people;

4 Then whosoever ^e heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, ^f his blood shall be upon him: but he that ^g taketh warning shall deliver ^h his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take ⁱ any person from among them, he is taken away ^j in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word ^k at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, ^l If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, ^m how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have ⁿ no pleasure in the death of the wicked; ^o but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the ^p righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he ^q turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his ^r righteousness in the day that he ^s sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely ^t live; if he ^u trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely ^v die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is ^w lawful and right;

15 If the wicked ^x restore the pledge, give again that he hath robbed, walk in ^y the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face against ^b mount Seir, and ^c prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O mount Seir, I am ^d against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt ^e know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had ^f a perpetual hatred, and hast ^g shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will ^h prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast ⁱ not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

C H A P. XXXVII.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 15 By the uniting of two sticks, 18 is shewed the incorporation of Israel with Judah. 21 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied there was a noise, and, behold, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live; and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 ¶ The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And David my servant shall be king over them: and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they and their children, and their children's children, for ever; and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply

1 The army, 8 and malice of Gog: 14 God's judgment against him.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against ^a Gog, the land of Magog, the chief ^b prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am ^c against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And I will ^d turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 ^e Gomer, and all his bands; the house of ^f Togamah of the north quarters, and all his bands; and many people with thee.

7 Be thou ^g prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ^h After many days thou shalt be visited: in the ⁱ latter years thou shalt ^k come into the land that is ^l brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell ^m safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ⁿ ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think ^o an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of ^p unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, 12 To take ^q a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have ^r gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, ^s Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou ^t not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and ^u many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the ^v latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be ^w sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art thou he ^x of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come ^y up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be ^z a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence; and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ^a call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be ^b against his brother.

22 And I will ^c plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will ^d rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I ^e magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they ^f shall know that I am the Lord.

is with thee: I will give thee unto the ^e ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them ^b pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 Behold, [†] it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this ^k is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall [†] go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall ^m burn them with fire seven years.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; and they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall ⁿ spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the ^e east of the sea; and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of ^{||} Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may ^p cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them [†] a renown, the day that I shall be ^q glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall ^r sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ^s sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may ^t eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them ^u fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with ^v horses and chariots, [†] with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 ¶ And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall ^w see my judgment that I have executed, and ^a my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their ^b iniquity: because they trespassed against me, ^c therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, ¶ Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the ^e whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their ^f trespasses, whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am ^g sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have ^h gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

1 The time, manner, and end of the vision. 6 The description of the east gate, 20 of the north gate, 24 of the south gate, 32 of the east gate, 35 and of the north gate. 39 Eight tables. 44 The chambers. 48 The porch of the house.

I N the ^a five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year ^b after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day the ^c hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon ^d a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of ^e a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was ^f a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of ^g brass, with ^h a line of flax in his hand, and ⁱ a measuring-reed; and he stood ^k in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and ^l set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit; and an hand-breadth: so he measured ^u the breadth of the building one reed, and the ^v height one reed.

6 Then came he unto the ^o gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the ^p threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every ^q little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate ^r within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the ^s court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were fifty cubits.

16 And there were [†] narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were ^t chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the ^u pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the ^v lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the [†] fore-front of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court, that [†] looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east; and they ^y went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he ^z measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were ^a windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little ^b chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the ^c arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad:

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^d palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures; and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, and on this side and on that side: and the going up to it had ^e eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured ^f it according to these measures:

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they ^e washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the ^f trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the ^e singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the ^h keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the ⁱ altar; these are the sons of ^j Zadok, among the sons of Levi, which come ^k near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, four-square, and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to ^m the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits: and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it; and there were ⁿ pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD ^a he brought me to the ^b temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the ^c breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the ^d door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the ^e length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, ^f twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every ^g side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they ^h entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so ⁱ increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, ^k one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the ^l galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door-posts, and the ^m narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and ⁿ palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every ^o cherub had two faces;

19 So that the ^p face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side:

it was made through all the house round about.
20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ^a posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The ^a altar of wood was ^a three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the ^a table that is before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the ^a doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the ^a side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.
19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN ^a he brought me forth into the ^b outer court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the ^c chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was [†] gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was ^d a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit: and their doors toward the north.

5 Now, the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were ^e higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the ^f wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court on the fore-part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings-out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall ^a eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering; and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their ^b garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and ^c measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the ^d measuring-reed round about.

17 He measured the north side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

18 He measured the south side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, ^a the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and his ^b voice was like a noise of many waters: and the ^c earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was ^d according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came ^e to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the gate whose [†] prospect is toward the east.

shall the house of Israel ¹ no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places ;

8 In their setting of their ² threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them ; they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed : wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 Thou son of man, ³ shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities ; and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, ⁴ shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof ; and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof : and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house ; Upon the ⁵ top of the mountain, the ⁶ whole limit thereof round about shall be ⁷ most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits : The cubit is a cubit and an hand-breadth ; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span : and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit ; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits ; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns :

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof ; and the border about it shall be half a cubit ; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about ; and his ⁸ stairs shall look toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the ⁹ seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for ¹⁰ a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the ¹¹ blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about : thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ¹² without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering ; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast ¹³ salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering : they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar, and purify it ; and they shall ¹⁴ consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your ¹⁵ peace-offerings ; and I will ¹⁶ accept you, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince. 4 The priests reprov'd for polluting of the sanctuary. 9 Idolaters incapable of the priest's office. 15 The sons of Zadok are accepted thereto. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate toward the outward sanctuary, which looked toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me, This gate shall be ¹⁷ shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it ; because the Lord, the God of Israel, ¹⁸ hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the ¹⁹ prince ; the prince he shall sit in it to ²⁰ eat bread before the Lord : he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house : and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord ; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, ²¹ mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof ; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the ²² rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Israel, let it ²³ suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary, ²⁴ strangers, uncircumcised in ²⁵ heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ²⁶ my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the ²⁷ charge of mine holy things : but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, ²⁸ No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the ^a Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even ^a bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ^a ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel ^a to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my [†] holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them ^a keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of ^a Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall ^a come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table to minister unto me, and they shall ^a keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with ^a linen garments; and no ^y wool shall come upon them whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have ^a linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth ^a sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall ^a not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow ^a long; they shall ^a only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest ^a drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, or her that is ^a put away: but they shall take ^a maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference ^a between the holy and profane, and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it ^a according to my judgments; and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: ^a but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And ^a after he is cleansed they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance; ^a I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every ^a dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all ^a the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall ^a not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

C H A P. XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land ^a for inheritance, ye shall ^b offer an oblation unto the Lord, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the ^a sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the [†] most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ^a ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint ^a the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the ^a prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the ^a west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel; and ^a my princes shall no more ^a oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have measure just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God, In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself, and for all the people of the land, a bullock for a sin-offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to the Lord, seven bullocks, and seven rams without blemish, daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat-offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meat-offering, and according to the oil.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, 9 and for the people. 16 An order for the prince's inheritance.

19 The courts for boiling and baking.

THUS saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord, in the sabbaths, and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath-day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram; and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth:

11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram; and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he did on the sabbath-day; then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt-offering unto the Lord of a lamb of the first year without blemish; thou shalt prepare it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat-offering continually, by a perpetual ordinance, unto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the oil, every morning, for a continual burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession; that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a new building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling-places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters: 6 the virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land: 22 the division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the fore-front of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now, when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea; which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it, from En-gedi even unto Engedaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets: their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed: they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers; and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

16 Hamath, Berotah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

¶ The Book of DANIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 8 They refusing the king's portion, do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the ^a third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came ^b Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto ^c Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord ^d gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^e part of the vessels of the ^f house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the ^g treasure-house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should ^h bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the ⁱ king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but ^k well-favoured, and ^l skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as ^m had ⁿ ability in them ^o to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the ^p learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a ^q daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them ^r three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the ^s children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs ^t gave names: for he gave unto Daniel, the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel ^u purposed in his heart that he would not ^v defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel ^w into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs ^x said unto Daniel, ^y I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me ^z endanger my head to the king?

11 Then ^{aa} said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee ^{ab} ten days; and let them give us ^{ac} pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, ^{ad} deal with thy servants.

14 So ^{ae} he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared ^{af} fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar ^{ag} took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, ^{ah} God gave them knowledge and skill in all ^{ai} learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all ^{aj} visions and dreams.

18 Now, at the ^{ak} end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king ^{al} communed with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ^{am} ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the ^{an} first year of king Cyrus.

CHAP. II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings.

10 They acknowledging their inability, are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, findeth the dream. 19 He blesseth God: 24 He staying the decree, is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar ^{ao} dreamed dreams, wherewith his ^{ap} spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

Before CHRIST 603.
2 Then the king commanded ^d to call ^e the magicians, and the astrologers, and the ^f sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for ^g to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled ^h to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: ⁱ tell thy servants the dream, and ^k we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ^l cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill:

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me ^m gifts, and rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof.

7 They ⁿ answered again, and said, Let the king ^o tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would ^p gain the time, ^q because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but ^r one decree for you; for ye have prepared ^s lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the ^t time be changed; therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, ^u that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can shew it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling ^v is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and ^w very furious, and commanded to destroy ^x all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the ^y decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they ^z sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ^a Then Daniel answered ^b with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch ^c made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him ^d time, and that he would ^e shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his ^f house, and made the thing ^g known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions;

18 That they would ^h desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perish ⁱ with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ^j Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, ^k Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; ^l for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he ^m removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth ⁿ wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He ^o revealeth the deep and secret things: he ^p knoweth what is in the darkness, and the ^q light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what ^r we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's-matter.

24 Therefore Daniel ^s went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him, ^t Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste; and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the ^u captives of Judah ^v that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered, and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, ^w Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, ^x cannot the wise men, the astrologians, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is ^y a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 (As for thee, O king, thy ^z thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh ^a known to thee what shall come to pass:

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me ^b for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart;)

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great ^c image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof ^d was terrible.

32 This ^e image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.

C H A P. III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicated ¹ a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, are accused for not worshipping the image. 13 They being threatened, make a good confession. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 26 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle, blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR ^a the king made ^b an image of gold, whose height was ^c three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the ^d plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

my bed : I saw, and, behold, ^a a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof ^{was} great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof ^{reached} unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof ^{were} fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it ^{was} meat for all : the ^x beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, ^y a watcher and ^z an holy one came down from heaven.

14 He cried ^a aloud, and said thus, ^b Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit : let the beasts ^c get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, ^d leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with ^e a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field ; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his ^f portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.

16 Let his ^g heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him ; and let h seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the ⁱ decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones ; to the intent that the living may ^k know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the ^l basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof ; forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are ^m not able to make known unto me the interpretation : but ⁿ thou art able ; for the spirit of the holy gods ^{is} in thee.

19 Then Daniel, (whose name ^{was} ^o Belteshazzar,) ^{was} ^p astonished for one hour, and his thoughts ^q troubled him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream ^{be} to them that ^r hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The ^s tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth ;

21 Whose ^t leaves ^{were} fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it ^{was} meat for all ; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation :

22 It ^{is} ^u thou, O king, that art grown and become strong : for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one ^v coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it ; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field ; and let it be wet with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him ;

24 This ^{is} the interpretation, O king, and this ^{is} the decree of ^y the Most High, which is come upon my lord the ^z king :

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou ^a know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots ; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, ^b after that thou shalt have known that the ^c heavens do rule.

27 ^d Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor ; if it may be ^e a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ ^f All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the ^g end of twelve months he walked in the ^h palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king ⁱ spake and said, ^k Is not this great Babylon that ^l I have built for the house of the kingdom, ^m by the might of my power, and for the ⁿ honour of my majesty ?

31 ^o While the word ^{was} in the king's mouth, there fell ^p a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, ^q to thee it is spoken ; The kingdom is departed from thee :

32 And they shall ^r drive thee from men, and thy dwelling ^{shall} be with the beasts of the field : they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The ^s same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar : and he was driven from men, and did ^t eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And ^u at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar ^v lift up mine eyes unto heaven ; and ^w mine understanding returned unto me ; and I ^x blessed the Most High ; and I praised and honoured him that ^y liveth for ever, whose dominion ^{is} an ^z everlasting dominion, and his kingdom ^{is} from generation to generation :

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth ^{are} reputed ^a as nothing : and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth ; and none ^b can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou ?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me ; and, for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me ; and my ^c counsellors and my lords sought unto me ; and I was established in my kingdom ; and excellent majesty ^{was} added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol

BELSHAZZAR the king made ^a a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he ^b tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had ^c taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might ^d drink therein.

3 Then ^e they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and ^f the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines drank in them.

4 They drank wine and ^g praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the, ^h same hour came forth ⁱ fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the ^k plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's ^l countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his ^m knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud ⁿ to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the ^o third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not ^p read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar ^q greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his ^r lords were astonished.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet-house, and the queen spake and said, O King, live forever: ^s let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is ^t a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and, in the days of thy father, ^u light, and understanding, and wisdom, ^v like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made ^w master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as ^x an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and ^y dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^z Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even ^a heard of thee, that the ^d spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, ^e that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not ^f shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee that thou canst make interpretations and dissolve doubts: now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be ^g clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy ^h gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; ⁱ yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 ^k O thou king, the most high God ^l gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19 And, for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, ^m trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he ⁿ kept alive, and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his ^o heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was ^p deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was ^q driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast ^r not humbled thine heart, though thou ^s knewest all this;

23 But hast ^t lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have ^u brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which ^v see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose ^w are ^x all thy ways, hast thou ^y not glorified.

24 ^z Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

27 TEKEL; Thou art ^d weighed in the balances, and art ^e found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom ^f is divided, and ^g given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and ^h put a chain of gold about his neck, and ⁱ made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And ^k Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

C H A P. VI.

1 Daniel is made chief of the presidents. 4 They conspiring against him, obtain an idolatrous decree.

10 Daniel accused of the breach thereof, is cast into the lions' den. 13 Daniel is saved, 24 his adversaries devoured, 25 and God magnified by a decree.

IT pleased Darius ^a to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was ^b first; that the princes might give ^c accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was ^d preferred above the presidents and princes, ^e because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then ^f the presidents and princes ^g sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could ^h find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any ⁱ error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We ^k shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find ^l against him concerning the ^m law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes ⁿ assembled together ^o to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 ^p All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have ^q consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any ^r god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, ^s establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which ^t altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius ^u signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel ^v knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, his ^w windows being open in his chamber ^x toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his ^y knees three times a-day, and prayed, ^a and gave thanks before his God, ^b as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and ^c found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 ^d Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, ^e The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the ^f captivity of the children of Judah, ^g regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and ^h set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured ⁱ till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the ^k law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 ^l Then the king commanded, and they ^m brought Daniel, and ⁿ cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^o Thy God, whom thou servest ^p continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And ^q a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be ^r changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king ^s went to his palace, and passed the night ^t fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him; and his ^u sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose ^v very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel; and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, ^w servant of the living God, is thy ^x God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his ^y angel, and ^z hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as ^a before him innocency was found in me; and also ^b before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king ^c exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^d no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he ^e believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought ^f those men which had accused Daniel, before him: ^e thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment ^f was set, and the ^g books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld, ^h even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the ⁱ burning flame.

12 As concerning the ^j rest of the beasts, they had their ^k dominion taken away: yet their lives were ^l prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, ^m one like the ⁿ Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, ^o and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him ^p dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion ^q is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom ^r that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of ^s my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I ^t came near unto one of them that stood by, and ^u asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and ^v made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, ^w are four ^x kings, which shall ^y arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and ^z possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know ^a the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth ^b were of iron, and his nails ^c of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that ^d were in his head, and ^e of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even ^f of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, ^g whose look ^h was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn ⁱ made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and ^j judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and ^k the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the ^l fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall ^m devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom ⁿ are ^o ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak ^p great words ^q against the Most High, and shall wear ^r out the saints of the Most High, and think to ^s change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, ^t until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts, 9 of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a ^a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed: then he ^b wrote the dream, ^c and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the ^d four winds of the heaven strove upon the ^e great sea.

3 And ^f four great beasts ^g came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first ^h was ⁱ like a lion, and had ^j eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and ^k made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And, behold, another beast, ^l a second, like to ^m a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and ⁿ it had ^o three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and ^p they said thus unto it, Arise, ^q devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, ^r another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also ^s four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, ^t a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had ^u great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it ^v was diverse from all the beasts that ^w were before it; and it had ^x ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another ^y little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn ^z were eyes like the eyes of man, and ^a a mouth ^b speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones were ^c cast down, and the ^d Ancient of days ^e did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne ^f was like the fiery flame, and ^g his wheels ^h as burning fire.

^f take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be ^g given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my ^h countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my ⁱ heart.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram, and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, ^a even unto me Daniel, ^b after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I ^c was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of ^d Elam;) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I ^e lifted up mine eyes and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river ^f a ram which had ^g two horns, and the two horns were high; but one ^h was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing ⁱ westward, and northward, and southward; so that ^j no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did ^k according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an ^l he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched ^m not the ground: and the goat had ⁿ a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ^o ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was ^p moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was ^q no power in the ram to stand before him, but he ^r cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was ^s strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up ^t four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth ^u a little horn which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ^v pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the ^w host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the ^x stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the ^y prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, ^z and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down ^a the truth to the ground; and it practised, and ^b prospered.

13 Then I heard ^c one saint speaking, and another saint said unto ^d that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto ^e two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be ^f cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, ^g and sought for the meaning, ^h then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, ⁱ Gabriel, ^j make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he ^k touched me, and ^l set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the ^m last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the ⁿ kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the ^o rough goat is the king of ^p Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas ^q four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but ^r not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, ^s a king of fierce countenance, and ^t understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his ^u power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall ^v destroy the ^w mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his ^x policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall ^y magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken ^z without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told ^a is true: wherefore ^b shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel ^c fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the ^d king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, ^e but none understood it.

for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy-weeks.

IN the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood ^a by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish ^b seventy years in the ^c desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, ^d to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and ^e made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and ^f mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have ^g sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we ^h hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness ⁱ belongeth ^j unto thee; but unto us ^k confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, ^l that are ^m near, and ⁿ that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, ^o to us ^p belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God ^q belong mercies and forgiveness, ^r though we have rebelled against him:

10 Neither have we obeyed ^s the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, ^t all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the ^u curse is poured upon us, and the oath that ^v is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath ^w confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: ^x for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done ^y upon Jerusalem.

13 As ^z it is ^{aa} written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: ^{ab} yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord ^{ac} watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God ^{ad} is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not ^{ae} his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that ^{af} hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee ^{ag} renown; as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all ^{ah} thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^{ai} thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, ^{aj} O Jerusalem and thy people are ^{ak} become ^{al} a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now, therefore, O our ^{am} God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that ^{an} is desolate, ^{ao} for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee ^{ap} for our righteousness, but for ^{aq} thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken, and do; ^{ar} defer not, for ^{as} thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And ^{at} whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly ^{au} swiftly, touched me about the time of the ^{av} evening oblation.

22 And he ^{aw} informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the ^{ax} beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art ^{ay} greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to ^{az} make an end of sins, and to make ^{ba} reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in ^{bb} everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to ^{bc} anoint the Most Holy.

25 ^{bd} Know, therefore, and understand, that from the ^{be} going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the ^{bf} Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be ^{bg} cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall ^{bh} destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall ^{bi} confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall ^{bj} cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations ^{bk} he shall make ^{bl} it desolate, even until the consummation, and that ^{bm} determined, shall be poured upon the desolate.

C H A P. X.

1 Daniel having humbled himself, seeth a vision: 10 being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words, like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand that shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as-for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

C H A P. XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Leagues and conflicts between the kings of the south and of the north. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be ^p stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly ^e come, and overflow, and pass through; then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth ^a a great multitude; but the multitude shall be ^a given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, ^t his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall ^u cast down many ten thousands: but he shall ^x not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of ^y the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude ^z greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the ^a robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most ^b fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his ^c chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh among him shall do according to his own will, and ^d none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the ^e glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also ^f set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ^g corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the ^h isles, and shall take many; but a prince ⁱ for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it ^k to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and ^l not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up ^m a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom ⁿ by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed ^o before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the ^p covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall ^q work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong ^r with a small people.

24 He shall enter ^s peaceably even upon the fastest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall ^t scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall ^u forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with ^x a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall ^y destroy him, and his army shall ^z overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak ^a lies at one table; but it shall ^b not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the ^c holy covenant; and he shall do exploits and return to his own land.

29 At the time ^d appointed he shall return, ^e and come toward the south: but it shall not be ^f as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of ^g Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have ^h indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and ⁱ have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And ^j arms shall stand on his part, and they shall ^k pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall ^l take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as ^m do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do ⁿ know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that ^o understand among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall ^p fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, ^q many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with ^r a little help: but many shall cleave to them with ^s flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, ^t to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for ^u a time appointed.

36 And ^v the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and ^w magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the ^x desire of women, nor regard ^y any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour ^z with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and ^a pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with ^b a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for ^c gain.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD ^bby Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed ^cgreat whoredom, ^ddeparting from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little ^ewhile, and I will avenge the blood of ^fJezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the ^ghouse of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will ^hbreak the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will ⁱno more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will ^jutterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them ^kby the LORD their God, and will not save them ^lby bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

1 The idolatry of the people. 6 God's judgments against them. 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

SAY ^a ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to ^s your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 ^b Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not ^c my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3 Lest I ^d strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with ^e thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of ^f whoredoms.

5 For their ^g mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, ^h I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will ⁱ hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall ^k follow after her lovers, but she shall ^l not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to ^m my first husband; for then was it ⁿ better with me than now.

8 For she did ^o not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they ^p prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I ^q return, and ^r take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I ^s discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her ^t feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her ^u fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my ^v rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them ^w a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of ^x Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 ^a Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the ^b valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her ^c youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me ^d Ishi, and shalt call me no more ^e Baali.

17 For I will take away ^f the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the ^g beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the ^h bow, and the sword, and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down ⁱ safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will ^k betroth thee unto me in ^l righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in ^m faithfulness; and thou ⁿ shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will ^o hear the heavens; and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall ^p hear Jezreel.

23 And I will ^q sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that ^r had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

C H A P. III.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^a Go yet, love a woman beloved of her ^b friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and ^c love flagons of wine.

2 So I ^d bought her to me for ^e fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley.

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt ^f abide for me many days: thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man; so will ^g I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide ^h many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and ⁱ David their king; and shall ^j fear the LORD and his goodness in the ^k latter days.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath ^a a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor ^b knowledge of God, in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they ^c break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land ^d mourn, and every one that dwelteth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be ^e taken away.

4 Yet let no man ^f strive, nor reprove another: for this people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the ^h day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the ⁱ night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for ^k lack of knowledge: because thou hast ⁱ rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be ^m no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also ⁿ forget thy children.

7 As they were ^o increased, so they sinned against me; therefore will I change their ^p glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ^q like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have ^r enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have ^s left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the ^t heart.

12 ¶ My people ^u ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the ^v spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the ^w mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: ^x therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will ^y not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are ^z separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots, therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, ^a yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as ^b a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in ^c a large place.

17 Ephraim ^d is joined to idols: ^e let him alone.

18 Their drink ^f is ^g sour; they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, ^h Give ye.

19 The wind hath ⁱ bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ^k ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

HEAR ye this, ^a O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been ^b a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are ^c profound to make slaughter, though I have been ^d a rebuker of d them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is ^e not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest ^f whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will ^g not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth ^h testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall ⁱ not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten ^k strange children: now shall ^l a month devour them with their portions.

8 ^m Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet ⁿ in Ramah: cry aloud at ^o Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the ^p day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall ^q surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the ^r bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the ^s commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as ^t a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his ^u wound, then went Ephraim to the ^v Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as ^w a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place till they ^x acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will ^y seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME,

Before CHRIST
cir. 780.

COME, and ^a let us return unto the LORD : for he hath torn, and he will heal us : he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

² After two days will he revive us ; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall ^c live in his sight.

³ Then shall we know, if we ^d follow on to know the LORD : his ^e going forth is prepared as the morning ; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

⁴ O Ephraim, ^f what shall I do unto thee ? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee ? for your goodness is as ^g a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

⁵ Therefore have I ^h hewed them by the prophets ; I have slain them by the words of my mouth : and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

⁶ For I desired mercy, and ⁱ not sacrifice ; and the ^k knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

⁷ But they, like men, have ^l transgressed the covenant : ^m there have they dealt treacherously against me.

⁸ Gilead is ⁿ a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

⁹ And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the ^o company of priests murder in the way by consent : for they commit lewdness.

¹⁰ I have seen ^p an horrible thing in the house of Israel : there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

¹¹ Also, O Judah, he hath set ^q an harvest for thee, when I ^r returned the captivity of my people.

C H A P. VII.

¹ A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against the people for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have ^a healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria : for they commit falsehood ; and the ^b thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without :

² And they consider not in their hearts that ^c I remember all their wickedness : now their own doings have beset them about ; they are ^d before my face.

³ They make the king glad with their ^e wickedness, and the princes with their ^f lies.

⁴ They are all adulterers, ^g as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough until it be ^h leavened.

⁵ In the ⁱ day of our king the princes have made him sick with ^j bottles of wine : he stretched out his hand with scorners.

⁶ For they have ^k made ready their heart like an oven, whilst they ^l lie in wait : their baker sleepeth all the night ; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

⁷ They are all ^m hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges : all their ⁿ kings are fallen ; there is none among them that ^o calleth unto me.

⁸ Ephraim, he hath ^p mixed himself among the people ; Ephraim is a cake ^q not turned.

Before CHRIST
cir. 780.

⁹ Strangers have ^a devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not ; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he ^b knoweth not.

¹⁰ And the ^c pride of Israel testifieth to his face ; and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him ^d for all this.

¹¹ Ephraim also is like ^e a silly dove without heart : they call ^f to Egypt, they go to Assyria : ¹² When they shall go, I will spread my ^g net upon them ; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven ; I will chastise them as their congregation ^h hath heard.

¹³ Wo unto them ! for they have fled from me ; destruction unto them ! because they have transgressed against me : though I have ⁱ redeemed them, yet they have ^j spoken lies against me. ¹⁴ And they have ^k not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their ^l beds : they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

¹⁵ Though I have ^m bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief ⁿ against me.

¹⁶ They return, but ^o not to the Most High ; they are like a deceitful bow : their princes shall fall by the sword for the ^p rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

C H A P. VIII.

^{1, 12} Destruction is threatened for their impiety, 5 and idolatry.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth : ^a he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed ^b my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

² Israel shall ^c cry unto me, My God, ^d we know thee.

³ Israel hath cast off the thing that is ^e good : the enemy shall pursue him.

⁴ They have ^f set up kings, but not by me ; they have made princes, and I ^g knew it not : of their silver and their gold have they ^h made them idols, that they may be cut off.

⁵ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off ; mine anger is kindled against them ; ⁱ how long will it be ere they attain to innocency ?

⁶ For from Israel was it also : the workman made it ; therefore it is ^j not God : but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

⁷ For they have ^k sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind : it hath no stalk ; the bud shall yield no meal : if so be it yield, the ^l strangers shall swallow it up.

⁸ Israel is ^m swallowed up : now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is ⁿ no pleasure.

⁹ For they are gone up ^o to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself : Ephraim hath ^p hired lovers.

¹⁰ Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I ^q gather them, and they shall sorrow a ^r little for the burden of the king of assyria.

¹¹ Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

¹² I have written ^s to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

C H A P. IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, ^a as other ^a people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved ^b a reward upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in ^c the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat ^d unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be ^e pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread ^f for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the ^g solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, ^h nettles shall possess them: ⁱ thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the ^k prophet is a fool, the ^l spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 ^m The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is ⁿ a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^o Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like ^p grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to ^q Baal-peor and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, ^r their glory shall flee away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I ^s bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, also to them when ^t I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the ^u murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them ^v a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in ^a Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of ^a mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their ^b root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay ^c even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did ^d not hearken unto him: and they shall be ^d wanderers among the nations.

C H A P. X.

Israel is reprov'd and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRAEL is ^a an empty vine, he bringeth forth ^a fruit ^b unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is ^c divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have ^d no king, because we ^e feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken ^f words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus ^g judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the ^h priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king ⁱ Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his ^j own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, ^k her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the ^l sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars, and they shall say to the mountains, ^m Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned ⁿ from the days of Gibeah; there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against ^o the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in ^p my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth ^q to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim ^r to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^s break up your fallow ground: for it is ^t time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have ^u plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies; because thou didst trust in thy way, in the ^v multitude of thy mighty men.

C H A P. XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 His judgment. 8 God's mercy towards them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then a I loved him, and called b my son out of Egypt.

2 As c they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also d to go, taking them by their e arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with f cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I g laid meat unto them.

5 He shall h not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be i his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the k sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own l counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though m they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 n How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? o Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will p not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for q I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk r after the LORD; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall s tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about t with lies and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet u ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

C H A P. XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob. 3 By former favours he exhorteth to repentance. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on a wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and b oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with c Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; d according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother e by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had f power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in g Beth-el, and there he g spake h with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; The LORD is his i memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: k keep mercy and judgment, and l wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the m balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become n rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find o none iniquity in me that o were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God p from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: q they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a r wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by s a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he t preserved.

14 Ephraim u provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD x re- turn unto him.

2 And now they sin d more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own e understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the f chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A promise of God's blessing.

O ISRAEL, ^a return unto the LORD thy God ; ^a Joel 2, 11. for thou hast fallen by thy iniquity.

2 Take with you ^b words, and turn to the LORD : say unto him, ^c Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously : so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Asshur shall ^d not save us ; we will not ride upon horses ; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods : for in thee the ^e fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them ^f freely : for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the ^g dew unto Israel : he shall ^h grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as ⁱ Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the ^j olive-tree, and his ^k smell as ^l Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his ^m shadow shall return ; they shall ⁿ revive as the corn, and grow as the vine : the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I ^o to do any more with idols ? I have heard him, and observed him : I am like a green fir-tree. From me ^p is thy fruit found.

9 Who ^q is wise, and he shall ^r understand these things ? prudent, and he shall know them ? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them : but the transgressors shall ^s fall therein.

¶ JOEL.

C H A P. I.

1 Joel declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn : 14 He prescribeth a fast for complaint.

THE ^a word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

2 ^b Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in ^c your days, or even in the days of your fathers ?

3 Tell ye ^d your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation ;

4 That which the palmer-worm hath left, ^e hath the locust eaten ; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten ; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 ^f Awake, ye drunkards, and weep ; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine ; for it is ^g cut off from your mouth.

6 For ^h a nation is come up upon ⁱ my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the ^j cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my ^k vine waste, and ^l barked my fig-tree ; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away ; the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a ^m virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The ⁿ meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD : the ^o priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, ^p the land mourneth ; for the corn is wasted : the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 ^q Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen ; howl, ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley ; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth ; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered : because ^r joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests ; howl, ye ^s ministers of the altar ; come, ^t lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God : for the meat-offering and the drink-offering ^u is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify ye ^v a fast, call a solemn assembly,

15 ^a Alas for the day! for the ^b day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.
16 Is not the ^c meat cut off before your eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, ^d the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.
18 How do the ^e beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, ^f to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field ^g cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

C H A P. II.

1 He sheweth unto Zion the terribleness of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 and promiseth a blessing thereon: 21 He comforteth Zion with present 28 and future blessings.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and ^a sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land ^b tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at ^c hand:

2 A day of darkness, and of gloominess, a day of ^d clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: ^e a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire ^f devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land ^g is ^h as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them ⁱ a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them ^j is as the appearance of ^k horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather ^l blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall ^m climb the wall like men of war; and they shall ⁿ march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walk every one ^o in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the ^p windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall ^q quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the ^r sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining;

11 And the LORD shall ^s utter his voice before his army; for his camp ^t is very great: for he ^u is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD ^v is great and very terrible; and ^w who can abide it?

12 Therefore also ^x now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And ^y rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he ^z is gracious and merciful, ^a slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth ^b if he will return and repent, and ^c leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, ^d sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the ^e children, and those that suck the breasts; let the ^f bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ^g between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy ^h people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, ⁱ Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be ^j jealous for his land, and ^k pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will ^l answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you ^m corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you the ⁿ northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea; and his hinder part towards the utmost sea: and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 ^o Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do ^p great things.

22 Be not afraid, ^q ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be ^r full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will ^s restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the cater-

28 And it shall come to pass ^a afterward, that I will ^a pour out my Spirit upon all flesh ; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions :

29 And also upon the ^a servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will shew ^a wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The ^a sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall ^a call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered : for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the ^a remnant whom the LORD shall call.

C H A P. III.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people.
9 God will be known in his judgment. 18 His blessing upon the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall ^a bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also ^a gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have ^a scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have ^a cast lots for my people : and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do ^a with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine ? will ye render me a recompence ? and if ye recompense me, ^a swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head :

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into ^a your temples my goodly pleasant things.

6 ^a The children also of Judah, and the children of Jerusalem, have ye ^a sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them ^a out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your ^a recompence upon your own head :

8 And I will ^a sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off : for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ^a Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles ; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up :

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears : let the weak say, I am strong.

11 ^a Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about ; thither cause thy ^a mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be ^a wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat : for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle ; for ^a the harvest is ripe : come, get you down ; for the press is full, the fats overflow ; for the wickedness is great.

14 ^a Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision : for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall ^a roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem : and the heavens and the earth shall shake : but the LORD will be the ^a hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye ^a know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain : there shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no ^a strangers pass through her any more.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the ^a mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and ^a a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the ^a violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for ^a ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed : for the LORD ^a dwelleth in Zion.

hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people b not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath n not done it?

7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he k revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, l who can but prophesy?

9 m Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they n know not to do right, saith the Lord, who o store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, p An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy q strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the Lord, As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; r so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, s saith the Lord God, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the t altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the u winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the Lord.

C H A P. IV.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye a kine of Bashan, that are h in the mountain of Samaria, which b oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will c take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the d breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the Lord.

4 Come to Beth-el and e transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after f three years.

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for g this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

6 And I also have given you h cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and i caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities k wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye l not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

9 I have smitten you with m blasting and mildew: when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the n palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner o of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11 I have overthrown p some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand q plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12 Therefore r thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare s to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his t thought, that maketh the morning u darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, the God of hosts, is his name.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The b virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall c no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, d Seek ye me, and ye shall e live.

5 f But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like g fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that ⁿ speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch, therefore, as ^o your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall ^p not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For ^q I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the ^r prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is ^s an evil time.

14 ^t Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have ^u spoken.

15 ^v Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD, saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, ^y Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are ^z skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will ^a pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Wo unto you that desire the day of the LORD! ^b to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and ^c a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be ^d darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ^e I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will ^f not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the ^g melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness, ^h as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered ⁱ unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity ^j beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

1 The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibility.

WO to them that are ^a at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and ^b see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they ^c better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that ^d put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and ^e stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chant ^f the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are ^g not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the ^h first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The LORD God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ⁱ ten men in one house, that they ^j shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that ^k burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for ^m we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD ⁿ commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 Shall horses ^o run upon the rock? will one plow ^p there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into ^q hemlock.

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of ^r nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by ^s our own strength?

14 But, behold, ^t I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of the wilderness.

1 The judgments of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 7 By a wall and a plumb-line is signified the rejection of Israel. 10 Amaziah complaineth of Amos. 14 Amos sheweth his calling, 16 and Amaziah's judgment.

the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made ^b an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, ^c O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee; by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD ^e repented for this: it shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the ^f great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee; ^g by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, ^h with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will ⁱ not again pass by them any more:

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the ^k house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah, the ^l priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath ^m conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able ⁿ to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall ^o die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, ^p flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the ^q king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was ^r no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was ^s an herdsman, and a gatherer of ^t sycamore-fruit:

15 And the LORD took me ^u as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, ^v Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now, therefore, hear ^w thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, ^x Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not ^y thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, ^z Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and ^a thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

3 And the ^d songs of the temples shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be ^e many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that ^f swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, ¶ OBADIAH.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and for their wrong unto Jacob. 17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom, ^a We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, ^b Arise ye; and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee ^c small among the heathen; thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath ^d deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation ^e is high; that ^f saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt ^g thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy ^h nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

5 ⁱ If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they ^j not leave some grapes?

6 How are the ^k things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy ^l confederacy have brought thee ^m even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have ⁿ deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him:

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy ^o the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy ^p mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For ^q thy violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off ^r for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the ^s strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and ^t cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have ^u looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have ^v rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest ^w not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid ^x hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up

¶ JONAH.

C H A P. I.

1 Jonah sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 He is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came ^a unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, ^b that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up ^c before me.

3 But Jonah rose up ^d to flee unto Tarshish ^e from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish ^f from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD ^f sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man ^g unto his god, and ^h cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten ⁱ it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was ^j fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, ^k What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ^l call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^m cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil ⁿ is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot ^o fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, ^p Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil ^q is upon us. What ^r is thy occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I ^s am an Hebrew; and ^t I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly ^u afraid, and said unto him, Why hast ^v thou done this? ^t Gen. 39, 9. (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, ^u What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? ^v (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, ^w Take me up, and ^x cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that ^y for my sake this great tempest ^z is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men ^a rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they ^b could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done ^c as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and ^d cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ^e ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men ^f feared the LORD exceedingly, and ^g offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had ^h prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and ⁱ three nights.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 He is delivered from the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God ^a out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he ^b heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou ^c heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast ^d me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods ^e compassed me about:

CHAPTER I.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to ^a Micah the ^b Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 ^c Hear, ^d all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the LORD God ^e be witness against you, the LORD from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD ^f cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and ^g tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the ^h mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. ⁱ What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not ^j Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not ^k Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as ^l an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ^m discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the ⁿ graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she ^o gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will ^p wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for ^q it is come unto Judah: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ^r Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah ^s roll thyself in the dust.

11 ^t Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having ^u thy shame naked; the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel: he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good; but evil came down ^v from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of ^w Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the ^x beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou ^y give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be ^z a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring ^a an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 ^b Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 Against oppression. 4 A lamentation. 7 A reproof of unjustice and idolatry. 12 A promise of restoring Jacob.

WO to them that ^a devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the ^b power of their hand.

2 And they ^c covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I ^d devise an evil, from which ye shall ^e not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is ^f evil.

4 ^g In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled; he hath ^h changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 ⁱ Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophecy: they shall ^j not prophecy to them that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art ^k named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD ^l straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do ^m good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is ⁿ risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is ^o not your ^p rest: because it is ^q polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man, ^r walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophecy unto thee of ^s wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely ^t gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of ^u Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The ^v breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and ^w their King shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER III.

1 The cruelty of the princes. 5 The falsehood of the prophets. 8 The security of them both.

4 Then shall they ^e cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that ^f bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he that ^g putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore ^h night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their lips: for there is no ^k answer of God.

8 But truly I am ^l full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion ^m with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

1 The church complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 She triumpheth over her enemies. 14 God comforteth her by promises, 16 by confusion of the enemies, 18 and by his mercies.

WHO is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I ¹fall, I shall ²arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the ³indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, ⁴Where is the LORD thy God? ⁵mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy ⁶walls are to be built, in that day shall ⁷the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also ⁸he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from ⁹the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 Notwithstanding, the land shall be ¹⁰desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine ¹¹heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him ¹²marvellous things.

16 The nations shall ¹³see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall ¹⁴lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall ¹⁵lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities: and thou wilt ¹⁸cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

2 God is ²jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious: the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth ³wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is ⁴slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the ⁵wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He ⁶rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The ⁷mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, ⁸the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 ⁹Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is ¹⁰poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is ¹¹good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he ¹²knoweth them that trust in him.

8 ¹³But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye ¹⁴imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be ¹⁵folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is ¹⁶one come out of thee that imagineth evil against the LORD, a ¹⁷wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD, Though they be ¹⁸quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have ¹⁹afflicted thee, I will afflict thee ²⁰no more.

13 For now will I ²¹break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath ²²given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy ²³name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the ²⁴mountains the feet of him that bringeth ²⁵good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

8 Art thou better than ^upopulous No, that was situate ^vamong the rivers, ^wthat had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy ^xhelpers.

10 Yet was she ^ycarried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were ^zdashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were ^abound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be ^bdrunken: thou shalt be ^chid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like ^dfig-trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the ^emouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee ^fare women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine ^genemies: the fire shall devour thy ^hbars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, ⁱfortify thy strong holds: go into ^jclay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15 There shall the ^kfire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy ^lmerchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy ^mcrowned are as the locusts, and thy ⁿcaptains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day; but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

C H A P. I.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans: 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did ^a see.

2 O LORD, ^b how long shall I cry, and thou wilt ^c not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou ^d shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is ^e slackened, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth ^f compass about the righteous; ^g therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ^h Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously; for I will ⁱ work a work in your days, which ye will ^j not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the ^k Chaldeans, that bitter and ^l hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the ^m evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the ⁿ eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the ^o east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff ^p at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall ^q heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall ^r his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall ^s not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained ^t them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that ^u deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked ^v devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have ^w no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the ^x angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they ^y sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their ^z portion is fat, and their meat plentifulous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to ^a slay the nations?

C H A P. II.

1 Unto Habakkuk waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for insatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry.

I WILL stand upon my ^a watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say ^b unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon ^c tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for ^d an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely ^e come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is ^f lifted up is not upright in him: but the ^g just shall live by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth ^h by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who ⁱ enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up ^j a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself ^k with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up ^l suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the ^m violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 Wo to him that ⁿ coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his ^o nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted ^p shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Wo to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the ^q very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the ^r earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him

¶ HAGGAI.

C H A P. I.

1 Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the house : 7 He inciteth them to the building : 12 He promiseth God's assistance to them being forward.

IN the ^a second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD, by Haggai the prophet, unto ^b Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to ^c Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD ^d of hosts, saying, This people ^e say, The ^f time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 ^g Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 Is it ^h time for you, O ye, to dwell ⁱ in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste ?

5 Now, therefore, thus saith the LORD ^j of hosts, ^k Consider your ways.

6 Ye have ^l sown much, and bring in little ; ye eat, but ye have not enough ; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink ; ye clothe you, but there is none warm ; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith the LORD ^m of hosts, ⁿ Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain and bring wood, and build the house ; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little ; and when ye brought it home, I did ^o blow upon it. Why ? saith the LORD of hosts. ^p Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the ^q heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And ^r I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ^s ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the LORD their God had sent him,) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai, the LORD's messenger, in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, ^t I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD ^u stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people ; and they came, and ^v did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

15 And now, I pray you, consider ^y from this day and upward, from before ^z a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD;

¶ ZECHARIAH.

C H A P. I.

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 The vision of the horses. 12 At the prayer of the angel comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem. 18 The vision of the four horns, and the four carpenters.

IN the ^a eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of ^b Berechiah; the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been ^c sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^d I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not ^e as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, ^f where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ^g take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, ^h so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which ⁱ is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold, ^j a man riding upon ^k a red horse, and he stood among the ^l myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, ^m what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These ⁿ are they whom the LORD hath ^o sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have ^p walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth ^q sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the ^r angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, ^s how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these ^t threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me ^u with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am ^v jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am ^w very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they ^x helped forward the affliction.
